SUCI Second Investment Company

(incorporated in the Cayman Islands as an exempted company with limited liability)

Trust Certificate Issuance Programme

Under this trust certificate issuance programme (the “Programme”), SUCI Second Investment Company (in its capacities as issuer and as trustee, the “Trustee”) may, subject to compliance with all relevant laws, regulations and directives, from time to time issue trust certificates (the “Certificates”) in any currency agreed between the Trustee and the relevant Dealer(s) (as defined below). Certificates may only be issued in registered form.

Certificates may be issued on a continuing basis to one or more of the Dealers specified under “Overview of the Programme” and any additional dealer(s) appointed under the Programme from time to time by the Trustee (each a “Dealer” and together the “Dealers”), which appointment may be for a specific issue or on an ongoing basis. References in this Offering Circular to the “relevant Dealer” shall, in the case of an issue of Certificates being (or intended to be) subscribed by more than one Dealer, be to all Dealers agreeing to subscribe to such Certificates.

The Certificates will be limited recourse obligations of the Trustee. An investment in Certificates issued under the Programme involves certain risks. For a discussion of these risks, see “Risk Factors”.

Each Series (as defined herein) of Certificates issued under the Programme will be constituted by: (a) a master declaration of trust dated 16 October 2023 (the “Master Declaration of Trust”) entered into between the Trustee, the Public Investment Fund (the “Obligor” or “PIF”) and HSBC Bank plc as delegate of the Trustee (in such capacity, the “Delegate”); and (b) a supplemental declaration of trust (the “Supplemental Declaration of Trust”, together with the “Master Declaration of Trust”, the “Declaration of Trust”) in relation to the relevant Tranche (as defined herein). Certificates of each Series confer on the holders of the Certificates from time to time (the “Certificateholders”) the right to receive certain payments (as more particularly described herein) arising from the assets of a trust declared by the Trustee in relation to the relevant Series (the “Trust”) over the relevant Trust Assets (as defined herein).

Application has been made to the London Stock Exchange plc (the “London Stock Exchange”) for the Certificates issued under the Programme during the period of 12 months from the date of this Offering Circular to be admitted to the London Stock Exchange’s International Securities Market (“ISM”). The ISM is not a United Kingdom (“UK”) regulated market for the purposes of Regulation (EU) No 600/2014 on markets in financial instruments as it forms part of domestic law by virtue of the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018 (“EUWA”) (“UK MiFIR”). This Offering Circular does not comprise a prospectus for the purposes of Article 6 of Regulation (EU) 2017/1129 as it forms part of domestic law of the UK by virtue of the EUWA (the “UK Prospectus Regulation”).

The ISM is a market designated for professional investors. Certificates admitted to trading on the ISM are not admitted to the Official List of the Financial Conduct Authority (FCA). The London Stock Exchange has not approved or verified the contents of this Offering Circular.

References in this Offering Circular to Certificates being “admitted to trading” (and all related references) shall mean that such Certificates have been admitted to trading on the ISM so far as the context permits. The Programme provides that Certificates may be listed or admitted to trading, as the case may be, on such other or further stock exchanges or markets as may be agreed between the Trustee, the Obligor and the relevant Dealer(s) (which, for the avoidance of doubt, shall exclude a regulated market for the purposes of Directive 2014/65/EU (as amended) (“MiFID II”) and a UK regulated market for the purposes of UK MiFIR). The Trustee may also issue unlisted Certificates and/or Certificates not admitted to trading on any market. The applicable pricing supplement (the “Pricing Supplement”) relating to the relevant Tranche (as defined herein) will state whether the relevant Certificates will be listed and/or admitted to trading on any market.

Notice of the aggregate principal amount of Certificates, profit (if any) payable in respect of such Certificates, the issue price of such Certificates and other information which is applicable to each Tranche will be set out in a Pricing Supplement, which with respect to Certificates to be admitted to trading on the ISM, will be delivered to the London Stock Exchange and, with respect to Certificates to be admitted to trading on the ISM, will also be published on the website of the London Stock Exchange through a regulatory information service or may be published in such other manner permitted by the International Securities Market Rulebook effective as of 1 January 2021 (as may be modified and/or supplemented and/or restated from time to time, the “ISM Rulebook”).

The Obligor has been assigned a long-term issuer credit rating of A1 with a positive outlook by Moody’s Investors Service Limited (“Moody’s”) and A+ with a stable outlook by Fitch Ratings Ltd. (“Fitch”). The Programme is expected to be rated A1 by Moody’s and A+ by Fitch.

Each of Fitch and Moody’s is established in the UK and is registered in accordance with Regulation (EC) No. 1060/2009 as it forms part of domestic law by virtue of the EUWA (the “UK CRA Regulation”). The ratings issued by Fitch and Moody’s have been endorsed by Fitch Ratings Ireland Limited and Moody’s Deutschland GmbH, respectively, in accordance with Regulation (EC) No. 1060/2009 (as amended) (the “CRA Regulation”). Each of Fitch Ratings Ireland Limited and Moody’s Deutschland GmbH is established in the European Economic Area (the “EEA”) and is registered under the CRA Regulation. As such, each of Fitch Ratings Ireland Limited and Moody’s Deutschland GmbH is included on the list of credit rating agencies published by the European Securities and Markets Authority (“ESMA”) on its website at <https://www.esma.europa.eu/credit-rating-agencies/cra-authorisation>.

Each potential purchaser of Certificates should determine for itself the relevance of the information contained in this Offering Circular and its purchase of Certificates should be based upon such investigation as it deems necessary. None of the Arrangers, the Dealers, the Delegate or the Agents undertakes to review the financial condition or affairs of the Trustee or the Obligor during the life of the arrangements contemplated by this Offering Circular nor to advise any investor or potential investor in the Certificates of any information coming to the attention of any of the Arrangers or the Dealers.

EACH PROSPECTIVE INVESTOR IS ADVISED TO CONSULT ITS OWN TAX ADVISER, LEGAL ADVISER, BUSINESS ADVISER AND SHARI'A ADVISER AS TO TAX, ZAKAT, LEGAL, BUSINESS, SHARI'A AND RELATED MATTERS CONCERNING THE PURCHASE OF ANY CERTIFICATES.

No comment is made or advice given by, the Trustee, the Obligor, the Arrangers, the Dealers, the Delegate or the Agents or any of their respective affiliates in respect of taxation or Shari'a matters relating to any Certificates or the legality of the purchase of Certificates by an investor under applicable or similar laws.

The distribution of this Offering Circular and any Pricing Supplement and the offering, sale and delivery of the Certificates in certain jurisdictions may be restricted by law. Persons into whose possession this Offering Circular or any Pricing Supplement comes are required by the Trustee, the Obligor, the Arrangers and the Dealers to inform themselves about and to observe any such restrictions. For a description of certain restrictions on offers, sales and deliveries of Certificates and on the distribution of this Offering Circular or any Pricing Supplement and other offering material relating to the Certificates, see "Subscription and Sale".

In particular, the Certificates have not been and will not be registered under the United States Securities Act of 1933 (as amended) (the "Securities Act") or with any securities regulatory authority of any state or other jurisdiction of the United States. Certificates may not be offered or sold within the United States or to, or for the account or benefit of, U.S. persons as defined in Regulation S under the Securities Act ("Regulation S"), except pursuant to an exemption from, or in a transaction not subject to, the registration requirements of the Securities Act and in accordance with all applicable securities laws of any state or other jurisdiction of the United States. None of the Trustee, the Obligor, the Arrangers, the Dealers, the Delegate, the Agents or any of their respective directors, affiliates, advisers and agents make any representation that this Offering Circular may be lawfully distributed, or that any Certificates may be lawfully offered, in compliance with any applicable registration or other requirements in any such jurisdiction, or pursuant to an exemption available thereunder, or assume any responsibility for facilitating any such distribution or offering.

Neither this Offering Circular nor any Pricing Supplement constitutes an offer or an invitation to subscribe for or purchase any Certificates and should not be considered as a recommendation by the Trustee, the Obligor, the Arrangers, the Dealers, the Delegate, the Agents or any of them that any recipient of this Offering Circular or any Pricing Supplement should subscribe for or purchase any Certificates. Each recipient of this Offering Circular or any Pricing Supplement shall be taken to have made its own investigation and appraisal of the condition (financial or otherwise) of the Trustee and the Obligor.

The Certificates may not be a suitable investment for all investors. Each potential investor in the Certificates must determine the suitability of that investment in light of its own circumstances. In particular, each potential investor should:

- (a) have sufficient knowledge and experience to make a meaningful evaluation of the Certificates, the merits and risks of investing in the Certificates and the information contained in this Offering Circular or any applicable supplement;

- (b) have access to, and knowledge of, appropriate analytical tools to evaluate, in the context of its particular financial situation, an investment in the Certificates and the impact the Certificates will have on its overall investment portfolio;
- (c) have sufficient financial resources and liquidity to bear all of the risks of an investment in the Certificates, including where the currency for principal or profit payments is different from the potential investor's currency;
- (d) understand thoroughly the terms of the Certificates and be familiar with the behaviour of any relevant indices and financial markets;
- (e) be able to evaluate (either alone or with the help of a financial adviser) possible scenarios for economic and other factors that may affect its investment and its ability to bear the applicable risks; and
- (f) be able to evaluate the compliance of the Certificates with Shari'a principles (including, without limitation, their individual standards of compliance relating thereto).

Some Certificates are complex financial instruments. Sophisticated institutional investors generally do not purchase complex financial instruments as stand-alone investments. They purchase complex financial instruments as a way to reduce risk or enhance yield with an understood, measured and appropriate addition of risk to their overall investment portfolios. A potential investor should not invest in Certificates which are complex financial instruments unless it has the expertise (either alone or with the help of a financial adviser) to evaluate how the Certificates will perform under changing conditions, the resulting effects on the value of the Certificates and the impact this investment will have on the potential investor's overall investment portfolio.

The investment activities of certain investors are subject to investment laws and regulations, or the review of such laws and regulations by certain governmental or regulatory authorities. Each potential investor should consult its legal and tax advisers to determine whether and to what extent: (i) the Certificates constitute legal investments for it; (ii) the Certificates can be used as collateral for various types of financing; and (iii) other restrictions apply to any purchase or pledge of any Certificates by the investor. Financial institutions should consult their legal advisers or the appropriate regulators to determine the appropriate treatment of Certificates under any applicable risk-based capital or similar rules and regulations. In addition, potential investors should consult their own tax advisers on how the rules relating to Sections 1471 through 1474 of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended ("FATCA") may apply to payments they receive under the Certificates.

The distribution of this Offering Circular and the offering of the Certificates in certain jurisdictions may be restricted by law. Persons into whose possession this Offering Circular comes are required by the Trustee, the Obligor, the Arrangers and the Dealers to inform themselves about and to observe any such restrictions.

MiFID II PRODUCT GOVERNANCE / PROFESSIONAL INVESTORS AND ECPS ONLY TARGET MARKET

The Pricing Supplement in respect of any Certificates may include a legend entitled “MiFID II Product Governance” which will outline the target market assessment in respect of the Certificates and which channels for distribution of the Certificates are appropriate. Any person subsequently offering, selling or recommending the Certificates (a “distributor”) should take into consideration the target market assessment; however, a distributor subject to MiFID II is responsible for undertaking its own target market assessment in respect of the Certificates (by either adopting or refining the target market assessment) and determining appropriate distribution channels.

A determination will be made in relation to each issue about whether, for the purpose of the MiFID Product Governance rules under EU Delegated Directive 2017/593 (the “MiFID Product Governance Rules”), any Dealer subscribing for any Certificates is a manufacturer in respect of such Certificates, but otherwise neither the Arrangers nor the Dealers nor any of their respective affiliates will be a manufacturer for the purpose of the MiFID Product Governance Rules.

UK MiFIR PRODUCT GOVERNANCE / PROFESSIONAL INVESTORS AND ECPS ONLY TARGET MARKET

The Pricing Supplement in respect of any Certificates may include a legend entitled “UK MiFIR Product Governance” which will outline the target market assessment in respect of the Certificates and which channels for distribution of the Certificates are appropriate. Any distributor should take into consideration the target market assessment; however, a distributor subject to the FCA Handbook Product Intervention and Product Governance Sourcebook (the “UK MiFIR Product Governance Rules”) is responsible for undertaking its own target market assessment in respect of the Certificates (by either adopting or refining the target market assessment) and determining appropriate distribution channels.

A determination will be made in relation to each issue about whether, for the purpose of the UK MiFIR Product Governance Rules, any Dealer subscribing for any Certificates is a manufacturer in respect of such Certificates, but otherwise neither the Arrangers nor the Dealers nor any of their respective affiliates will be a manufacturer for the purpose of the UK MiFIR Product Governance Rules.

VOLCKER RULE

The Volcker Rule, which became effective on 1 April 2014, but was subject to a conformance period for certain entities that concluded on 21 July 2015, generally prohibits “banking entities” (which is broadly defined to include U.S. banks and bank holding companies and many non-U.S. banking entities, together with their respective subsidiaries and other affiliates) from: (a) engaging in proprietary trading; (b) acquiring or retaining an ownership interest in or sponsoring a “covered fund”; and (c) entering into certain relationships with “covered funds”. The general effects of the Volcker Rule remain uncertain; any prospective investor in the Certificates and any entity that is a “banking entity” as defined under the Volcker Rule which is considering an investment in the Certificates should consult its own legal advisers and consider the potential impact of the Volcker Rule in respect of such investment. If investment by “banking entities” in the Certificates is prohibited or restricted by the Volcker Rule, this could impair the marketability and liquidity of such Certificates. No assurance can be made as to the effect of the Volcker Rule on the ability of certain investors subject thereto to acquire or retain an interest in the Certificates, and accordingly none of the Trustee, the Obligor, the Arrangers, the Dealers, the Delegate or the Agents, or any of their respective affiliates makes any representation regarding: (i) the status of the Trustee under the Volcker Rule (including whether it is a “covered fund” for their purposes); or (ii) the ability of any purchaser to acquire or hold the Certificates, now or at any time in the future. Any prospective investors in the Certificates should consult its own legal advisers regarding such matters and other effects of the Volcker Rule.

Where the Trustee has or will become obliged to pay any additional amounts in respect of the Certificates pursuant to Condition 10 or the Trustee has received notice from the Obligor that the Obligor has or will become obliged to pay any additional amounts in respect of amounts payable under the Transaction Documents, in each case, as a result of a change in, or amendment to, the laws or regulations of a Relevant Jurisdiction, or any change in the application or official interpretation of such laws or regulations, which change or amendment becomes effective on or after the Issue Date of the first Tranche of the relevant Series and such obligation cannot be avoided by the Trustee or the Obligor, as applicable, taking reasonable measures available to it, the Obligor may, in accordance with Condition 9(b) require the Trustee, on giving Certificateholders not less than the Minimum Notice Period nor more than the Maximum Notice Period (each as specified in the applicable Pricing Supplement) (which notice shall be irrevocable), to redeem the Certificates in whole but not in part at an amount equal to the relevant Tax Dissolution Amount on any Tax Dissolution Date subject to and in accordance with Condition 9(b), and if the Certificates to be redeemed are Floating Rate Certificates, the Tax Dissolution Date must be a Periodic Distribution Date.

If so specified in the applicable Pricing Supplement, the Trustee shall, at the option of the holder of any Certificates, upon the holder of such Certificates giving not less than the Minimum Notice Period nor more than the Maximum Notice Period (each as specified in the applicable Pricing Supplement) to the Trustee, redeem such Certificates on any Certificateholder Put Right Date at the relevant Certificateholder Put Right Dissolution Amount subject to and in accordance with Condition 9(d).

Clean Up Call Right:

If 75 per cent. (75%) or more of the aggregate face amount of Certificates then outstanding have been redeemed and/or purchased and cancelled pursuant to Condition 9 and/or Condition 12, as the case may be, the Obligor may, in accordance with Condition 9(e) require the Trustee, on giving not less than the Minimum Notice Period nor more than the Maximum Notice Period to the Certificateholders in accordance with Condition 16, to redeem all (but not some only) of the Certificates at the Clean Up Call Right Dissolution Amount on the relevant Clean Up Call Right Dissolution Date subject to and in accordance with Condition 9(e).

Cancellation of Certificates held by the Obligor and/or any of its Subsidiaries:

Pursuant to Condition 12, the Obligor and/or any of its subsidiaries may at any time purchase Certificates in the open market or otherwise. If the Obligor wishes to cancel such Certificates purchased by it and/or any of its subsidiaries (the “Cancellation Certificates”), the Obligor may surrender such Certificates for cancellation in accordance with the Conditions and the Master Declaration of Trust, and following the service of a cancellation notice by the Obligor to the Trustee pursuant to the Master Declaration of Trust, require the Trustee, any time prior to the Scheduled Dissolution Date, to cancel any Certificates surrendered to it by the Obligor for cancellation.

No payment of any amount whatsoever shall be made in respect of the Certificates except to the extent that funds for that purpose are available from the relevant Trust Assets.

Certificateholders will otherwise have no recourse to any assets of the Trustee (other than the relevant Trust Assets) or the Obligor (to the extent that it fulfils its obligations under the Transaction Documents to which it is a party) or the Delegate or any Agent or any of their respective affiliates in respect of any shortfall in the expected amounts due from the relevant Trust Assets to the extent the relevant Trust Assets have been exhausted, following which all obligations of the Trustee and the Obligor shall be extinguished. See Condition 4(b).

Denomination of Certificates:

Certificates will be issued in minimum denominations of at least €100,000 (or its equivalent in other currencies), subject to compliance with all applicable legal and/or regulatory requirements.

Form and Delivery of the Certificates:

(“Clearstream, Luxembourg”). Ownership interests in the Global Certificate will be shown on, and transfers thereof will only be effected through, records maintained by Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg (as applicable), and their respective participants. Withholding Tax:

Subject to Condition 8(b), all payments by the Trustee in respect of the Certificates shall be made free and clear of, and without withholding or deduction for Taxes imposed, levied, collected, withheld or assessed by or on behalf of the Relevant Jurisdiction, unless the withholding or deduction of the Taxes is required by law. In such event, the Trustee will pay additional amounts as shall be necessary in order that the net amounts received by the Certificateholder after such withholding or deduction shall equal the respective amounts due and payable to any Certificateholder which would have otherwise been receivable in the absence of such withholding or deduction, except in circumstances set out in Condition 10.

Further, in accordance with the Master Declaration of Trust, the Obligor has unconditionally and irrevocably undertaken to (irrespective of the payment of any fee), as a continuing obligation, in the event that the Trustee fails to comply with any obligation to pay additional amounts pursuant to Condition 10, pay to or to the order of the Delegate (for the benefit of the Certificateholders) such net amounts as are necessary so that the amount receivable by the Delegate (after any withholding or deduction for or an account of Taxes) equals any and all additional amounts, required to be paid by it in respect of the Certificates pursuant to Condition 10.

The Transaction Documents to which it is a party provide that payments by the Obligor thereunder shall be made free and clear of, and without withholding or deduction for any taxes unless such withholding or deduction is required by law and, in such case, provide for the payment by the Obligor of all additional amounts as will result in the receipt by the Trustee of such net amount as would have been receivable by it if no withholding or deduction had been made.

Application has been made to the London Stock Exchange for Certificates to be issued under the Programme to be admitted to trading on the ISM or as otherwise specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement and references to listing shall be construed accordingly. As specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement, a Series of Certificates may be unlisted.

A summary of the provisions for convening meetings of Certificateholders to consider matters relating to their interests as such is set out in Condition 17.

Tax Considerations:

See the section entitled “Taxation” for a description of certain tax considerations applicable to the Certificates.

Governing Law and Dispute Resolution:

The Certificates and any non-contractual obligations arising out of or in connection with the Certificates will be governed by, and construed in accordance with, English law. Each Transaction Document and any non-contractual obligations arising out of or in connection with them are governed by, and shall be construed in accordance with, English law.

In respect of any dispute under any Transaction Document to which it is a party, the Obligor has agreed to arbitration in London under the Arbitration Rules of the London Court of International Arbitration (the “Rules”).

Waiver of Immunity:

The Obligor has in the Transaction Documents to which it is a party waived irrevocably, to the fullest extent permitted by law: (i) any immunity from suit, attachment or execution to which it might otherwise be entitled by virtue of its sovereign status under the State Immunity Act 1978 of the United Kingdom or otherwise in any action arising out of or based on the Conditions which may be instituted as provided for in the Conditions in any arbitration having its seat in London, England; and (ii) any immunity from attachment or execution to which it might otherwise be entitled by virtue of its sovereign status in any other jurisdiction in an action to enforce an arbitral award properly obtained in England and Wales as referred to in (i) above. See Condition 22(d).

Transaction Documents:

The Transaction Documents in relation to each Series shall comprise the Master Purchase Agreements as supplemented by each relevant Supplemental Purchase Agreement, the Service Agency Agreement, the Purchase Undertaking, the Sale and Substitution Undertaking, the Co-ownership Undertaking, any Sale Agreement, the Master Declaration of Trust, as supplemented by each relevant Supplemental Declaration of Trust, the Agency Agreement and the relevant Certificates (each a “Transaction Document” and, together, the “Transaction Documents”).

Rating:

A Series of Certificates to be issued under the Programme may be rated or unrated. Where a Series of Certificates is to be rated, such rating (and the credit rating agency issuing such rating) will be specified in the applicable Pricing Supplement.

A credit rating is not a recommendation to buy, sell or hold securities and may be subject to suspension, reduction or withdrawal at any time by the assigning rating agency. In general, European regulated investors are restricted under the EEA CRA Regulation from using credit ratings for regulatory purposes in the EEA unless such ratings are issued by a credit rating agency established in the EEA and registered under the EEA CRA Regulation (or are endorsed by an EEA-registered credit rating agency certified in accordance with the EEA CRA Regulation). Investors regulated in the UK are subject to similar restrictions under the UK CRA Regulation and, as such, are required to use for UK regulatory purposes ratings issued by a credit rating agency established in the UK and registered under the UK CRA Regulation (or endorsed by a UK registered credit rating agency or issued by a third country credit rating agency that is certified in accordance with the UK CRA Regulation).

Selling Restrictions:

The United States, the EEA, the UK, the Cayman Islands, the Kingdom, the State of Qatar (including the Qatar Financial Centre), the Kingdom of Bahrain, the United Arab Emirates (excluding the Dubai International Financial Centre (“DIFC”)), the DIFC, Japan, Hong Kong, the Republic of Korea (“Korea”), Singapore, Belgium, the Peoples Republic of China (excluding Taiwan, Hong Kong and Macau), Malaysia, the State of Kuwait, Switzerland, Indonesia, Brunei, the Republic of Italy (“Italy”), Taiwan and such other restrictions as may be required in connection with the offering and sale of the Certificates. See “Subscription and Sale”.

The Trustee and the Obligor are Category 2 for the purposes of Regulation S under the Securities Act, as amended.

RISK FACTORS

Each of the Trustee and the Obligor believes that the following factors may affect its ability to fulfil its obligations relating to Certificates issued under the Programme. Most of these factors are contingencies which may or may not occur. In addition, factors which are material for the purpose of assessing the market risks associated with Certificates issued under the Programme are also described below.

Each of the Trustee and the Obligor believes that the factors described below represent the principal risks inherent in investing in the Certificates issued under the Programme, but the inability of the Trustee to pay Periodic Distribution Amounts, Dissolution Amounts or other amounts on or in connection with any Certificates or to pay any amount in respect of the relevant Dissolution Amounts or other amounts on or in connection with any Certificates may occur for other reasons which may not be considered significant risks by the Trustee or the Obligor based on information currently available to them or which they may not currently be able to anticipate.

Although the Trustee and the Obligor believe that the various structural elements described in this Offering Circular lessen some of these risks for Certificateholders, there can be no assurance that these measures will be sufficient to ensure payment to Certificateholders of any Periodic Distribution Amount or the relevant Dissolution Amounts in respect of the Certificates of any Series on a timely basis or at all.

Prospective investors should also read the detailed information set out elsewhere in this Offering Circular and reach their own views prior to making any investment decision. Words and expressions defined elsewhere in this Offering Circular shall have the same meanings in this section.

Risk factors relating to the Trustee's ability to fulfil its obligations under or in connection with the Certificates

The Trustee is an exempted company with limited liability incorporated under the laws of the Cayman Islands on 3 October 2023 and has no operating history. The Trustee is not an operating company. The Trustee is a special purpose vehicle with no other business other than issuing Certificates. The Trustee will not engage in (and has not to date engaged in) any business activity other than the issuance of sukuk, certificates or other securities intended to be issued in compliance with the principles of Shari'a (including the Certificates), the acquisition of the trust assets (including the Trust Assets as described herein), acting in the capacity as trustee and other activities incidental or related to the foregoing as required under the Transaction Documents.

The Trustee's only material assets, which will be held on trust for Certificateholders, will be the Trust Assets, including the right to receive amounts paid by the Obligor under the Transaction Documents. Therefore, the Trustee is subject to all the risks to which the Obligor is subject to the extent that such risks could limit the Obligor's ability to satisfy in full and on a timely basis its obligations under the Transaction Documents.

The Certificates represent limited recourse obligations of the Trustee and the recourse of the Certificateholders against the Trustee in relation to the Certificates is limited to the Trust Assets and the proceeds from the Trust Assets.

The ability of the Trustee to pay amounts due on the Certificates will be dependent upon receipt by the Trustee from the Obligor of amounts to be paid under the Transaction Documents (which in aggregate may not be sufficient to meet all claims under the Certificates and the Transaction Documents). See "—Risk factors that may affect the Obligor's ability to fulfil its obligations in respect of the Transaction Documents to which it is a party".

Risk factors that may affect the Obligor’s ability to fulfil its obligations in respect of the Transaction Documents to which it is a party

The Fund is partly reliant on the performance of, and dividend distributions and other revenue flows from, its portfolio companies and other investments, and is subject to the industry and business-specific risks faced by its portfolio companies

As the sovereign wealth fund of the Kingdom, the Fund holds a portfolio of domestic and international investments, diversified across sectors, geographies and asset classes, on behalf of the Kingdom. The Fund is therefore partly dependent on the operations, revenues and cash flows generated by its investments, including the Fund’s subsidiaries, associates and joint ventures (all referred to herein as the Fund’s “portfolio companies”), and other investments (e.g., stocks, sukuk, bonds, funds, etc.). The Fund also funds its activities through other sources, including: (i) capital injections from the Government; (ii) assets transferred to the Fund from the Government; (iii) financing raised in the local and global credit markets; and (iv) investment returns from the Fund’s investments (see further “Description of the Public Investment Fund—Funding Principles”). Consequently, the Fund’s cash flows and ability to meet its cash requirements, including its obligations under the Transaction Documents, depend partly upon the profitability of, and cash flows generated by, the Fund’s portfolio companies and other investments, including their ability to make dividend distributions to the Fund and to repay intercompany loans extended to them by the Fund.

The Fund’s portfolio companies are involved and hold assets in a diverse range of projects, businesses and operations, and are subject to differing risks and challenges, largely relating to the industries and countries in which they operate. In addition, the Fund’s exposure to these industry and business-specific risks may increase proportionally if the Fund does not develop or maintain a diversified portfolio of investments. For example, as at the date of this Offering Circular, a majority of the Fund’s AUM is attributable to its Saudi portfolio companies that are listed on the Saudi Tadawul Group Holding Co. (formerly Saudi Stock Exchange Company) (the “Tadawul”) (see further “The majority of the Fund’s portfolio companies and other assets and investments are based in the Kingdom”). Accordingly, the exposure of the Fund’s portfolio companies to these factors and other industry and business specific risks may in the future adversely impact the business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects of these portfolio companies, which, in turn, may have a material adverse effect on the Fund’s business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects, and this could therefore affect the ability of the Trustee to perform its obligations in respect of the Certificates and the ability of the Fund to perform its obligations under the Transaction Documents. See also “Risks relating to the Fund’s investment activities generally”.

Although the Fund and its portfolio companies may have significant financing or refinancing requirements, the Government is not committed to provide financial or other support to the Fund. Furthermore, the Government is not guaranteeing any of the Trustee’s obligations in respect of the Certificates or the Fund’s obligations under the Transaction Documents

The Fund has in the past made, and anticipates that it may continue to make, significant capital expenditures and investments. The Fund intends to finance its future expenditures, investments and financial obligations through capital injections from the Government, asset transfers from the Government, loans and debt instruments, and investment returns from the Fund’s assets. See “Description of the Public Investment Fund—Funding Principles”.

The Fund’s ability to obtain external financing and the cost of such financing depends on numerous factors, including general economic and market conditions, international interest rates, the availability of credit from banks or other financiers, investor confidence in the Fund and the Kingdom, the financial condition of the Fund and the performance of the individual businesses of the Fund’s portfolio companies. There can be no assurance that external financing will be available when required or, if available, that such financing will be obtainable on terms that are commercially acceptable to the Fund. Although the Government has, in the past, provided monetary and non-monetary contributions to the Fund from time to time (primarily in the form of capital injections and asset transfers) to support the Fund’s investment objectives, the Government is not legally obliged to fund any of the Fund’s investments and, accordingly, may elect not to do so in the future (even if the Government has previously approved the funding of the investment concerned). For further details of historic contributions by the Government to the Fund, see “Relationship with the Government—Contributions from the Government”. Furthermore, the Government is not guaranteeing any of the Trustee’s obligations in respect of the Certificates or the Fund’s obligations under the Transaction Documents, and Certificateholders therefore do not benefit from any legally enforceable claim against the Government (see also “Risks relating to the Fund’s relationship with the Government—The Fund’s financial obligations, including its obligations under the Transaction Documents, are not guaranteed by the Government”).

If the Fund is not able to obtain adequate financing to make capital and investment expenditures in the future, this could have a material adverse effect on the Fund’s business, results of operations, financial condition and prospects and therefore on the ability of the Trustee to perform its obligations in respect of any Certificateholders and the ability of the Fund to perform its obligations under the Transaction Documents.

The majority of the Fund’s portfolio companies and other assets and investments are based in the Kingdom

As at the date of this Offering Circular, the majority of the Fund’s assets are represented by portfolio companies domiciled in the Kingdom. The concentration of the Fund’s assets and investments in the Kingdom exposes the Fund to the prevailing economic and political conditions in the Kingdom, as well as in the Middle East and North Africa (“MENA”) region. Should economic growth or performance in the Kingdom decline, or should the Kingdom be affected by political instability in the future, this could have a material adverse effect on the Fund’s and its portfolio companies’ business, results of operations, financial condition and prospects and, in turn, on the ability of the Trustee to perform its obligations in respect of any Certificates and the ability of the Fund to perform its obligations under the Transaction Documents. See also “—Risks relating to the Kingdom and the Middle East”.

Moreover, the Fund’s focus within the Kingdom renders it vulnerable to the domestic legal and regulatory environment, as well as to the prevailing policies and practices. Shifts in the Kingdom’s legal or regulatory landscape, policy changes, or alterations in customary practices could significantly impact the Fund’s operations, financial standing, and overall business performance.

The Fund’s past performance is not necessarily indicative of its future results, and its historical financial performance may not be reflective of its future financial performance

The Fund has engaged in sizeable investment activities in recent periods, including new investments and acquisitions both in the Kingdom and internationally. Such activities have resulted in rapid growth of its assets. Primarily as a result of the Fund’s investment activities, the Fund’s AUM increased to approximately SAR 3,385 billion as at 30 June 2024 from approximately SAR 570 billion as at 31 December 2015. The Fund expects to continue growing its asset base and engaging in significant investment activities in future periods. In particular, the PIF Program (as defined below) includes, among other things, a strategy to increase the Fund’s AUM to over US$1.07 trillion by 2025 (see “Description of the Public Investment Fund—PIF Strategy (2021-2025)”).

The Fund cannot give any assurance that any of its ongoing investment activities will meet its targets, or that these investments will not be susceptible to changes in the macroeconomic environment and performance of financial markets generally. Changes in the macroeconomic environment and performance of financial markets could materially and adversely affect the Fund’s ability to execute its investment strategy, and in turn significantly impact its business, future cash flows, results of operations or rate of growth and its expected future performance. Accordingly, the Fund’s historical financial performance and previous rapid growth are not necessarily determinative of its likely future cash flows, results of operations or rate of growth, and its past performance should not be relied upon as an indication of its future performance. Any deterioration in the Fund’s performance due to the above factors or otherwise could adversely affect its ability to perform its future obligations under the Transaction Documents.

The Fund and its portfolio companies depend significantly on the members of their respective boards of directors and senior management teams

The Fund has a level of dependence on the diligence and skill of its senior management team for the execution of its investment strategy and for the final selection, structuring, completion and ongoing management of its investments (including its portfolio companies). In addition, the Fund’s continued success depends, to a significant extent, on the continued service and co-ordination of the senior management teams of its portfolio companies. Given the corporate governance requirements of the Fund’s portfolio companies and the need to follow appropriate replacement procedures, none of these individuals would be easy to replace at short notice. If the Fund’s portfolio companies are unable to retain experienced, capable and reliable directors and senior and middle management with appropriate professional qualifications, or fail to recruit skilled professionals in line with their growth, their business and financial performance may be adversely affected. This, in turn, may materially affect the Fund’s ability to execute its investment strategy and its business and financial performance, which is largely reliant on the sustained profitability and cash flows received from its portfolio companies. Any impact on the Fund’s overall business, results of operations, financial condition and prospects, could in turn affect the ability of the Trustee to perform its obligations in respect of any Certificates and the ability of the Fund to perform its obligations under the Transaction Documents.

The Fund is exposed to risks relating to the various strategic and operational initiatives that its publicly listed portfolio companies may be pursuing and the Fund does not typically direct the commercial or operational decisions of these portfolio companies

The Fund holds both majority and minority investments in a number of publicly listed companies, both in the Kingdom and internationally. Although the boards of directors of these companies might include board members appointed by the Fund (some of whom are executive managers of the Fund), the Fund does not typically direct their commercial or operational decisions. Each of these portfolio companies are managed by their respective management teams and guided and supervised by their respective boards of directors in accordance with applicable corporate governance frameworks.

The Fund's publicly listed portfolio companies may pursue strategic and operational initiatives that are determined by their respective management teams as being necessary to further their business objectives, such as pursuing acquisitions or divestments or undergoing significant operational reorganisations. Any failure by such portfolio companies to successfully execute any of these strategic and operational initiatives or to achieve the desired results could have a material adverse effect on the Fund's business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects, which could consequently affect the ability of the Trustee to perform its obligations in respect of any Certificates and the ability of the Fund to perform its obligations under the Transaction Documents.

The industries in which most of the Fund's portfolio companies operate are highly competitive

The Fund's portfolio companies operate in a number of sectors, including aerospace and defence, automotive, transport and logistics, food and agriculture, construction and building components and services, entertainment, leisure and sports, financial services, real estate, utilities and renewables, metals and mining, healthcare, consumer goods and retail, and telecom, media and technology, all of which are highly competitive. Many of the Fund's portfolio companies compete with companies that may possess greater technical and/or financial resources.

If the Fund's portfolio companies are unable to compete effectively, their business, results of operations, financial condition and prospects could be materially and adversely affected, which could significantly affect the Fund's business, results of operations, financial condition and prospects, and in turn affect the ability of the Trustee to perform its obligations in respect of any Certificates and the ability of the Fund to perform its obligations under the Transaction Documents.

Future epidemics or pandemics and their impact on business and economic conditions may have negative effects on the Fund's business

Future epidemics or pandemics may have a widespread impact on business and economic conditions and, in particular, may impact economic activity and cause significant volatility in a number of markets in which the Fund's portfolio companies operate. For example, public health authorities and governments at local, national and international levels implemented various measures to respond to the COVID-19 pandemic, including restrictions on travel, voluntary and mandatory quarantines, workforce reductions of personnel who were deemed to be nonessential and restrictions on business activities. These measures had a widespread impact on business and economic conditions. In addition, an epidemic or pandemic may result in volatility in global capital markets and investor sentiment, which may affect the availability, amount and type of financing available to the Fund and its portfolio companies in the future.

The Fund and its portfolio companies are exposed to risks associated with the use of information technology

The Fund and its portfolio companies rely on information technology ("IT") systems in order to carry out their day-to-day operations. As a result of the increasing complexity of electronic information and communication technology, the Fund and its portfolio companies are exposed to various risks, ranging from the loss or theft of data, cyber-attacks, stoppages and interruptions to the business, to systems failure and technical obsolescence of IT systems.

Increased global information security threats and more sophisticated cyber-crimes pose a risk to the confidentiality, availability and integrity of data, operations and infrastructure of the IT systems, networks, facilities, products and services of the Fund and its portfolio companies. The non-availability, violation of confidentiality, or the manipulation of data in critical IT systems and applications can lead to the uncontrolled outflow of data and expertise and have a direct impact on the Fund's business operations and those of its portfolio companies.

While the Fund and a number of its portfolio companies maintain back-up systems, there can be no assurance that these will work as efficiently or quickly as expected, if at all. Should such threats overcome the information security measures implemented by the Fund and its portfolio companies, they could potentially lead to the compromise of confidential information, improper use of systems and networks, manipulation and destruction of data, production downtime and operational disruptions, which in turn could have a material adverse effect on the Fund's business, results of operations and financial condition.

Risks relating to the Fund's investment activities generally

The Fund's investments, in particular its current and planned "Giga-Projects", may in the future require significant further capital and investment expenditures, which are subject to a number of risks and uncertainties

The Fund anticipates that it will continue to incur capital and investment expenditures in future years, and may have material funding needs in relation to particular projects or to refinance existing indebtedness. A large portion of the Fund's future capital and investment expenditures are expected to be with respect to its current and planned "Giga Projects" (see "The Fund is undertaking large-scale and complex projects, the implementation of which entails significant risks").

The Fund intends to fund its future capital and investment expenditures and its financial obligations under the Transaction Documents through capital injections from the Government, asset transfers from the Government, loans and debt instruments, and investment returns from the Fund's assets. See "Description of the Public Investment Fund—Funding Principles" and "Relationship with the Government".

In the event that appropriate sources of financing are not available or are only available on onerous terms and the Fund does not have sufficient operating cash flow or cash generated from asset monetisations or does not receive additional capital from the Government, this could adversely affect the Fund's business through increased borrowing costs and reductions in capital and investment expenditure. In addition, any affected portfolio company of the Fund may be forced, amongst other measures, to do one or more of the following: (i) delay or reduce capital expenditures; (ii) forgo business opportunities, including acquisitions and joint ventures; (iii) sell assets on sub-optimal terms; or (iv) restructure or refinance all or a portion of its debt on or before maturity. The occurrence of any of the foregoing could adversely affect the Fund's business, results of operations, financial condition or prospects, thereby affecting the ability of the Trustee to perform its obligations in respect of any Certificates and the ability of the Fund to perform its obligations under the Transaction Documents.

The Fund is undertaking large-scale and complex projects, the implementation of which entails significant risks

Two of the Fund's eight strategic pillars include the development of the Kingdom's real estate and infrastructure sector, and the development of large-scale and complex "Giga-Projects" (see "Description of the Public Investment Fund—PIF Strategy (2021-2025)" and "Description of the Public Investment Fund—Portfolio—Saudi Giga-Projects").

As at the date of this Offering Circular, the Fund has five Giga-Projects under development in the Kingdom: Neom, the Red Sea Global project, Qiddiya, ROSHN and the Diriyah Project. The Fund expects to invest a significant amount of resources in each of these Giga-Projects, and there can be no assurance that the Fund's investments in these Giga-Projects will generate the expected returns or have the intended economic impacts. The typical risks that are faced in project implementation are significantly exacerbated by the size and complexity of these planned Giga-Projects. Furthermore, there can be no assurance that the Fund's current or future projects, including but not limited to the proposed Giga-Projects, will be completed within the anticipated timeframe or at all, whether as a result of the factors specified below or for any other reason.

When undertaking major projects of this nature, the Fund faces a number of risks, including:

- requirements to make significant capital expenditures without receiving cash flow from the project concerned until future periods;

- possible shortage of available cash to fund construction and capital improvements and the related possibility that financing for such construction and capital improvements may not be available to the Fund on suitable terms or at all;
- delays in obtaining, or a failure to obtain, all necessary governmental and regulatory permits, approvals and authorisations;
- uncertainties as to market demand or a decline in market demand for the products or services to be generated by the project after construction has begun;
- an inability to complete projects on schedule or within budgeted amounts;
- methodological errors or erroneous assumptions in the financial models used by the Fund to make investment decisions; and
- fluctuations in demand for the products or services produced by the project due to a number of factors, including market and economic conditions and competition from third parties, that may result in the Fund's investment not being profitable or not generating the originally anticipated level of cash flows.

The Fund's ongoing projects are also exposed to a number of construction risks, including the following:

- major design and/or construction changes, whether caused by changes in technological demand, market conditions or other factors;
- an inability to find a suitable contractor either at the commencement of a project or following a default by an appointed contractor;
- default or failure by the Fund's contractors to finish projects on time and within budget;
- disruption in service and access to third parties;
- delays arising from shortages and long lead times for the delivery of complex plant and equipment or defective materials;
- shortages of materials, equipment and labour, adverse weather conditions, natural disasters, labour disputes, disputes with sub-contractors, accidents and other unforeseen circumstances; and
- escalating costs of construction materials, manpower and global commodity prices.

Moreover, continued growth through projects and initiatives (including new Giga-Projects) may also divert management's capacity to deal with existing projects. Any of these factors could materially delay the completion of a project or materially increase the costs associated with a project.

If any of the foregoing risks were to occur or if the Fund failed to correctly identify the risks associated with a major project, the Fund's business, results of operations, financial condition or prospects could be significantly affected, thereby affecting the ability of the Trustee to perform its obligations in respect of any Certificates and the ability of the Fund to perform its obligations under the Transaction Documents.

Significant acquisitions could prove to be costly in terms of the Fund's time and resources, and may expose it to post-acquisition integration risks and such businesses may be unprofitable when acquired, which may adversely affect the Fund's results of operations and increase its funding requirements

The Fund may from time to time make substantial acquisitions or obtain a controlling interest in other businesses. Significant acquisitions may expose the Fund to numerous risks, including:

- exposure to unanticipated financial or other weaknesses of the acquired business;
- unexpected loss of key employees, customers and suppliers of the acquired operations;

- difficulties in integrating the financial, technological and management standards, processes, procedures and controls of the acquired business with those of the Fund's existing operations;
- challenges in managing the increased scope, geographic diversity and complexity of the Fund's operations;
- difficulties in obtaining any financing necessary to support the growth of the acquired businesses; and
- exposure to unanticipated litigation, liabilities and/or difficulties in mitigating contingent and/or assumed liabilities.

In addition, acquired businesses may be operating at a loss when acquired and/or may have significant accumulated deficits, which may limit their ability to pay dividends to the Fund until they develop distributable reserves. Unless and until any such business becomes profitable, this may also adversely affect the Fund's results of operations in periods after the acquisition is effective and may increase the Fund's funding requirements. This may adversely affect the ability of the Trustee to perform its obligations in respect of any Certificates and the ability of the Fund to perform its obligations under the Transaction Documents.

Dispositions involve risks and uncertainties, including announced dispositions not being completed

From time to time, the Fund may make strategic dispositions, including by way of initial public offering ("IPO") of certain portfolio companies, private sales of significant interests in existing businesses to strategic shareholders and sales of non-core and other businesses and assets, with the expectation that these transactions will have a positive impact on the Fund's financial condition and/or results of operations, including reducing outstanding debt.

The Fund's ability to successfully consummate dispositions and achieve its commercial goals is subject to numerous uncertainties and risks, including geopolitical considerations, regulatory review, market conditions, and the ability of prospective buyers to obtain financing and numerous other factors specific to the business or assets that it is disposing. Moreover, the Fund could be exposed to post-transaction liabilities resulting from the terms of any sale agreement. In addition, any disposition, even if announced, may be subject to significant delays and may not be completed for various reasons, including regulatory requirements or review, failure to satisfy closing conditions or other factors, such as a re-evaluation of the Fund's strategic priorities or other unexpected developments, including potential reputational impact. The above could adversely affect the Fund's business, results of operations, financial condition or prospects, thereby affecting the ability of the Trustee to perform its obligations in respect of any Certificates and the ability of the Fund to perform its obligations under the Transaction Documents.

Certain of the Fund's investments in companies or joint ventures are non-controlling stakes, and the Fund may be reliant on the expertise of its co-investors or joint venture partners, which may expose the Fund to additional risks

The Fund conducts certain business operations through joint ventures or minority investments that are not controlled by the Fund, and it may enter into additional joint ventures or minority investments in the future. Current or future investments in which the Fund does not have, or ceases to have (for example, through divestitures), a controlling stake, are subject to the risk that the other shareholders of the company in which the investment is made may have different business or investment objectives to the Fund. As a result, such shareholders may have the ability to block and/or control business, financial or management decisions which the Fund believes are crucial to the success of the investment concerned, or may take risks or otherwise act in a manner that does not take into account the interests of the Fund. Some of the Fund's joint ventures or minority investments are managed by such entity's own board of directors, who are mandated to make business, financial and management decisions by taking into account the corporate interest of the relevant entity. Such decisions may, therefore, not solely serve the interests of the Fund and may also or instead serve the interests of the other stakeholders, including in relation to dividend distributions.

In addition, the Fund's joint venture partners may breach their obligations to the Fund or the relevant joint venture, have economic or business interests inconsistent with the Fund's or the joint venture's interests and/or take actions contrary to the Fund's objectives or policies, any of which may result in disputes between the Fund and its joint venture partners that could result in litigation or reputational harm to the Fund. Any decline in the profitability of such portfolio companies or investments could affect their ability to pay dividends and/or make distributions or other payments to the Fund and, in turn, could have a significant effect on the Fund's results of operations and financial condition.

Furthermore, any of the Fund's joint venture partners may be unable or unwilling to fulfil their obligations under the relevant joint venture or other agreements or may experience financial or other difficulties that may materially and adversely affect the Fund's investment. In certain of its joint ventures, the Fund may be reliant on the particular expertise of its joint venture partners and any failure by any such partner to perform its obligations in a timely and/or diligent manner could also materially and adversely affect the Fund's investment. The Fund can give no assurance as to the future performance of any of its joint venture partners. Furthermore, the Fund's equity investments in such companies may be diluted if it does not participate in future equity or equity-linked fundraising opportunities.

If any of the foregoing were to occur, the Fund's business, results of operations, financial condition or prospects could be materially and adversely affected, which could in turn affect the ability of the Trustee to perform its obligations in respect of any Certificates and the ability of the Fund to perform its obligations under the Transaction Documents.

The due diligence process that the Fund undertakes in connection with its projects and investments may not reveal all relevant facts

Before implementing a project or making a new investment, the Fund conducts due diligence to the extent it deems reasonable and appropriate based on the applicable facts and circumstances. The objective of the due diligence process is to identify attractive investment opportunities, identify relevant risks, and prepare a framework that may be used from the date of investment to drive operational performance and value creation. When conducting due diligence in respect of a project or investment, the Fund evaluates a number of important business, political, financial, tax, accounting, regulatory, environmental and legal issues in determining whether or not to proceed. External consultants, including legal advisers, accountants, investment banks and industry experts, are involved in the due diligence process in varying degrees depending on the type of project or investment, and in many cases these exercises involve significant cost to the Fund. In some cases, information cannot be verified by reference to the underlying sources to the same extent as the Fund could for information produced from its own internal sources. The due diligence process may at times be qualitative and the Fund can offer no assurance that any due diligence investigation it carries out with respect to any project or investment opportunity will reveal or highlight all relevant facts that may be necessary or helpful in evaluating such opportunity. Any failure by the Fund to identify relevant facts through the due diligence process may mean that projected rates of return and other relevant factors considered by the Fund in making investment decisions prove to be inaccurate over time, which could adversely affect the Fund's business, results of operations, financial condition or prospects, thereby affecting the ability of the Trustee to perform its obligations in respect of any Certificates and the ability of the Fund to perform its obligations under the Transaction Documents.

Some of the Fund's current investments are in illiquid assets, which may affect the Fund's ability to divest these investments in a timely manner or generate income or gains upon any divestment of these investments

The Fund's long-term investment approach and the relative illiquidity of its privately held investments may make it difficult to sell certain investments, and/or to realise the full value of all of its investments, if the need arises or if the Fund determines it would be in its best interests to sell. In addition, if the Fund were required to liquidate all or a portion of an investment quickly, it may realise significantly less than the carrying value of that investment. Such factors could materially and adversely affect the Fund's business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects, which could in turn affect the ability of the Trustee to perform its obligations in respect of any Certificates and the ability of the Fund to perform its obligations under the Transaction Documents.

The Fund may choose to pursue investment opportunities in countries where it has no previous investment experience, including in markets that have greater social, economic and political risks than those in which the Fund typically invests

Although the Fund has a comprehensive investment risk policy and monitoring system in place, to the extent that the Fund undertakes projects or makes investments in countries where it has little or no previous investment experience, the Fund may not be able to assess the full risks of investing in such countries adequately, or may be unfamiliar with the laws and regulations of such countries governing the Fund's projects and investments. The Fund cannot guarantee that its strategy will be successful in such countries. The projects and investments that the Fund makes in those countries could lose some or all of their value and may generate returns that are substantially lower than those achieved by the Fund in connection with other projects and investments, which could adversely affect the ability of the Trustee to perform its obligations in respect of any Certificates and the ability of the Fund to perform its obligations under the Transaction Documents.

In addition, investments made by the Fund in emerging market securities involve a greater degree of risk than an investment in securities of issuers based in developed countries for a wide range of reasons, including a lack of adequate publicly available information, greater market volatility, less sophisticated securities market regulation, less predictable tax provisions, less stable or predictable legal systems, a greater likelihood of severe inflation, unstable currency exchange rates, corruption, war, terrorism and expropriation of personal property. In addition, investment opportunities in certain emerging markets may be restricted by legal limits on foreign investment in local securities.

The Fund may not be able to manage its growth successfully or achieve its growth objectives

The Fund's ability to achieve its investment objectives and long-term target return will depend on its ability to grow and diversify its investment base, which will depend, in turn, on its ability to identify, invest in and monitor a suitable number of investments and implement the various aspects of its investment strategy (see further "Description of the Public Investment Fund—Planning and Investment Process"). Acquisitions expose the Fund to numerous risks, see "Significant acquisitions could prove to be costly in terms of the Fund's time and resources, and may expose it to post-acquisition integration risks and such businesses may be unprofitable when acquired, which may adversely affect the Fund's results of operations and increase its funding requirements".

Achieving growth on a cost-effective basis will be, in part, a function of how the investment process is structured, the Fund's ability to reinvest its capital and the Fund's ability to obtain additional capital on acceptable terms. Future growth may place a significant strain on the Fund's managerial, operational, financial and other resources. The need to manage the Fund's investments may require continued development of procedures and management controls, and hiring and training additional personnel, as well as training and retaining its employee base. Such growth may also significantly increase costs, including the cost of compliance arising from exposure to additional activities and jurisdictions.

If the Fund is not successful in managing its growth successfully, this could have a material adverse effect on the Fund's business, results of operations, financial condition or prospects, which could in turn affect the ability of the Trustee to perform its obligations in respect of any Certificates and the ability of the Fund to perform its obligations under the Transaction Documents.

Risks relating to the Fund's relationship with the Government

The Fund's financial obligations, including its obligations under the Transaction Documents, are not guaranteed by the Government

Although the Fund is organisationally connected to the Council of Economic and Development Affairs (the "CEDA"), a central council to provide a uniform direction for the Kingdom's economic growth and development, the Fund is considered an instrumentality of the Kingdom with financial autonomy, as well as independence, in carrying out its investment management and day to day operational activities, and as such the Trustee's obligations in respect of the Certificates and the Fund's obligations under the Transaction Documents are not guaranteed by the Government. In addition, although in the past the Government has provided funding to companies in which it has ownership interests, the Government is under no obligation to extend financial support to the Fund (see further "Relationship with the Government"). Accordingly, the Fund's financial obligations, including its obligations under the Transaction Documents, are not and should not be regarded as obligations of the Government. The Fund's ability to meet its financial obligations in respect of the Transaction Documents is solely dependent on its ability to fund such amounts from its operating revenues, profits and cash flows. Therefore, any decline in the Fund's operating revenues, profits and cash flows, or any difficulty in securing external funding, may have a material adverse effect on the Fund's business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects, which could in turn affect the ability of the Trustee to perform its obligations in respect of any Certificates and the ability of the Fund to perform its obligations under the Transaction Documents.

The Fund's objectives may, in certain circumstances, be different from the interests of the Certificateholders

Pursuant to Article 3 of the Public Investment Fund Law (the "PIF Law"), one of the Fund's objectives is to promote socio-economic development in the Kingdom. The Fund has previously undertaken, and may in the future undertake, projects or provide material financial assistance for initiatives in furtherance of the Kingdom's macroeconomic, social or other objectives. The Fund and/or its portfolio companies may also work on important strategic investments or divestments in order to contribute to the overall economy of the Kingdom. For example, some of the domestic infrastructure projects in the Kingdom have been delegated to, and are managed by, the Fund. As a result, the Fund's strategy and investment policy may therefore need to take into account national objectives, including strategic and development objectives, which may be different from the interests of the Fund's creditors, including the Certificateholders.

While these projects and initiatives have generally been of national importance to the Kingdom and in the Fund's long-term commercial interests, certain projects may be inconsistent with profit maximisation and/or may be undertaken on terms which are adverse to the commercial interests of the Fund. As a result, the Fund may not receive optimal investment returns on such projects and initiatives, which could adversely affect the Fund's business, results of operations, financial condition or prospects, thereby affecting the ability of the Trustee to perform its obligations in respect of any Certificates and the ability of the Fund to perform its obligations under the Transaction Documents. Furthermore, there can be no assurance that such strategic investments will receive any Government funding.

The Government has the right to request that the Board consider distributions of the Fund's profits or assets to the Government

The receipt of dividends and returns are key financial rewards of the Government's investment in the Fund, and the Government has the right to request that the Board considers distributions of the Fund's profits or assets to the Government in compliance with the laws of the Kingdom. The Fund, from time to time, has made, and may in the future make, distributions of dividends to the Government and such distributions are decided by the Board after having: (i) considered the best interests of the Fund; (ii) applied its investment and other income towards, among other things, payment of interest or profit and payment of principal and other amounts in respect of its maturing debt liabilities; and (iii) budgeted for a retention of certain of its income for future investment purposes and for the Fund's own general purposes.

However, distributions can be made to the Government based on pre-determined dividend distribution policies. If the Fund is requested to make such distributions or other contributions to the Government in the future, this could have a significant effect on the Fund's business, results of operations, financial condition and prospects, and subsequently affect the ability of the Trustee to perform its obligations in respect of any Certificates and the ability of the Fund to perform its obligations under the Transaction Documents (see further "Relationship with the Government—Distributions of Dividends to the Government").

Any dividend or distribution made by the Fund must be in accordance with its dividend distribution policy, which requires the Board to consider the Fund's objectives under the PIF Program (as defined below), its long term sustainability, and amongst others, the following factors:

- the need to maintain sufficient liquidity in order to avoid any shortage of funds;
- any contractual restrictions and covenants imposed by existing borrowing;
- the current macroeconomic climate and outlook both locally and globally;
- the impact of a distribution on the Fund's short- and long-term investment strategy;
- the Fund's financial performance and profitability in the current fiscal year; and
- the Fund's future capital expenditure and expansion plans.

The Fund's mandate may be limited or amended by legislative changes and the Government may limit the amount of support granted to the Fund

The Fund's mandate may be limited or amended by changes in law (including, but not limited to, changes in the PIF Law) and the Government may limit the amount of support (financial or otherwise) provided to, or assets granted to, the Fund. Any such changes in the law or actions by the Government could have a material and adverse effect on the Fund's business, results of operations, financial condition and prospects, and subsequently affect the ability of the Trustee to perform its obligations in respect of any Certificates and the ability of the Fund to perform its obligations under the Transaction Documents.

Financial risks relating to the Fund

The Fund is subject to a range of financial risks

The Fund is exposed to a range of financial risks including, in particular, the risk of losses arising as a result of adverse changes in equity prices, foreign exchange rates and interest rates. Some of the key financial risks faced by the Fund are summarised as follows:

- The Fund holds a significant portfolio of publicly listed financial assets at fair value which are valued on a daily basis and, principally as a result of volatility in stock market valuations, the Fund has in the past recorded, and may continue in the future to record, fair value gains and losses of varying amounts on these financial assets. Details regarding the sensitivity analysis with respect to such a risk are set out in note 42.3(b) (Market Risk: non banking operations) to the 2023 Audited Consolidated Financial Statements.
- The Fund's principal foreign currency risks are its exposure to the effect of movements in USD exchange rates on certain of its borrowings and investments.
- The Fund's principal interest rate risk results from its exposure to the effect of increases in interest rates on its variable rate interest-bearing financial liabilities.

The Fund is also exposed to a certain degree of credit risk. Although the Fund believes that it has in place appropriate risk management procedures, if any of the foregoing financial risks materialise and are not appropriately managed, the Fund's business, results of operations, financial condition or prospects could be materially and adversely affected, which could affect the ability of the Trustee to perform its obligations in respect of any Certificates and the ability of the Fund to perform its obligations under the Transaction Documents.

The availability of operating cash flow to the Fund may be limited

The Fund conducts its operations principally through, and derives all of its revenue from, its portfolio companies and other investments, and it does not anticipate that this will change in the near future. A significant proportion of the Fund's consolidated indebtedness has been incurred by the Fund's portfolio companies. Such indebtedness, in certain cases, may contain covenants that prevent or restrict distributions to the Fund until such time as the relevant indebtedness has been repaid. In addition, the ability of the Fund's portfolio companies to pay dividends or make other distributions or payments to the Fund is subject to the availability of profits or funds for the purpose, which, in turn, depends on the future performance of the entity concerned, which, to a certain extent, is subject to general economic, financial, competitive, legislative, regulatory and other factors that may be beyond its control. Any such entity may also be subject to restrictions on the making of distributions pursuant to applicable laws and regulations. There can be no assurance that the Fund's portfolio companies will generate sufficient cash flow from operations or that alternative sources of financing will be available at any time in an amount sufficient to enable these businesses to service their indebtedness, fund their other liquidity needs and make distributions to the Fund to enable it, among other things, to service its indebtedness. Such limitations in cash flow may adversely affect the Fund's business, results of operations, financial condition or prospects which could affect the ability of the Trustee to perform its obligations in respect of any Certificates and the ability of the Fund to perform its obligations under the Transaction Documents.

Any claims by the Trustee or the Delegate (on behalf of the Certificateholders) against the Fund under the Transaction Documents will be structurally subordinated to the claims of creditors of the Fund's portfolio companies

The Fund's portfolio companies have incurred indebtedness, and in the future will continue to incur indebtedness, to finance their operations. In the event of the insolvency of any of the Fund's portfolio companies, claims of secured and unsecured creditors of such entity, including trade creditors, banks and other lenders, will have priority with respect to the assets of such entity over any claims that the Fund or the creditors of the Fund, as applicable, may have with respect to such assets. However, such claims are limited to the assets of the relevant portfolio company only. Accordingly, if the Fund became insolvent at the same time, claims of the Trustee or the Delegate (on behalf of the Certificateholders) against the Fund under the Transaction Documents to the assets of the Fund's portfolio companies would be structurally subordinated to the claims of all such creditors of the Fund's portfolio companies. The Conditions do not restrict the amount of indebtedness that the Fund may incur, including indebtedness of its portfolio companies.

The terms of indebtedness of certain of the Fund's portfolio companies contain financial and operating covenants, which may limit the Fund's operating flexibility

Certain of the Fund's portfolio companies have significant indebtedness outstanding and the terms of such indebtedness may contain financial and operating covenants. In order to comply with any such financial covenants, the relevant portfolio companies may be restricted from undertaking certain activities and/or required to postpone or alter their performance objectives.

If any of the Fund and/or its portfolio companies were to fail to satisfy any of its debt service obligations or to breach any related financial or operating covenants, the relevant lender could declare the full amount of the indebtedness to be immediately due and payable and could foreclose on any assets pledged as collateral. As a result, any default under any indebtedness to which a portfolio company of the Fund is party could result in a loss to the Fund, which could adversely impact the ability of the Trustee to perform its financial obligations in respect of any Certificates and the ability of the Fund to perform its obligations under the Transaction Documents.

The Fund's credit ratings may change and any rating downgrade could adversely affect the value of Certificates issued under the Programme

The Fund is rated A1 by Moody's with a positive outlook and A+ by Fitch with a stable outlook. The credit ratings assigned to the Fund by Moody's and Fitch are as at the date hereof, equalised with the credit ratings assigned to the Kingdom by Moody's and Fitch. The Fund cannot be certain that it will be able to maintain each of its credit ratings for any given period of time or that any of its ratings will not be downgraded or withdrawn entirely by a rating agency if, in its judgment, circumstances so warrant.

Any future downgrade or withdrawal of a credit rating of the Fund or the Kingdom by any rating agency could have a material adverse effect on the Fund's cost of borrowing and could limit the Fund's access to debt capital markets, and therefore could adversely impact the ability of the Trustee to perform its financial obligations in respect of any Certificates and the ability of the Fund to perform its obligations under the Transaction Documents. Furthermore, any future downgrade or withdrawal of a credit rating of the Kingdom would likely result in a downgrade or withdrawal of the credit rating of the Fund. A downgrade may also adversely affect the market price of the Certificates issued under the Programme and cause trading in such Certificates to be volatile.

The Fund's international activities increase the compliance risks associated with economic and trade sanctions imposed by the United States, the European Union, the United Kingdom and other jurisdictions

International sanctions continue to be imposed by the United States, the United Kingdom, the European Union, the United Nations and other sanctions authorities on companies engaging in certain types of transactions with specified countries or companies or individuals in those countries. Companies operating or investing in, among others, certain countries in Africa, Europe and Asia have been and are currently subject to such sanctions. The terms of legislation and other rules and regulations that establish sanctions regimes are often broad in scope and difficult to interpret. The Fund is not currently the target of any such sanctions and the Fund has adopted policies and procedures designed to comply with applicable sanctions regulations.

The Office of Foreign Assets Control of the U.S. Department of the Treasury ("OFAC"), as well as other departments of the United States government, administer regulations that restrict the ability of U.S. persons to invest in, or otherwise engage in business with, certain countries, specially designated nationals and certain other individuals and entities (together, "Sanctions Targets"). As the Fund is not a Sanctions Target, OFAC regulations do not prohibit U.S. persons from investing in, or otherwise engaging in business with, the Fund. However, to the extent that the Fund becomes the subject of such sanctions or invests in, or otherwise engages in business with, Sanctions Targets,

U.S. persons investing in the Fund, including through the purchase of securities issued or guaranteed by the Fund or any of its portfolio companies, may incur the risk of indirect contact with Sanctions Targets.

Other general risks relating to the Fund

The Fund could be materially adversely affected by changes in global economic and political conditions or external shocks, which could impair the value of some or all of the Fund's investments or prevent it from increasing its investment base

Adverse changes in global economic and political conditions or external shocks, such as the COVID-19 pandemic, could have a material adverse effect on the Fund's business and that of its portfolio companies. Most recently, global economic markets have been adversely impacted by the conflict between the Russian Federation and Ukraine (the "Russia Ukraine Conflict"), the events in Israel and Gaza that commenced in October 2023, as well as the recent events between Israel and Iran, the Houthi militia attacks on ships in the Red Sea, the trade disputes between the United States and China, and global inflation and the monetary policies implemented to combat it. To the extent that economic and political uncertainty continues or trade disputes or other policies cause further economic uncertainty and disruption in the global financial markets, this may have adverse consequences for the global economy and demand for the products and services of the Fund's portfolio companies. No assurance can be given that a further global economic downturn or financial crisis will not occur and, to the extent that further instability in the global financial markets occurs, it is likely that this would have an adverse effect on the Fund.

In addition, a significant proportion of the Fund's investments are in project companies that are susceptible to economic recessions or downturns. During periods of adverse economic conditions, these project companies may experience decreased revenue, financial losses from impairments or otherwise, difficulty in obtaining access to financing and increased funding costs, all of which could materially adversely affect their returns to the Fund. During such periods, these project companies may also face difficulty in expanding their businesses and operations and be unable to meet their debt service obligations or other expenses as they become due, which could cause the value of the affected project companies to decline, in some cases significantly.

Further, the above risks may be exacerbated by rising global political tensions such as those arising from the Russia Ukraine Conflict and the conflict in Israel and Gaza, which have, and are expected to continue to have, significant economic, social, geopolitical and financial implications globally. The outcome and progression of the Russia Ukraine Conflict, in particular, is uncertain and its ultimate impact on the operations, financial condition and performance of the Fund or any particular industry, business, currency or country and the duration and severity of those effects, is not possible to predict. The portfolio companies of the Fund may, as a result of ongoing conflicts, suffer increases in operating costs (including, among other reasons, as a result of a substantial increase in energy prices), reductions in customers or new subscriptions for services, losses from cyberattacks, reductions in revenue and growth, increased foreign exchange risk and/or unexpected operational losses and liabilities. In addition, countries around the world, including the United States, the European Union and the United Kingdom, have implemented sanctions targeting the Russian government, the Russian central bank, Russian financial institutions and corporates and certain Russian individuals, including government officials. Such sanctions, and any future sanctions or measures taken by U.S. and non-U.S. governments, have had, and are likely to continue to have, significant global economic and market consequences, the full effects of which are difficult to predict or determine.

Further, global capital and credit markets have experienced, and may continue to experience, considerable volatility as a result of the ongoing Russia Ukraine Conflict, which have impacted and may continue in future periods to impact portfolio company valuations which, in turn, could have an adverse effect on the Fund's business, financial condition, results of operations or prospects.

The financial performance of the Fund could be adversely affected in the future by any deterioration of general economic conditions in the markets in which the Fund operates, as well as by United States and international trading market conditions and/or related factors. In addition, changes in investment markets, including changes in interest rates, exchange rates and returns from equity, property and other investments, may also materially adversely affect the financial performance of the Fund, and in turn adversely impact the ability of the Trustee to perform its financial obligations under any Certificates and the ability of the Fund to perform its obligations under the Transaction Documents.

Changes in laws or regulations, or a failure to comply with any laws and regulations, may adversely affect the Fund's and its portfolio companies' businesses

The Fund and its portfolio companies are subject to laws and regulations enacted by national, regional and local governments of jurisdictions in which they operate. Such laws and regulations, among other things, relate to licensing requirements, environmental obligations, health and safety obligations, asset and investment controls and a range of other requirements. Compliance with, and monitoring of, applicable laws and regulations may be difficult, time-consuming and costly. These regulations may be extensive and may change unexpectedly and at times with only a very short period of notice and consultation. Existing laws and regulations may be amended, the manner in which laws and regulations are enforced or interpreted may change, and new laws or regulations may be adopted in ways that are unfavourable to the Fund's or any of its portfolio companies' operations, which could adversely affect the way the Fund or one or more portfolio companies operates its business. The Fund is unable to predict what regulatory changes may be imposed in the future as a result of regulatory initiatives in the Kingdom or any other jurisdiction where the Fund operates. Although the Fund continually monitors the situation, future changes in regulation, fiscal or other policies can be unpredictable and are beyond the control of the Fund.

Failure to comply with any of the laws and regulations could potentially expose the Fund or any of its portfolio companies to civil or criminal liability, reputational damage and sanctions including fines, the loss or limitation of licences, authorisations or permits necessary for the Fund's or an affected portfolio company's business and stricter regulatory scrutiny or supervision by the applicable authorities. Such failures may arise despite the Fund's and its portfolio companies' risk management systems. Accordingly, violations of rules and regulations, whether intentional or unintentional, or failure to comply with licensing or other requirements, may adversely affect the Fund's business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects, which could consequently affect the ability of the Trustee to perform its obligations in respect of any Certificates and the ability of the Fund to perform its obligations under the Transaction Documents.

The Fund's and its portfolio companies' insurance policies may not be sufficient to cover all risks faced by them

The Fund and its portfolio companies maintain a range of insurance policies, which indemnify either the relevant policyholder or third parties for loss or damage to assets and any associated liabilities. The Fund believes that these insurance policies provide coverage in amounts and on terms that are generally consistent with relevant industry practice. There is, however, no assurance that such insurance coverage will continue to be available in the market from either capacity or commercial standpoints. Further, the Fund or a portfolio company could be subject to a material loss to the extent that a claim is made against the Fund or a portfolio company which is not covered in whole or in part by insurance and for which third-party indemnification is not available. In the event of such a material loss impacting the Fund or one or more of its portfolio companies, the financial position of the Fund may be adversely affected which could impact the ability of the Trustee to perform its obligations in respect of any Certificates and the ability of the Fund to perform its obligations under the Transaction Documents.

The Fund's results of operations could be materially adversely affected by changes in tax-related matters

The Fund holds investments in various countries outside the Kingdom and, as a result, is subject to taxation and audit by a number of taxing authorities. Tax rates vary in the jurisdictions in which the Fund holds its investments. Changes in tax laws, regulations and related interpretations in these countries may adversely affect the Fund's investment returns.

In addition, the Fund's investments are subject to laws and regulations in various jurisdictions that determine how much profit has been earned on the Fund's investments and when such profit is subject to taxation in that jurisdiction. Changes in these laws and regulations could affect the locations where the Fund's investments are deemed to earn income, which could in turn adversely affect the Fund's investment returns.

During the ordinary course of business, the Fund and its portfolio companies may become subject to legal disputes and litigation, which could materially and adversely affect the Fund

Given the global expanse of the Fund's investments and the highly competitive nature of its business environment, the Fund and its portfolio companies are exposed to legal disputes and litigation with competitors, operators and joint venture partners, among others. These actions may seek, among other things, compensation for alleged losses, civil penalties or injunctive or declaratory relief. In the event that any such action is ultimately resolved unfavourably at amounts exceeding the Fund's or the relevant portfolio company's accrued liability, or at material amounts, the outcome could materially and adversely affect the Fund's results of operations. The settlement of any legal dispute or litigation can be time-consuming and expensive, which can create significant uncertainty in relation to the outcome for a sustained period of time. Further, the ability of the Fund or a portfolio company to obtain a favourable decision could be impacted by the jurisdiction as well as the domicile of its counterparty in any litigation. See "Description of the Public Investment Fund—Litigation".

From time to time, the Fund or its portfolio companies may be involved in litigation with joint venture partners, which is not only likely to impact the performance of the joint venture concerned but may also mean that the Fund or a portfolio company may experience difficulty in exiting the joint venture should it wish to following settlement of the dispute. Such difficulties may affect the Fund's financial position, which could adversely affect the ability of the Trustee to perform its obligations in respect of any Certificates and the ability of the Fund to perform its obligations under the Transaction Documents.

RISKS RELATING TO THE KINGDOM AND THE MIDDLE EAST

The Fund is subject to general economic and political conditions in the Kingdom and the Middle East

The Fund is based in the Kingdom and the majority of its operations and interests are located in the Kingdom. Investors should be aware that investments in emerging markets are subject to greater risks than those in more developed markets, and carry in some cases significant legal, economic and political risks. Accordingly, investors should exercise particular care in evaluating the risks involved and must decide for themselves whether, in light of those risks, their investment is appropriate. Generally, investments in emerging markets are only suitable for sophisticated investors who fully appreciate the significance of the risks involved.

The hydrocarbon industry is the single largest contributor to the Kingdom's economy and oil revenues account for a majority of the Government's total revenues and export earnings. The oil sector accounted for 35.9 per cent (35.9%) and 39.2 per cent (39.2%) of the Kingdom's real GDP in the years ended 31 December 2023 and 2022, respectively. The contribution of the oil sector to Government revenues in the fiscal year 2023 was 56 per cent (56%), compared to 67.6 per cent (67.6%) in the fiscal year 2022. Oil exports accounted for 76.9 per cent (76.9%) and 79.5 per cent (79.5%) of the Kingdom's total exports by value in the years ended 31 December 2023 and 2022, respectively.

As oil is the Kingdom's most important export, any change in oil prices affects various macroeconomic and other indicators, including, but not limited to, GDP, Government revenues, balance of payments and foreign trade, which could ultimately impact the Fund. International oil prices have fluctuated significantly over the past two decades and may be volatile in the future. More recently, oil prices have continued to be volatile, with the basket price for 2019 reaching US$64.04 and the average price for 2020 reaching US$41.50, with a high of US$65.10 and a low of US$17.66. In 2022 and 2023, oil prices recovered, with the basket price reaching US$100.08 in January 2022, before falling to US$77.98 in December 2023. The monthly price per barrel of Arabian Light Crude Oil (which is produced by Saudi Arabia and constitutes part of the OPEC Reference Basket) has also moved in line with these trends. On 6 March 2020, OPEC members and certain non-OPEC oil producing countries participating in the Declaration of Cooperation, in particular Russia, failed to reach an agreement to extend the voluntary crude oil production adjustments which were due to expire on 31 March 2020. Subsequently, the Kingdom adjusted its crude oil export prices and increased its crude oil sale allocations for April 2020. The Government also instructed Saudi Aramco to evaluate its requirements and increase its maximum sustained daily production capacity from 12 million barrels to 13 million barrels. These events, combined with the decrease in demand posed by the COVID-19 pandemic, caused a sharp drop in oil prices in 2020. As a result, the OPEC Reference Basket price reached US$34.71 per barrel on 9 March 2020 and fell to US$16.85 per barrel by 1 April 2020, compared to a monthly average of US$66.48 per barrel in December 2019.

Subsequently, OPEC and non-OPEC oil producing countries agreed in a Declaration of Cooperation to reduce their overall oil production in stages between 1 May 2020 and 30 April 2022. During the initial two-month period beginning 1 May 2020, production was to be reduced by a total of 9.70 million barrel per day, followed by a six-month period starting 1 July 2020 where production was to be reduced by a total of 7.68 million barrel per day and followed by a subsequent 16-month period between 1 January 2021 and 30 April 2022 where production was to be reduced by a total of 5.76 million barrel per day. On 7 June 2020, the OPEC member states and non-OPEC states agreed to extend the existing production adjustments of 9.70 million barrel per day to 31 July 2020. On 15 July 2020, the production adjustment was reduced to 7.68 million barrel per day beginning 1 August 2020 to 31 December 2020. On 3 December 2020, the participating countries amended their earlier agreement and in light of improved oil market fundamentals and the outlook for 2021, agreed to increase production by 500,000 barrel per day beginning January 2021, bringing the total production reduction to 7.20 million barrel per day. On 7 January 2021, the Kingdom pledged an additional unilateral voluntary reduction of 1.0 million barrel per day from 1 February 2021 to 31 March 2021. On 18 July 2021, OPEC+ announced that production would be increased, beginning in August 2021, by nine monthly increments of 0.40 million barrel per day followed by five monthly increments of 0.43 million barrel per day. OPEC+ further agreed to extend the duration of the Declaration of Cooperation to December 2022, including an option to pause increases for up to three months and to endeavour to end production adjustments by the end of September 2022, subject to market conditions. On 3 August 2022, OPEC+ announced that production would be increased 0.10 million barrel per day in September 2022 but that the baseline increases agreed in the 18 July 2021 meeting would remain unaffected. On 5 September 2022, OPEC+ announced that, due to the recent decline in oil prices, the 0.10 million barrel per day increase in production for September 2022 would be rolled back on October 2022, such that production levels in October 2022 would match those of August 2022. On 5 October 2022, OPEC+ extended the duration of the Declaration of Cooperation until 31 December 2023 and adjusted downward the overall oil production by two million barrel per day from the August 2022 required production levels, starting in November 2022. On 4 December 2022, OPEC+ re-affirmed its oil output targets as agreed at the 5 October 2022 meeting.

The targets were reviewed at the 3 April 2023 Joint Ministerial Monitoring Committee Meeting, and OPEC+ reaffirmed their commitment to the Declaration of Cooperation. The 3 April 2023 meeting also noted the Kingdom's voluntary production adjustment announcements on 2 April 2023, wherein the Kingdom pledged an additional reduction of 500,000 barrel per day from May 2023, extended to 1,000,000 barrel per day from July 2023, until the end of 2024, as well as the pledged voluntary adjustment announcements of the additional OPEC+ members through the same period, with those being Iraq by 211,000 barrel per day, the United Arab Emirates by 144,000 barrel per day, Kuwait by 128,000 barrel per day, Kazakhstan by 78,000 barrel per day, Algeria by 48,000 barrel per day, Oman by 40,000 barrel per day and Gabon by 8,000 barrel per day. In June 2023, OPEC+ extended oil production reductions of 3.66 million barrel per day until the end of 2023. In November 2023, additional voluntary production reductions beginning in January 2024 until the end of March 2024 were announced by several OPEC+ members, including Saudi Arabia (1 million barrel per day), Iraq (223,000 barrel per day), the UAE (163,000 barrel per day), Kuwait (135,000 barrel per day), Kazakhstan (82,000 barrel per day), Algeria (51,000 barrel per day) and Oman (42,000 barrel per day). The Kingdom and Russia have encouraged all OPEC+ members to join the group's agreement on output cuts. There can however be no assurance that the agreement will continue to be implemented by all relevant parties or that it will achieve its stated goals or what effect it will have on global oil prices in the short to medium term. For example, oil prices increased in tandem with the global economic recovery in 2021, with the OPEC Reference Basket price reaching US$74.38 in December 2021. However, oil prices remained volatile in 2022 and 2023, particularly as a result of the Russian-Ukraine conflict and as a result of a decline in participation in the crude oil markets, causing sharper price fluctuations. The OPEC Reference Basket price reached US$108.55 in July 2022, before declining to US$97.50 in September 2022 and to US$77.98 in December 2023. There can be no guarantee that oil prices will not remain volatile or decrease in the future.

In general, international prices for crude oil are also affected by the economic and political developments in oil producing regions, particularly the Middle East; prices and availability of new technologies; and the global climate and other relevant conditions. There can be no assurance that these factors, in combination with others, will not result in a prolonged or further decline in oil prices, which may have an adverse effect on the Kingdom's GDP growth, Government revenues, balance of payments and foreign trade. Low oil prices and low demand for oil may have a material adverse effect on the Kingdom's economy and may ultimately cause an increase in the budget deficit and a decrease in liquidity and funding in the financial sector. The price of oil fluctuates daily, and while prices have increased in 2021 and 2022 and remained in line with 2022 levels in 2023, they may decrease in the future due to factors such as the uncertainty surrounding production output levels or lower demand for oil.

In addition to the negative impact of low oil prices on Government reserves and revenues, lower oil prices have at times negatively impacted the Kingdom's current account position, which could make it more vulnerable to adverse changes in global markets. Furthermore, if the Kingdom increases its oil production in the future, there can be no assurance that the Kingdom's export earnings will also increase, to the extent that such increase in production is offset by any decline in international oil prices due to conditions in the global oil market. Conversely, if the Kingdom decreases its oil production in the future, this could result in a decline in the Kingdom's export earnings to the extent that such lower production is not offset by any increase in international oil prices due to conditions in the global oil market.

Potential investors should also note that many of the Kingdom's other economic sectors are in part dependent on the oil sector, and the above analysis does not take into account the indirect impact that a prolonged or further decline in oil prices may have on the Kingdom's economy. Sectors such as education, healthcare and housing, may, indirectly, be adversely affected by lower levels of economic activity that may result from lower Government revenues from the oil sector.

In addition, the Kingdom's economy could be adversely affected by economic conditions or related developments both within and outside the Middle East (which in turn could result in a general downturn in, or instability of, the Kingdom's economy) because of the inter-relationships between the global financial markets. The Kingdom's economy is influenced by global economic conditions (including regional and international economic growth) and financial developments in neighbouring countries or European countries more broadly, in addition to those of emerging markets more generally. Recent political and economic developments in the global economy have affected, and continue to have the potential to negatively impact, the global economy and the Kingdom (see "—The Kingdom is located in a region that has been subject to ongoing political and security concerns").

In line with global economic trends, the financial performance of the Fund and its portfolio companies has been affected by these trends, and could be materially adversely affected in the future by any recurrence of challenging economic conditions and uncertainty. No assurance can be given that the Fund's ability to access capital or sustain its growth and revenues will not be adversely affected by financial and/or economic crises, which could materially adversely affect the Fund's business, results of operations, financial condition and prospects and, therefore, the ability of the Trustee to perform its obligations in respect of any Certificates and the ability of the Fund to perform its obligations under the Transaction Documents.

The Kingdom is located in a region that has been subject to ongoing political and security concerns

The Kingdom is located in a region that is strategically important, and parts of this region have been subject to political and security concerns, especially in recent years. Several countries in the region are currently subject to armed conflicts and/or social and political unrest, including conflicts or disturbances in Yemen, Syria, Libya, Iraq and Palestine, as well as the multinational conflicts with extremist groups and/or militias. In some instances, the recent and ongoing conflicts are a continuation of the significant political and military upheaval experienced by certain regional countries from 2011 onwards, commonly referred to as the "Arab Spring", which gave rise to several instances of regime change and increased political uncertainty across the region. Furthermore, in March 2015, a coalition of countries, led by the Kingdom and supported by the international community, commenced military action against the Houthi militia rebels in Yemen. Although the coalition scaled back its military operations in Yemen in March 2016 and a ceasefire was declared in April 2016, the conflict in Yemen is not yet fully resolved and military operations continue at a reduced scale. The Kingdom was targeted on several occasions by ballistic missiles fired and drone attacks launched by the Houthi militia rebels in Yemen during 2017 and continuing through 2022. While the majority of these attacks were successfully intercepted by the Kingdom's defence systems, some attacks have led to damage to property and civilian injuries. There can be no assurance that the conflict in Yemen will not continue or re-escalate. Additionally, on 14 September 2019, the Abqaiq processing facility and the Khurais oil field in the Kingdom were damaged in a major act of sabotage, which resulted in the partial and temporary interruption of some of the Kingdom's oil and gas production. The Houthi rebels claimed responsibility for the act of sabotage, although this claim has not been verified and has been disputed. Furthermore, on 23 November 2020, an explosion took place as a result of a terrorist attack by a projectile, causing a fire in a fuel tank at a Saudi Aramco petroleum products distribution terminal in the north of Jeddah, and on 25 March 2022, oil facilities in Jeddah and Jizan were the subject of airborne attacks that were claimed by the Houthi militia. While there were no casualties nor any interruption to Saudi Aramco's fuel supplies as a result of these attacks, there can be no assurance what impact such acts of terrorism and sabotage may have on the geopolitical situation in the region, including any potential escalation of tensions. Nevertheless, there are ongoing attempts to find a settlement to the conflict in Yemen. On 9 April 2023, a Saudi delegation visited Yemen to negotiate a cease-fire and re-start political talks with the Houthi militia rebels, and in September 2023, further peace talks were held between the Kingdom and a Houthi militia delegation. However, there can be no guarantee as to the outcome of these talks and their impact on the geopolitical situation in the region, including any potential future re-escalation of tensions.

On 8 May 2018, the United States announced its withdrawal from the comprehensive agreement between the U.N. Security Council's five permanent members plus Germany and Iran that was reached in July 2015, reinstating U.S.

nuclear sanctions on the Iranian regime. The United States also announced that it would not renew exceptional waivers for importing Iranian oil for several oil-importing countries, effective from May 2019, and on 3 January 2020, the United States carried out a military strike which killed a senior Iranian military commander. As a result of this military strike, Iran launched missile attacks on U.S. forces based in Iraq. Any continuation or escalation of international or regional tensions regarding Iran, including further attacks on, or seizures of, oil tankers which disrupt international trade, including any impairment of trade flow through the Strait of Hormuz, or any military conflict, could have a destabilising impact on the Gulf region, including with respect to the Kingdom and its ability to export oil. However, the tensions between the Kingdom and Iran have recently de-escalated and on 10 March 2023, the Kingdom and Iran released a joint statement announcing the restoration of diplomatic ties and planned re-opening of their respective Saudi and Iranian embassies. Subsequently, on 6 June 2023, Iran re-opened its embassy in Riyadh. In addition, on 7 June 2023, Iran re-opened both its consulate in Jeddah and its representative office to the Organisation of Islamic Cooperation. On 9 August 2023, the Kingdom re-opened its embassy in Tehran.

Geopolitical events may contribute to instability in the Middle East and surrounding regions (that may or may not directly involve the Kingdom) and may have a material adverse effect on the Kingdom's attractiveness for foreign investment and capital, its ability to engage in international trade and, subsequently, its economy and financial condition. Furthermore, recent geopolitical events (such as the events in Israel and Gaza that commenced in October 2023, as well as the recent events between Israel and Iran and the Houthi militia attacks on ships in the Red Sea) may also contribute to increased defence spending, which could in turn have an adverse impact on the Kingdom's fiscal position or the budget available for other projects. It is not possible to predict the occurrence of events or circumstances such as, or similar to, a war or hostilities, the cessation of diplomatic ties, or the impact of such occurrences, and no assurance can be given that the Fund would be able to sustain its current profit levels if such events or circumstances were to occur. Continued instability affecting the countries in the MENA region could adversely impact the Kingdom and, consequently, the Fund.

The Kingdom is, and will continue to be, affected by economic and political developments in or affecting the Kingdom and the wider MENA region, and investors' reactions to developments in any country in the MENA region may affect securities of issuers in other markets, including the Kingdom. All the above factors could have a material adverse effect on the Fund's business, results of operations and financial condition, and thereby adversely affect the ability of the Trustee to perform its obligations in respect of any Certificates and the ability of the Fund to perform its obligations under the Transaction Documents.

Investing in securities involving emerging markets such as the Kingdom generally involves a higher degree of risk

Investing in securities involving emerging markets, such as the Kingdom, generally involves a higher degree of risk than investments in securities of issuers from more developed countries. Generally, investments in emerging markets are only suitable for sophisticated investors who fully appreciate, and are familiar with, the significance of the risks involved in investing in emerging markets.

The Kingdom's economy is susceptible to future adverse effects similar to those suffered by other emerging market countries. In addition, as a result of "contagion", the Kingdom could be affected by negative economic or financial developments in other emerging market countries, which could in turn affect the trading price of the Certificates. Key factors affecting the environment include the timing and size of increases in interest rates in the United States, evidence of an economic slowdown in China, geopolitical tensions in the Middle East and in the Korean peninsula and other similar significant global events.

Accordingly, there can be no assurance that the market for securities bearing emerging market risk, such as the Certificates, will not be affected negatively by events elsewhere, especially in other emerging markets.

The Kingdom's sovereign credit rating may be downgraded in the future

The Kingdom has been assigned the following credit ratings: A1 (positive) by Moody's since May 2016 and A+ (stable) by Fitch since April 2023. The Kingdom is also rated on an unsolicited basis by S&P Global Ratings Europe Limited ("S&P"). The S&P foreign and local currency credit ratings have been A with a stable outlook since March 2023. Factors cited by the rating agencies as causing changes in the Kingdom's ratings in the past are changes in oil prices and expected Government budget outcomes.

Ratings are an important factor in establishing the financial strength of debt issuers and are intended to measure an issuer's ability to repay its obligations based upon criteria established by the rating agencies. Any future downgrade in the Kingdom's sovereign credit ratings or in the credit ratings of instruments issued, insured or guaranteed by related institutions or agencies, could negatively affect the price of the Certificates. To the extent that major Government-related institutions or agencies are subject to downgrades in the future, this may adversely affect the finances of the Government to the extent that the Government provides explicit or implicit guarantees or credit support for the indebtedness of those entities, or to the extent that such entities contribute to Government revenues.

Any future decline in the Kingdom's credit rating could have a material adverse effect on its cost of borrowing and could adversely affect its ability to access debt capital markets or other sources of liquidity.

A credit rating is not a recommendation to buy, sell or hold the Certificates. Credit ratings are subject to revisions or withdrawal at any time by the assigning rating agency. The Fund cannot be certain that the Kingdom's credit rating will remain for any given period of time or that any such credit rating will not be downgraded or withdrawn entirely by the relevant rating agency if, in its judgement, circumstances in the future so warrant. A suspension, downgrade or withdrawal at any time of the credit rating assigned to the Kingdom may adversely affect the market price of the Certificates.

The Fund's business may be materially and adversely affected if the SAR/U.S. dollar peg were to be removed or adjusted

The Fund's financial statements are presented in SAR, which is the Fund's functional and presentation currency. Each of the Fund's portfolio companies determines its own functional currency and items included in the financial statements of each entity are measured using that functional currency.

The SAR has been pegged to the U.S. dollar since 1986 and remains pegged as at the date of this Offering Circular. Currently, it is pegged at the rate of 1 U.S. dollar = 3.75 SAR. In addition, certain other oil-producing Gulf Cooperation Council ("GCC") countries have their currencies pegged to the U.S. dollar as at the date of this Offering Circular. In response to the volatility of oil prices in 2015, oil-producing countries with currencies that had been traditionally pegged to the U.S. dollar faced pressure to de-peg and, in certain cases, did de-peg their currencies. For example, Kazakhstan de-pegged the Kazakhstani tenge from the U.S. dollar on 20 August 2015, which was followed on 21 December 2015 by the removal of the U.S. dollar peg against the Azerbaijani manat. While the likelihood of the GCC states pursuing a similar course of action is unclear, there is a risk that additional countries may choose to unwind their existing currency peg to the U.S. dollar, both in the GCC and the wider region (in the event that the challenging market conditions or volatility in global crude oil prices continue for a prolonged period). While the long-term impacts of such actions are uncertain, it is likely that any such de pegged currency would face a devaluation against the U.S. dollar immediately post removal of the peg. Given the levels of exposure amongst regional financial institutions to other pegged currencies, it is also likely that such currency de-valuation(s) would adversely impact the banking systems in the Kingdom and across the wider GCC.

While the Saudi Central Bank has, most recently in May 2020, re-iterated its intention to retain the SAR peg against the U.S. dollar, there can be no assurance that the SAR will not be de-pegged in the future or that the existing peg will not be adjusted in a manner that adversely affects the Fund's results of operations and financial condition. Additionally, any such de-pegging either in the Kingdom or across the wider region, particularly if such de-pegging is accompanied by currency de-valuations against the U.S. dollar, could contribute to higher inflation, increase the burden of servicing external debt and damage investor confidence, resulting in capital outflows and market volatility, each of which could have a material adverse effect on the Kingdom's economic and financial condition and, in turn, on the Fund's business, results of operations and financial condition, and thereby affect the ability of the Trustee to perform its obligations in respect of any Certificates and the ability of the Fund to perform its obligations under the Transaction Documents.

Tax changes in the Kingdom may have an adverse effect on the Fund

As at the date of this Offering Circular, the Fund and those of its wholly-owned portfolio companies operating in the Kingdom are not currently subject to corporation tax on their earnings within the Kingdom. The Fund is also not required to settle zakat.

With effect from 1 January 2018, the Government implemented a value-added tax (“VAT”) regime within the Kingdom at a rate of 5 per cent (5%). Subsequently, with effect from 1 July 2020, the Government increased the VAT rate to 15 per cent (15%).

With effect from 4 October 2020, transfers of real estate are generally subject to real estate transfer tax at 5 per cent (5%). In addition, the Kingdom has separate regimes for zakat, customs and excise duty in place.

If the Government introduces new, or alters existing, tax or zakat regimes, this may have a material adverse effect on the Fund’s business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition, which in turn could affect the ability of the Trustee to perform its obligations in respect of any Certificates and the ability of the Fund to perform its obligations under the Transaction Documents.

Risks factors relating to the Wakala Assets

Limitations relating to the indemnity provisions under the Purchase Undertaking and the Master Declaration of Trust

The Obligor has undertaken in the Purchase Undertaking and the Master Declaration of Trust that, in relation to any Series: (a) if, at the time of delivery of an exercise notice in accordance with the provisions of the Purchase Undertaking, the Public Investment Fund remains in actual or constructive possession, custody or control of all or any part of the Wakala Assets or the Certificateholder Put Right Wakala Assets as the case may be; and (b) if, following delivery of an exercise notice in accordance with the provisions of the Purchase Undertaking, the Obligor fails to pay the relevant Exercise Price or Certificateholder Put Right Exercise Price, as the case may be, for any reason whatsoever, the Obligor shall (as an independent, severable and separately enforceable obligation) fully indemnify the Trustee for the purpose of redemption in full of the Certificates then outstanding or the relevant Certificates to be redeemed on the Certificateholder Put Right Date and, accordingly, the amount payable under any such indemnity claim will equal the relevant Exercise Price or the Certificateholder Put Right Exercise Price, as the case may be.

Subject to the satisfaction of the conditions in (a) and (b) as set out in the above paragraph, if the Obligor fails to pay the relevant Exercise Price or the Certificateholder Put Right Exercise Price, as the case may be, in accordance with the Purchase Undertaking, the Delegate may, subject to the matters set out in Condition 13 and the terms of the Master Declaration of Trust, seek to enforce, inter alia, the provisions of the Purchase Undertaking and the Master Declaration of Trust against the Obligor by commencing arbitral proceedings. See “Risk Factors – Risk factors relating to enforcement – There are uncertainties around the choice of English law as the governing law of the Transaction Documents and around enforcing foreign arbitral awards in the Kingdom”.

However, investors should note that, in the event that the Public Investment Fund does not remain in actual or constructive possession, custody or control of all or any part of the relevant Wakala Assets at the time of delivery of the exercise notice in accordance with the provisions of the Purchase Undertaking, the condition in (a) as described above will not be satisfied and, therefore, no amounts will be payable by the Obligor under the separate indemnity provisions. For the avoidance of doubt, no investigation has been or will be made by the Trustee, the Arrangers, the Dealers or the Delegate or any of their respective affiliates as to whether the Obligor has or will continue to remain in actual or constructive possession, custody or control of any of the Wakala Assets.

Accordingly, in such event, the Delegate (on behalf of the Certificateholders) may be required to establish that there has been a breach of contract by the Obligor in order to prove for damages. Such breach of contract may be due to: (i) a breach by the Obligor of the requirement to purchase the Trustee's rights, title, interests, benefits and entitlements in, to and under the relevant Wakala Assets on the relevant Dissolution Date pursuant to the provisions of the Purchase Undertaking; and/or (ii) a breach by the Obligor of its undertaking to maintain actual or constructive possession, custody or control of all of the Wakala Assets comprising the Wakala Portfolio provided that, in each case, it is legally possible for the Obligor to so maintain.

As a result, the Delegate (on behalf of the Certificateholders) may not be able to recover, or may face significant challenges in recovering, an amount equal to the relevant Exercise Price or the Certificateholder Put Right Exercise Price, as the case may be, and in turn, the amount to be paid to the Certificateholders upon redemption. See "Risk Factors – Risk factors relating to enforcement – A court may not grant an order for specific performance"

Ownership of the Wakala Assets

In order to comply with the requirements of Shari'a, an ownership interest in the Wakala Assets comprised within the relevant Wakala Portfolio should pass to the Trustee under the relevant Master Purchase Agreement as supplemented by the relevant Supplemental Purchase Agreement (together, the "Purchase Agreements"). The Trustee will declare a trust in respect of the Wakala Assets and the other Trust Assets in favour of the Certificateholders of the relevant Series pursuant to the Master Declaration of Trust, as supplemented by the relevant Supplemental Declaration of Trust. Accordingly, from a Shari'a perspective, Certificateholders will, through the ownership interest obtained by the Trustee pursuant to the terms of the Purchase Agreement, have an undivided beneficial ownership interest in the relevant Wakala Assets.

However, limited investigation or enquiry will be made and limited due diligence will be conducted in respect of any Wakala Assets. The Wakala Assets will be selected by the Obligor, and the Certificateholders, the Trustee, the Delegate, the Arrangers, the Dealers and the Agents or any of their respective affiliates will have no ability to influence such selection. Only limited representations will be obtained from the Obligor in respect of the Wakala Assets and such representations shall not form part of the Trust Assets. No steps are intended to be taken to perfect the legal transfer of the ownership interest (including registration, if necessary) in the Wakala Assets with any relevant regulatory authority in the Kingdom or the Cayman Islands or otherwise give notice to any Relevant Company or notify or make any declaration to any competent authority (including but not limited to the Securities Depository Centre and Tadawul), to the extent such notification is required, in respect thereof. Therefore, Certificateholders shall have no legal interest in any Wakala Assets which require perfection in order to legally transfer any ownership interest therein.

Transfer of the Wakala Assets

Limited investigation has been or will be made as to whether any interest in any Wakala Assets may be transferred as a matter of the law governing the contracts (if any), the law of the jurisdiction where such Wakala Assets are located or any other relevant law. No investigation will be made to determine if any Purchase Agreement will have the effect of transferring an interest in the relevant Wakala Assets.

Nevertheless, as indicated above, although the Shari'a analysis is such that an ownership interest in the Wakala Assets should pass to the Trustee under the Purchase Agreement, the Certificateholders will not have any rights of enforcement as against the Wakala Assets and their rights are limited to enforcement against the Obligor of its obligation to purchase all (or the applicable portion thereof, as the case may be) of the Wakala Assets pursuant to the terms of the Purchase Undertaking.

Risk factors relating to the Certificates

Limitations on the payment of Periodic Distribution Amounts in certain circumstances

If the Wakala Portfolio is solely comprised of Co-owner Listed Shares, and if in the first 60 days from the Issue Date the Service Agent issues a notice that it has not been able to enter into the Hedging Arrangement in accordance with the Service Agency Agreement, this will give rise to an Obligor Event and an immediate mandatory redemption of the Certificates and, whilst there will be an obligation on the Obligor to pay an amount equal to the aggregate outstanding face amount of the Certificates, depending on the value of the relevant Listed Shares at the relevant time, there may be a shortfall in the amount needed to pay any accrued but unpaid Periodic Distribution Amounts in respect of such period from the Issue Date to such date of redemption.

Further, upon any redemption of the Certificates in full, if at the relevant time the Wakala Portfolio is solely comprised of Co-owner Listed Shares, and if the Obligor fails to pay an amount corresponding to the required Dissolution Amount under the relevant Transaction Documents, there is a risk that the Service Agent may not continue to maintain the Hedging Arrangement, and therefore whilst Periodic Distribution Amounts under the Certificates will continue to accrue in accordance with the Conditions, and for so long as such failure continues, there may be no amounts in the nature of additional profit payable by the Obligor to the Trustee in respect of the period beyond the relevant date for the redemption of the Certificates in full under the relevant Transaction Documents.

Absence of secondary market/limited liquidity

There is no assurance that a secondary market for the Certificates of any Series will develop or, if it does develop, that it will provide the Certificateholders with liquidity of investment or that it will continue for the life of such Certificates. Accordingly, a Certificateholder may not be able to find a buyer to buy its Certificates readily or at prices that will enable the Certificateholder to realise a desired yield. The market value of the Certificates may fluctuate and a lack of liquidity, in particular, can have a material adverse effect on the market value of the Certificates.

An application has been made for the listing of the Certificates on the ISM but there can be no assurance that any such listing will occur on or prior to the date of this Offering Circular or at all, if it does occur, that it will enhance the liquidity of the Certificates.

Accordingly, the purchase of the Certificates is suitable only for investors who can bear the risks associated with a lack of liquidity in the Certificates and the financial and other risks associated with an investment in the Certificates.

The Certificates are limited recourse obligations

The Certificates are not debt obligations of the Trustee. Instead, each Certificate represents solely an undivided pro rata ownership interest in the relevant Trust Assets relating to that Series. Recourse to the Trustee is limited to the relevant Trust Assets of the relevant Series and the proceeds of the relevant Trust Assets of the relevant Series are the sole source of payments on the Certificates of that Series. Upon the occurrence of a Dissolution Event or in the case of any other dissolution pursuant to the Conditions, the sole rights of each of the Trustee and/or the Delegate, as applicable, will be (subject to Condition 14) against the Obligor to perform its obligations under the Transaction Documents to which it is a party.

Certificateholders will otherwise have no recourse to any assets of the Trustee (other than the Trust Assets in the manner and to the extent contemplated by the Transaction Documents) or the Delegate in respect of any shortfall in the expected amounts due on the Certificates. The Obligor is obliged to make certain payments under the Transaction Documents directly to the Trustee, and the Trustee and/or the Delegate will have recourse against the Obligor to recover such payments due to the Trustee pursuant to the Transaction Documents.

Under no circumstances shall the Delegate or any Certificateholder have any right to cause the sale or other disposition of any of the relevant Trust Assets (other than as expressly contemplated in the Transaction Documents) and the sole right of the Delegate and the Certificateholders against the Trustee and the Obligor shall be to enforce their respective obligations under the Transaction Documents to which they are a party.

After enforcing the relevant Trust Assets and distributing the net proceeds of such Trust Assets in accordance with Condition 5(b), the obligations of the Trustee in respect of the Certificates shall be satisfied and no Certificateholder may take any further steps against the Trustee (or any steps against the Delegate) to recover any further sums in respect of the Certificates and the right to receive any such sums unpaid shall be extinguished.

The Certificates may be subject to early dissolution

In certain circumstances, the Certificates may be subject to early dissolution. An early dissolution feature of any Certificate is likely to limit its market value. During any period when the Trustee may (acting on the instructions of the Obligor) elect to redeem any Certificates, the market value of those Certificates generally will not rise substantially above the relevant Dissolution Amount to be paid. This also may be true prior to any dissolution period.

The Trustee may (acting on the instructions of the Obligor) be expected to redeem the Certificates when the Obligor's cost of financing is lower than the Profit Rate on the Certificates. At those times, an investor generally would not be able to reinvest the redemption proceeds at an effective profit rate as high as the Profit Rate on the Certificates and may only be able to do so at a significantly lower rate. Prospective investors should consider re-investment risk in light of other investments available at that time.

Certificates where denominations involve integral multiples: Definitive Certificates

In relation to any issue of Certificates which have denominations consisting of a minimum Specified Denomination plus one or more higher integral multiples of another smaller amount, it is possible that such Certificates may be traded in amounts in excess of the minimum Specified Denomination that are not integral multiples of such minimum Specified Denomination.

In such a case a holder who, as a result of trading such amounts, holds a face amount of less than the minimum Specified Denomination would need to purchase an additional face amount of Certificates such that it holds an amount equal to at least the minimum Specified Denomination to be able to trade such Certificates. Certificateholders should be aware that Certificates which have a denomination that is not an integral multiple of the minimum Specified Denomination may be illiquid and difficult to trade.

If a Certificateholder holds an amount which is less than the minimum Specified Denomination in his account with the relevant clearing system at the relevant time, such Certificateholder may not receive a Definitive Certificate in respect of such holding (should Definitive Certificates be printed) and would need to purchase a face amount of Certificates such that its holding amounts to at least a Specified Denomination in order to be eligible to receive a Definitive Certificate.

If Definitive Certificates are issued, holders should be aware that Definitive Certificates which have a denomination that is not an integral multiple of the minimum Specified Denomination may be illiquid and difficult to trade.

Profit rate risks

Investment in Fixed Rate Certificates involves the risk that subsequent changes in market interest or profit rates may adversely affect the value of Fixed Rate Certificates. A drop in the level of interest or profit rates will have a positive impact on the price of the Fixed Rate Certificates, as such Certificates pay a fixed annual rate of profit. Conversely, an increase in the interest or profit rate level will have an adverse impact on the price of the Fixed Rate Certificates. For investors holding the Fixed Rate Certificates until maturity, any changes in the interest or profit rate level during the term will not affect the yield of the Fixed Rate Certificates, as the Fixed Rate Certificates will be redeemed at par.

The regulation and reform of “benchmarks” may adversely affect the value of Certificates linked to or referencing such “benchmarks”

Reference rates and indices which are deemed to be “benchmarks” are the subject of ongoing national and international regulatory discussions and proposals for reform. Some of these reforms are already effective whilst others are still to be implemented. These reforms may cause such benchmarks to perform differently than in the past, to disappear entirely, or have other consequences which cannot be predicted. Any such consequence could have a material adverse effect on any Certificates linked to or referencing such a benchmark.

Regulation (EU) No. 2016/1011 (the “EU Benchmarks Regulation”) applies, subject to certain transitional provisions, to the provision of benchmarks, the contribution of input data to a benchmark and the use of a benchmark, within the European Union (EU). Among other things, it: (i) requires benchmark administrators to be authorised or registered (or, if non EU-based, to be subject to an equivalent regime or otherwise recognised or endorsed); and (ii) prevents certain uses by EU supervised entities of benchmarks of administrators that are not authorised or registered (or, if non EU-based, not deemed equivalent or recognised or endorsed). The Regulation (EU) 2016/1011 as it forms part of domestic law by virtue of the EUWA (the “UK Benchmarks Regulation”), amongst other things, applies to the provision of benchmarks, the contribution of input data to a benchmark and the use of a benchmark, within the UK. Similarly, it prohibits the use in the UK by UK-supervised entities of benchmarks of administrators that are not authorised by the FCA or registered on the UK Benchmarks Register (or, if non UK-based, not deemed equivalent or recognised or endorsed).

The EU Benchmarks Regulation or the UK Benchmarks Regulation, as applicable, could have a material impact on any Certificates linked to or referencing benchmark rates or indices, in particular, if the methodology or other terms of the benchmark are changed in order to comply with the terms of the EU Benchmarks Regulation or UK Benchmarks Regulation, and such changes could (amongst other things) have the effect of reducing or increasing the rate or level, or affecting the volatility of the published rate or level, of the benchmark.

More broadly, any of the international, national or other proposals for reform, or the general increased regulatory scrutiny of benchmarks, could increase the costs and risks of administering or otherwise participating in the setting of a benchmark and complying with any such regulations or requirements. Such factors may have the effect of discouraging market participants from continuing to administer or contribute to certain “benchmarks”, trigger changes in the rules or methodologies used in certain “benchmarks” or lead to the discontinuance or unavailability of quotes of certain “benchmarks”. Investors should consult their own independent advisers and make their own assessment about the potential risks imposed by the EU Benchmarks Regulation and the UK Benchmarks Regulation reforms or arising from the possible cessation or reform of certain reference rates in making any investment decision with respect to any Certificates linked to or referencing a benchmark.

The Conditions provide for certain fallback arrangements in the event that a published benchmark (including any page on which such benchmark may be published (or any other successor source)) becomes unavailable or a Benchmark Event or a Benchmark Transition Event, as applicable, otherwise occurs. Such an event may be deemed to have occurred prior to the issue date for a Series of Certificates.

Such fallback arrangements include the possibility that the Profit Rate could be set by reference to a Successor Rate or an Alternative Rate, with the application of an Adjustment Spread and may include amendments to the Conditions, the Master Declaration of Trust and/or any other Transaction Documents to ensure the proper operation of the Successor Rate, Alternative Rate and/or Adjustment Spread, all as determined by the Independent Adviser, and without any requirement for the consent or sanction of the relevant Certificateholders. The application of an Adjustment Spread may result in the Certificates performing differently (which may include payment of a lower Profit Rate) than they would do if the Original Reference Rate were to continue to apply in its current form. The choice of replacement benchmark is uncertain and could result in the replacement benchmark being unavailable or indeterminable.

The market (if any) for Certificates linked to any Successor Rate or Alternative Reference Rate may be less liquid than the market for Certificates linked to the Original Reference Rate. Prospective investors should note that neither the Obligor nor any Independent Adviser appointed pursuant to the Conditions shall, in the absence of fraud have any liability whatsoever to the Trustee and/or the Obligor, the Delegate, Agents, or Certificateholders for any determination made by it pursuant to the Conditions.

In certain circumstances the ultimate fallback of profit for a particular Return Accumulation Period may result in the Profit Rate for the last preceding Return Accumulation Period being used. This may result in the effective application of a fixed rate for Floating Rate Certificates based on the rate which was last observed on the Relevant Screen Page. In addition, due to the uncertainty concerning the availability of successor rates and alternative reference rates and the involvement of an Independent Adviser in certain circumstances, the relevant fallback provisions may not operate as intended at the relevant time.

Furthermore, if a Successor Rate or Alternative Rate for the Original Reference Rate is determined by the Independent Adviser, the Conditions provide that the Trustee may vary the Conditions, the Master Declaration or Trust, the Agency Agreement and/or any other Transaction Document as necessary to ensure the proper operation of such Successor Rate or Alternative Rate, without any requirement for consent or approval of the relevant Certificateholders.

Where ISDA Determination is specified as the manner in which the Profit Rate in respect of Floating Rate Certificates is to be determined, the Conditions provide that the Profit Rate in respect of the Certificates shall be determined by reference to the relevant Floating Rate Option in the 2006 ISDA Definitions or 2021 ISDA Definitions. Where the Floating Rate Option specified is an “IBOR” Floating Rate Option, the Profit Rate may be determined by reference to the relevant screen rate or the rate determined on the basis of quotations from certain banks. If the relevant IBOR is permanently discontinued and the relevant screen rate or quotations from banks (as applicable) are not available, the operation of these provisions may lead to uncertainty as to the Profit Rate that would be applicable, and may, adversely affect the value of, and return on, the Floating Rate Certificates.

Appointment of Dealers as Calculation Agents

The Trustee may appoint a Dealer as Calculation Agent in respect of an issuance of Certificates. In such a case, the Calculation Agent is likely to be a member of an international financial group that is involved, in the ordinary course of its business, in a wide range of banking activities out of which conflicting interests may arise. Whilst such a Calculation Agent will, where relevant, have information barriers and procedures in place to manage conflicts of interest, it may in its other banking activities from time to time be engaged in transactions involving an index or related derivatives which may affect amounts receivable by Certificateholders during the term and on the maturity of the Certificates or the market price, liquidity or value of the Certificates and which could be deemed to be adverse to the interests of the Certificateholders.

Risk factors relating to enforcement

Certificateholders may only be able to enforce the Certificates through arbitration before the LCIA

The Certificates and the Transaction Documents are expressed to be governed by English law, and the parties to such documents have agreed to refer any unresolved dispute in relation to such documents to arbitration under the London Court of International Arbitration (“LCIA”) Arbitration Rules (the “Rules”) with an arbitral tribunal with its seat in London. Certificateholders will therefore only have recourse to LCIA arbitration in order to enforce their contractual rights under the Certificates or the Transaction Documents and will not have the right to bring proceedings relating to the Certificates or the Transaction Documents before the English courts.

The Obligor is the sovereign wealth fund of the Kingdom and a substantial portion of its assets and operations are located in the Kingdom. As such, any delay in the enforcement of, or any inability to enforce, an arbitral award relating to the Certificates in the Kingdom could have a material adverse effect on Certificateholders' recourse to the Obligor's assets to satisfy amounts due under the Certificates.

The Kingdom is a party to the New York Convention on the Recognition and Enforcement of Foreign Arbitral Awards 1958 (the "New York Convention"). Accordingly, courts in the Kingdom have an obligation to recognise and enforce foreign arbitral awards unless (i) the party opposing enforcement can prove one of the grounds under Article V of the New York Convention to refuse enforcement, which include, without limitation, that the agreement is not valid under the law governing it, the party against whom the award is invoked was not given proper notice of the arbitration proceeding, the award contains decisions beyond the scope of the matters submitted to arbitration and the award has been set aside or suspended by a competent authority of the country in which, or under the law of which, the award was made, or (ii) Saudi Arabian courts find that the subject matter of the dispute is not capable of settlement by arbitration or enforcement or would be contrary to the public policy of the Kingdom. In reliance on such public policy exception, Saudi Arabian adjudicatory bodies would enforce only those portions of the award which, in the view of the Saudi Arabian adjudicatory bodies, do not contravene the principles of Shari'a or Saudi Arabian public policy such as, award of interest. There can, therefore, be no assurance that the Saudi Arabian courts will enforce a foreign arbitral award in accordance with the terms of the New York Convention (or any other multilateral or bilateral enforcement convention). In addition, enforcement of any arbitral award in the Kingdom is subject to filing a legal action for recognition and enforcement of the foreign arbitral award with the enforcement departments of the general courts in the Kingdom, which can take considerable time.

If, for whatever reason, a foreign arbitral award was not enforced in whole or in part under the aforementioned procedures, the claimants would need to institute a new proceeding in the Kingdom before the appropriate adjudicatory body and the outcome of such proceeding would be governed in all respects by Saudi Arabian law and procedure.

The interpretation of the compliance of the Certificates and Transaction Documents with Shari'a principles may differ amongst Saudi courts and judicial committees

Prospective Certificateholders should note that to the best of the Trustee's and the Obligor's knowledge, no securities of a similar nature to the Certificates have previously been the subject of adjudicatory interpretation or enforcement in Saudi Arabia.

Prospective Certificateholders should note that different Shari'a advisers and courts and judicial committees in the Kingdom may form different opinions on identical issues and therefore prospective Certificateholders should consult their own legal and Shari'a advisers to receive an opinion, as to the compliance of the Certificates and the Transaction Documents with Shari'a principles. Prospective Certificateholders should also note that although each of Al Rajhi Capital Company's Shari'a Committee, the Shariah Advisory Board of Citi Islamic Investment Bank E.C., the Internal Shariah Supervision Committee of Emirates NBD – Islamic, the Executive Shariah Committee of HSBC Saudi Arabia and the Shari'a advisers of J.P. Morgan Securities plc has confirmed that the Certificates and the Transaction Documents are in compliance with Shari'a principles, as applicable to them and, as interpreted by, them, such approvals and confirmations would not bind a court or judicial committee in the Kingdom, including in the context of any insolvency or bankruptcy proceedings relating to the Obligor, and any court or judicial committee in the Kingdom will have the discretion to make its own determination about whether the Transaction Documents comply with the laws of the Kingdom and Shari'a principles and therefore are enforceable in the Kingdom.

Courts and judicial committees in the Kingdom may not give effect to unilateral promises

Under Islamic law there are different opinions amongst scholars with respect to the enforceability of a unilateral promise which can be divided into three distinct positions: (i) a unilateral promise will be enforceable in all circumstances; (ii) a unilateral promise will not be enforceable in any circumstances; and (iii) a unilateral promise will be enforceable where a breach would cause harm to the promisee. In addition, the absence of both a doctrine of binding precedent in the Kingdom and a public centralised index of previous judgments of courts and judicial committees allow judges notable interpretative discretion and thus render it difficult to predict which of the above positions would be followed by a court or judicial committee in the Kingdom. As a result, such a unilateral promise may not create an obligation which would be enforceable before the courts and judicial committees of the Kingdom. The Purchase Undertaking is a unilateral promise from the Obligor to the Trustee and the Delegate. Accordingly, prospective Certificateholders should be aware that its terms may not be enforceable before the courts and judicial committees of the Kingdom and, as a consequence, Certificateholders may not receive the relevant Dissolution Distribution Amounts due to them under the Certificates.

There are concerns as to the effectiveness under Saudi Arabian law of any transfer of an interest in an asset in the Kingdom on behalf of foreign nationals without a corporate presence in the Kingdom and the relevant licensing requirements having been met

The Foreign Investment Law issued under Royal Decree No. M/1 dated 5/1/1421H (corresponding to 10 April 2000), as last amended by Council of Ministers' Decision No. 83 dated 30/1/1443H (corresponding to 7 September 2021) and the Anti-Concealment Law issued by Royal Decree No. M/4 dated 1/1/1442H (corresponding to 20 August 2020) (the "Anti-Cover Up Law") prohibit persons and Saudi Arabian companies from doing business in the Kingdom on behalf of foreign nationals unless they meet certain requirements, including certain licensing requirements. Further, noting that the Wakala Portfolio may comprise an interest in Listed Shares, the Rules for Foreign Investment in Securities issued by the board of the CMA pursuant to Resolution Number 2-26-23 dated 05/09/1444H (corresponding to 27 March 2023) ("Rules for Foreign Investment in Securities") provides for certain methods by which foreigners may invest in shares listed on the Saudi Stock Exchange. Each of the Trustee and the Obligor could be interpreted as not complying with the requirements of the Anti-Cover Up Law and/or the Rules for Foreign Investment in Securities by entering into the Service Agency Agreement and the other Transaction Documents to which it is a party.

On the basis of the foregoing, prospective Certificateholders should note that there is uncertainty as to the effectiveness under Saudi law of any transfer of an interest in an asset in the Kingdom pursuant to the Transaction Documents relating to a Series, or on the return of investment of any activity in the Kingdom, absent compliance with the matters specified above. As a result, the transactions contemplated by the Transaction Documents may be considered void as a result of non-compliance with any of the matters specified above. If that is the case, a Saudi adjudicatory body is likely to require that the Obligor return to the Trustee the relevant issue proceeds less any Wakala Portfolio Revenues already paid in respect of the relevant Series. It is uncertain whether the parties will be entitled to any damages.

Service of process on the Obligor and enforcement of an arbitral award against the Obligor's assets in the Kingdom may be subject to untested law

The enforcement of foreign judgments and foreign arbitral awards against public entities (such as the Obligor which has public legal personality) are subject to the recently issued Saudi law of enforcement before the Board of Grievances issued by Royal Decree M/15 dated 27/01/1443H (corresponding to 4 September 2021) (the "Administrative Enforcement Law"). Pursuant to the Administrative Enforcement Law, a circuit court may issue an enforcement order against a public entity after notifying the public entity of the enforcement claim and the lapse of a warning period. Even though the Administrative Enforcement Law provides for an enforcement process with certain timeframes for enforcement steps and procedures, it remains untested as at the date of this Offering Circular.

Also, Saudi Arabian jurisprudence considers public monies unseizable so as to protect the greater public interest, as emphasized by High Order 9624 dated 22/11/1430H (corresponding to 10 November 2009), and confirmed by the Administrative Enforcement Law which does not provide for seizure of government entities' assets. However, the Administrative Enforcement Law provides the relevant courts with the authority to impose fines and criminal penalties on public employees who abuse their influence to hamper the enforcement of an enforceable deed. In case of delayed enforcement, the enforcing party may seek damages claim against the government entity. Therefore, there remains some level of uncertainty regarding how courts will interpret and implement the Administrative Enforcement Law, as well as the process and timeframe for enforcement of arbitral awards against public entities, including the Obligor.

Courts and judicial committees in the Kingdom may not give effect to the Obligor Events

Prospective Certificateholders should note that the courts and judicial committees of the Kingdom may not give effect to any of the Obligor Events other than those Obligor Events relating to the non-payment of amounts due under the Transaction Documents.

Courts and judicial committees in the Kingdom may not give effect to penalties and certain types of indemnities

Prospective Certificateholders should note that should any provision of the Transaction Documents be construed by a court or judicial committee in the Kingdom to be an agreement or undertaking by a party to pay indemnities or damages that are greater than a genuine estimate of actual direct loss incurred, a Saudi adjudicatory body may decline to enforce such provision. Further, any indemnity provided by the Obligor pursuant to the Transaction Documents or in relation to any Series may not be enforceable under the laws and regulations of the Kingdom in certain circumstances. As such, Certificateholders may ultimately not be able to enforce the Trustee's and/or the Obligor's relevant obligations under the Transaction Documents.

A court may not grant an order for specific performance

In the event that the Obligor fails to perform its obligations under any Transaction Document to which it is a party, the potential remedies available to the Trustee and the Delegate include (i) obtaining an order for specific performance of the Obligor's obligations, or (ii) a claim for damages.

There is no assurance that a court will provide an order for specific performance, as this is generally a matter for the discretion of the relevant court. Specific performance, injunctive relief and declaratory judgments and remedies are rarely available as judicial and other adjudicative remedies in the Kingdom. The amount of damages which a court may award in respect of a breach will depend upon a number of possible factors, including an obligation on the Trustee and the Delegate to mitigate any loss arising as a result of such breach. No assurance is provided on the level of damages which a court may award in the event of a failure by the Obligor to perform its obligations set out in the Transaction Documents to which it is a party. Damages for loss of profits, consequential damages or other speculative damages are not awarded in Saudi Arabia by the courts or other adjudicatory authorities, and only actual, direct and proven damages are awarded. Therefore, prospective investors should note that, if damages are awarded, they may receive less than they would have had an order for specific performance been granted.

The terms of the Master Declaration of Trust may not be enforceable in the Kingdom

The English law concept of a trust does not exist under Saudi Arabian law. Accordingly, there is no certainty that the terms of the Master Declaration of Trust and any Supplemental Declaration of Trust (each of which will be governed by English law) would be enforced by the courts of the Kingdom and, as such, there can be no assurance that the obligations of the Trustee and/or the Delegate under the Master Declaration of Trust and any Supplemental Declaration of Trust to act on behalf of the Certificateholders in accordance with their instructions (given in accordance with the Conditions of the Certificates) are enforceable as a matter of contract under Saudi law or that the courts and judicial committees of the Kingdom would recognise any claim of the Delegate on behalf of Certificateholders under the Transaction Documents pursuant to the Master Declaration of Trust.

There can be no assurance as to whether the waiver of immunity provided by Obligor will be valid and binding under the laws of the Kingdom

Under Saudi Arabian law, no seizure of or execution may be made against state-owned assets and the taking of enforcement action against a public entity is prohibited. The Obligor has waived its rights in relation to sovereign or other immunity in respect of Certificates issued under the Programme. See Condition 22(d). However, there can be no assurance as to whether such waivers of immunity from execution or attachment or other legal process by it under the Certificates and the Transaction Documents are valid and binding under the laws of the Kingdom. If the waiver is not valid and binding, there is a risk that investors may not be able to enforce any claim, award or judgment against the Obligor in the Kingdom.

Additional risks

Credit ratings assigned to the Trustee, the Obligor, the Programme or any Certificates may not reflect all the risks associated with an investment in those Certificates

One or more independent credit rating agencies may assign credit ratings to the Certificates. The ratings may not reflect the potential impact of all risks related to structure, market, additional factors discussed above and other factors that may affect the value of the Certificates. A credit rating is not a recommendation to buy, sell or hold securities and may be revised or withdrawn by the rating agency at any time.

In general, European regulated investors are restricted under the CRA Regulation from using credit ratings for regulatory purposes in the EEA, unless such ratings are issued by a credit rating agency established in the EEA and registered under the CRA Regulation (and such registration has not been withdrawn or suspended, subject to transitional provisions that apply in certain circumstances). Such general restriction will also apply in the case of credit ratings issued by third country non-EEA credit rating agencies, unless the relevant credit ratings are endorsed by an EEA-registered credit rating agency or the relevant third country rating agency is certified in accordance with the CRA Regulation (and such endorsement action or certification, as the case may be, has not been withdrawn or suspended, subject to transitional provisions that apply in certain circumstances). The list of registered and certified rating agencies published by ESMA on its website in accordance with the CRA Regulation is not conclusive evidence of the status of the relevant rating agency being included in such list as there may be delays between certain supervisory measures being taken against a relevant rating agency and the publication of an updated list.

Investors regulated in the UK are subject to similar restrictions under the UK CRA Regulation. As such, in general, UK regulated investors are required to use for UK regulatory purposes ratings issued by a credit rating agency established in the UK and registered under the UK CRA Regulation. In the case of ratings issued by third country non-UK credit rating agencies, third-country credit ratings can either be: (a) endorsed by a UK registered credit rating agency; or (b) issued by a third country credit rating agency that is certified in accordance with the UK CRA Regulation. Note this is subject, in each case, to: (i) the relevant UK registration, certification or endorsement, as the case may be, not having been withdrawn or suspended; and (ii) transitional provisions that apply in certain circumstances.

If the status of the rating agency rating the Certificates changes for the purposes of the CRA Regulation or the UK CRA Regulation, relevant regulated investors may no longer be able to use the rating for regulatory purposes in the EEA or the UK, as applicable, and the Certificates may have a different regulatory treatment, which may impact the value of the Certificates and their liquidity in any secondary market. Certain information with respect to the credit rating agencies and ratings is set out on the cover of this Offering Circular.

Change of law

The Transaction Documents and the Conditions are based on English law and administrative practices in effect as at the date of this Offering Circular. No assurance can be given as to the impact of any possible judicial decision or change to English law or administrative practice after the date of this Offering Circular nor whether any such change could adversely affect the ability of the Trustee to comply with its obligations and make payments under the Certificates or of the Obligor to comply with its obligations and make payments under the Transaction Documents to which it is a party.

Reliance on Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg procedures

The Certificates of each Series will be represented on issue by a Global Certificate that will be deposited with a common depository for Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg. Except in the circumstances described in the Global Certificate, investors will not be entitled to receive Certificates in definitive form. Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg and their respective direct and indirect participants will maintain records of the ownership interests in the Global Certificate. While the Certificates of any Series are represented by the Global Certificate, investors will be able to trade their ownership interests only through Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg and their respective participants.

While the Certificates of any Series are represented by the Global Certificate, the Trustee will discharge its payment obligation under the Certificates by making payments through the relevant clearing systems. A holder of an ownership interest in a Global Certificate must rely on the procedures of the relevant clearing system and its participants to receive payments under the Certificates. The Trustee has no responsibility or liability for the records relating to, or payments made in respect of, ownership interests in a Global Certificate.

Holders of ownership interests in a Global Certificate will not have a direct right to vote in respect of the Certificates so represented. Instead, such holders will be permitted to act only to the extent that they are enabled by the relevant clearing system and its participants to appoint appropriate proxies.

Exchange rate risks and exchange controls

The Trustee will pay Periodic Distribution Amounts and Dissolution Amounts on the Certificates and the Obligor will make any payments under the Transaction Documents in the Specified Currency. This presents certain risks relating to currency conversions if an investor's financial activities are denominated principally in a currency or currency unit (the "Investor's Currency") other than the Specified Currency.

These include the risk that exchange rates may significantly change (including changes due to devaluation of the Specified Currency or revaluation of the Investor's Currency) and the risk that authorities with jurisdiction over the Investor's Currency may impose or modify exchange controls which could adversely affect an applicable exchange rate.

Neither the Trustee nor the Obligor have any control over the factors that generally affect these risks, such as economic, financial and political events and the supply and demand for applicable currencies. In recent years, exchange rates between certain currencies have been volatile and volatility between such currencies or with other currencies may be expected in the future. An appreciation in the value of the Investor's Currency relative to the Specified Currency would decrease: (a) the Investor's Currency equivalent yield on the Certificates; (b) the Investor's Currency equivalent value of the face amount payable on the Certificates; and (c) the Investor's Currency equivalent market value of the Certificates.

Government and monetary authorities may impose (as some have done in the past) exchange controls that could adversely affect an applicable exchange rate or the ability of the Trustee or the Obligor to make payments in respect of the Certificates or Transaction Documents (as applicable). As a result, investors may receive lower Periodic Distribution Amounts or amounts in respect of the face amount of such Certificates than expected, or no such Periodic Distribution Amount or face amount.

Consents in relation to the variation of the Transaction Documents and other matters

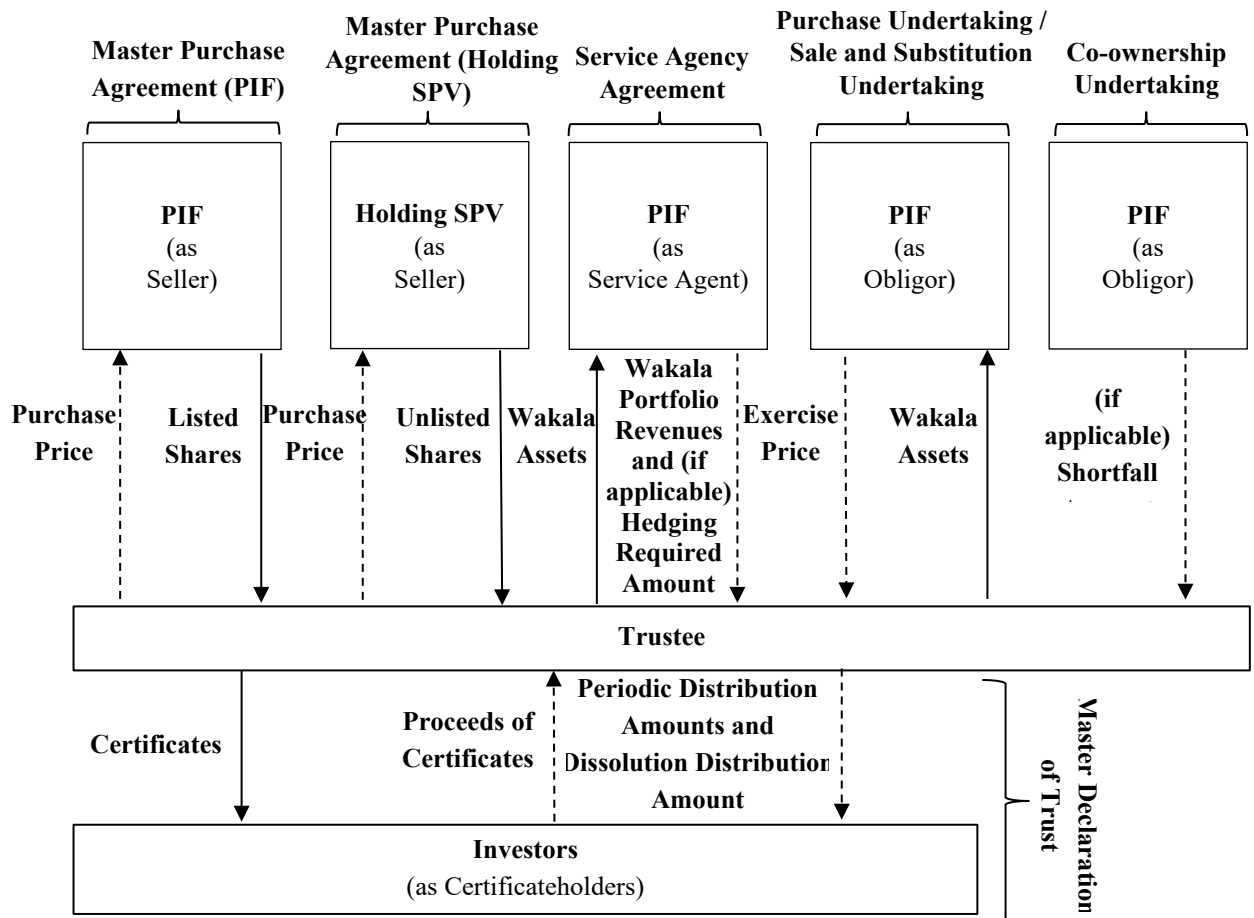

The Master Declaration of Trust and the Conditions of the Certificates contain provisions for calling meetings of Certificateholders of a Series to consider matters affecting their interests generally. These provisions permit defined majorities to bind all Certificateholders of such a Series including Certificateholders who did not attend and vote at the relevant meeting and Certificateholders who voted in a manner contrary to the majority.

The Master Declaration of Trust contains provisions permitting the Delegate from time to time and at any time without any consent or sanction of the Certificateholders to make any modification to the Master Declaration of Trust or any Transaction Document if, in the opinion of the Delegate, such modification: (a) is of a formal, minor or technical nature; (b) is made to correct a manifest error; or (c) is not materially prejudicial to the interests of the Certificateholders and is other than in respect of a Reserved Matter (as defined in the Master Declaration of Trust). Unless the Delegate otherwise agrees, any such modification shall as soon as practicable thereafter be notified to the Certificateholders and shall in any event be binding upon the Certificateholders.

STRUCTURE DIAGRAM AND CASHFLOWS

Set out below is a simplified structure diagram and description of the principal cash flows underlying each Series to be issued under the Programme. Prospective investors are referred to the Conditions and the detailed descriptions of the relevant Transaction Documents set out elsewhere in this Offering Circular for a fuller description of certain cash flows and for an explanation of the meaning of certain capitalised terms used below.

Structure Diagram

Payments by the Certificateholders and the Trustee

On the Issue Date of each Tranche of Certificates, the Certificateholders will pay the issue price in respect of the Certificates (the “Issue Price”) to the Trustee, and the Trustee will apply such amount as the purchase price payable for the purchase from:

- (a) PIF (in its capacity as Seller) of all its rights, title, interests, benefits and entitlements in, to and under certain Listed Shares (as defined below); and/or
- (b) the Holding SPV (in its capacity as Seller) of all its rights, title, interests, benefits and entitlements in, to and under certain Unlisted Shares (as defined below) (on the basis that, prior to the Issue Date, PIF will sell its entire ownership interest in the relevant Unlisted Shares to the Holding SPV),

(in the case of the first Tranche of the relevant Series of Certificates, the “Initial Assets” or, in the case of each subsequent Tranche of such Series, the “Additional Assets”) in each case, that meet the eligibility criteria set out in the definition of Eligible Asset in the relevant Master Purchase Agreement.

In relation to a Series, the Initial Assets and, if applicable, the Additional Assets and all other rights arising under or with respect thereto (including the right to receive payment of dividends, profit, and any other amounts due in connection therewith) shall comprise the “Wakala Portfolio” in respect of such Series, and the Listed Shares and/or Unlisted Shares comprised in such Portfolio from time to time, the “Wakala Assets”.

“Listed Shares” means shares (however designated) in the equity of a Relevant Company listed on the Saudi Exchange.

“Relevant Company” means, in relation to any Listed Shares or Unlisted Shares, the company that has issued the relevant Listed Shares or Unlisted Shares, respectively.

“Unlisted Shares” means the unlisted shares (however designated, whether voting or non-voting) in the equity of a Relevant Company.

Periodic Distribution Payments

In relation to each Series, all dividends and other amounts payable by the Relevant Companies in respect of the relevant Wakala Assets comprised in the Wakala Portfolio (the “Wakala Portfolio Revenues”) will be recorded by PIF (in its capacity as Service Agent) in a ledger account (the “Collection Account”). On each Wakala Distribution Determination Date in respect of each Series, the Service Agent shall, after payment of any outstanding amounts in respect of any Liquidity Facility (as defined below) advanced to the Trustee, pay into the relevant Transaction Account amounts standing to the credit of the Collection Account, which is intended to fund an amount equal to the aggregate of the Periodic Distribution Amounts payable by the Trustee under the Certificates of the relevant Series on the immediately following Periodic Distribution Date (the “Required Amount”) and such Required Amount will be applied by the Trustee for such purpose.

In the event that the Wakala Portfolio Revenues are greater than the Required Amount, the amount of any excess shall be credited by the Service Agent to a separate ledger account (the “Reserve Account”). If the amount standing to the credit of the relevant Transaction Account on a Wakala Distribution Determination Date is insufficient to fund the Required Amount, the Service Agent shall apply amounts standing to the credit of the Reserve Account towards such shortfall, by paying an amount equal to the same into the Transaction Account. If having applied such amounts from the Reserve Account, there remains a shortfall, the Service Agent may, in its sole discretion, provide either:

- (a) Shari'a-compliant funding to the Trustee itself; or
- (b) Shari'a-compliant funding from a third party to be paid to the Trustee, in each case, in an amount equal to the shortfall remaining (if any) on terms that such funding is to be payable: (i) from the Wakala Portfolio Revenues received in respect of a subsequent period; or (ii) the relevant exercise price payable pursuant to the Purchase Undertaking or the Sale and Substitution Undertaking, as the case may be, the Hedging Required Amount payable pursuant to the Service Agency Agreement and/or the Shortfall Amount payable pursuant to the Co-ownership Undertaking, as the case may be, on the relevant Dissolution Date (each a “Liquidity Facility”).

Dissolution Payments

On the business day prior to the relevant Scheduled Dissolution Date in relation to each Series:

- (a) the Trustee will have the right under the Purchase Undertaking to require PIF (in its capacity as Obligor) to purchase all of its rights, title, interests, benefits and entitlements in, to and under the Wakala Assets at the relevant Exercise Price; and
- (b) in the case of any Co-owner Listed Shares that form part of the Wakala Assets, the Service Agent will:
 - (i) exercise its rights and make a claim under a Shari'a compliant hedging arrangement (the “Hedging Arrangement”) in an amount equal to the Hedging Required Amount; and/or
 - (ii) if applicable, pay the Hedging Shortfall Amount,in each case, pursuant to the Service Agency Agreement; and/or
- (c) in the case of any Co-owner Unlisted Shares that form part of the Wakala Assets, PIF (in its capacity as Obligor) will pay the Shortfall Amount pursuant to the Co-ownership Undertaking, and such amounts are intended to fund the relevant Dissolution Distribution Amount to be paid by the Trustee under the Certificates of the relevant Series on the Scheduled Dissolution Date.

The Certificates in relation to any Series may be redeemed in whole or in part, as the case may be, prior to the relevant Scheduled Dissolution Date for the following reasons, in the case of each of (ii) and (iii), if so specified in the applicable Pricing Supplement: (i) for taxation reasons; (ii) at the option of PIF; (iii) at the option of the Certificateholders; (iv) if 75 per cent. (75%) or more of the aggregate face amount of Certificates then outstanding have been redeemed and/or purchased and cancelled; and (v) following a Dissolution Event.

In the case of each of (i) to (v) (inclusive) above, such redemption of the Certificates shall be funded in a similar manner as for the payment of the relevant Dissolution Distribution Amount on the Scheduled Dissolution Date, save that, in the case of each of (i), (ii) and (iv), PIF shall have the right under the Sale and Substitution Undertaking to require the Trustee to sell, transfer and assign to it all (or the applicable proportion thereof, as the case may be) of the Trustee’s rights, title, interest, benefits and entitlements in, to and under, the Wakala Assets at the relevant Exercise Price.

For Shari'a reasons, the Optional Dissolution Right and the Certificateholder Put Right cannot both be specified as applicable in the applicable Pricing Supplement in respect of any single Series.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF THE CERTIFICATES

The following are the terms and conditions of the Certificates which, subject to completion and as supplemented by Part A of the applicable Pricing Supplement (as defined below) will be incorporated by reference into each Global Certificate and Definitive Certificate, in the case of Definitive Certificates only if permitted by the relevant stock exchange or other relevant authority (if any) and agreed by the Trustee and the Obligor at the time of issue but, if not so permitted and agreed, each Definitive Certificate will have endorsed thereon or attached thereto such terms and conditions. The applicable Pricing Supplement (or the relevant provisions thereof) will be endorsed upon, or attached to, each Global Certificate and Definitive Certificate. Reference should be made to “applicable Pricing Supplement” for a description of the content of the Pricing Supplement which will specify which of such terms are to apply in relation to the relevant Certificates.

SUCI Second Investment Company (in its capacities as issuer and as trustee, the “Trustee”) has established a programme (the “Programme”) for the issuance of trust certificates (the “Certificates” and each a “Certificate”).

The final terms for a Certificate (or the relevant provisions thereof) are set out in Part A of the applicable Pricing Supplement endorsed on a Certificate which supplement and complete these terms and conditions (the “Conditions”) and may specify other terms and conditions which shall, to the extent so specified or to the extent inconsistent with the Conditions, replace or modify the Conditions for the purposes of each Series. References to the “applicable Pricing Supplement” are to the pricing supplement (or the relevant provisions thereof) endorsed on each Certificate.

Each Certificate will represent an undivided pro rata ownership interest in the relevant Trust Assets (as defined below) held on trust by the Trustee (the “Trust”) for the holders of such Certificates pursuant to: (i) a master declaration of trust (the “Master Declaration of Trust”) dated 16 October 2023 and entered into by the Trustee, the Public Investment Fund (the “Obligor”) and HSBC Bank plc as donee of certain powers and as the Trustee’s delegate (the “Delegate”); and (ii) a supplemental declaration of trust in respect of the relevant Tranche (the “Supplemental Declaration of Trust”, together with the Master Declaration of Trust, the “Declaration of Trust”).

The Certificates of each Series shall form a separate series and these Conditions shall apply mutatis mutandis separately and independently to the Certificates of each Series and, in these Conditions, the expressions “Certificates”, “Certificateholders” and related expressions shall be construed accordingly.

In these Conditions, references to “Certificates” shall be references to the Certificates (whether in global form as a global Certificate (a “Global Certificate”) or in definitive form as definitive Certificates (each a “Definitive Certificate”)) which are the subject of the applicable Pricing Supplement.

These Conditions include summaries of, and are subject to, the detailed provisions of the Master Declaration of Trust as supplemented by each relevant Supplemental Declaration of Trust and the other Transaction Documents. Payments relating to the Certificates will be made pursuant to an agency agreement to be dated 16 October 2023 (the “Agency Agreement”) made between the Trustee, the Delegate, the Obligor, HSBC Bank plc as principal paying agent (in such capacity, the “Principal Paying Agent” and, together with any further or other paying agents appointed from time to time in respect of the Certificates, the “Paying Agents”), calculation agent (together with any further or other calculation agents appointed from time to time in respect of the Certificates, in such capacity, the “Calculation Agent”), transfer agent (together with any further or other transfer agents appointed from time to time in respect of the Certificates, in such capacity, the “Transfer Agent”) and registrar (in such capacity, a “Registrar”). The Paying Agents, the Calculation Agent, the Registrar and the Transfer Agent are together referred to in these Conditions as the “Agents”. References to the Agents or any of them shall include their successors.

The Certificateholders are entitled to the benefit of, are bound by, and are deemed to have notice of the following documents, copies of which, save for (i) schedule 1 to each Supplemental Purchase Agreement and (ii) the schedule to each Sale Agreement (as defined below), are available for inspection and/or collection during usual business hours at the specified office of the Principal Paying Agent:

- (a) a master purchase agreement between the Trustee and the Obligor dated 16 October 2023 (the “Master Purchase Agreement (PIF)”) and, in respect of each Tranche, the supplemental purchase agreement with respect thereto (the “Supplemental Purchase Agreement (PIF)”);
- (b) a master purchase agreement between the Trustee and SUCI First Investment Company (the “Holding SPV”) dated 16 October 2023 (the “Master Purchase Agreement (Holding SPV)”, and together with the Master Purchase Agreement (PIF), the “Master Purchase Agreements”) and, in respect of each Tranche, the supplemental purchase agreement with respect thereto (the “Supplemental Purchase Agreement (Holding SPV)”, and together with the Supplemental Purchase Agreement (PIF), the “Supplemental Purchase Agreements”);
- (c) a service agency agreement between the Trustee, the Obligor and the Delegate dated 16 October 2023 (the “Service Agency Agreement”);
- (d) a purchase undertaking executed by the Obligor in favour of the Trustee and the Delegate dated 16 October 2023 (the “Purchase Undertaking”) (together with each relevant Sale Agreement executed pursuant to the Purchase Undertaking);
- (e) a sale and substitution undertaking executed by the Trustee in favour of the Obligor dated 16 October 2023 (the “Sale and Substitution Undertaking”) (together with each relevant Sale Agreement executed pursuant to the Sale and Substitution Undertaking);
- (f) a co-ownership undertaking executed by the Obligor in favour of the Trustee and the Delegate dated 16 October 2023 (the “Co-Ownership Undertaking”);
- (g) the Master Declaration of Trust and, in respect of each Tranche, the applicable Supplemental Declaration of Trust with respect thereto;
- (h) the Agency Agreement; and
- (i) in respect of each Tranche, the applicable Pricing Supplement, as each may be further amended, restated and/or supplemented from time to time.

Each Certificateholder, by its acquisition and holding of its interest in a Certificate, shall be deemed, in respect of each Series, to authorise and direct the Trustee on behalf of the Certificateholders, to: (i) apply the proceeds of the issue of the Certificates in accordance with the terms of the Transaction Documents; and (ii) enter into, and perform its obligations under and in connection with, each Transaction Document, subject to the terms and conditions of the Master Declaration of Trust as supplemented by the relevant Supplemental Declaration of Trust and these Conditions.

1 Interpretation

Words and expressions defined in the Master Declaration of Trust as supplemented by any relevant Supplemental Declaration of Trust and the Agency Agreement or used in the applicable Pricing Supplement shall have the same meanings where used in these Conditions unless the context otherwise requires or unless otherwise stated and provided that, in the event of any inconsistency between any such document and the applicable Pricing Supplement, the applicable Pricing Supplement will prevail. Title to the Certificates shall pass by registration in the register that the Trustee shall procure to be kept by the Registrar outside the United Kingdom in accordance with the provisions of the Agency Agreement (the “Register”). Each Registered Certificate will be numbered serially with an identifying number which will be recorded on the relevant Registered Certificate and in the Register. Except as ordered by a court of competent jurisdiction or as required by law, the holder (as defined below) of any Certificate shall be deemed to be and may be treated as its absolute owner for all purposes whether or not it is overdue and regardless of any notice of ownership, trust or any interest in it, any writing on the Registered Certificate representing it or the theft or loss of such Registered Certificate and no person shall be liable for so treating the holder. The holder of a Certificate will be recognised by the Trustee as entitled to his Certificate free from any equity, set off or counterclaim on the part of the Trustee against the original or any intermediate holder of such Certificate.

In these Conditions, “Certificateholder” or “holder” means the person in whose name a Certificate is registered.

Upon issue, the Certificates will be represented by a Global Certificate which will be deposited with, and registered in the name of a nominee for, a common depositary for Euroclear Bank SA/NV (Euroclear) and Clearstream Banking, S.A. (Clearstream, Luxembourg). Ownership interests in the Global Certificate will be shown on, and transfers thereof will only be effected through, records maintained by Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg (as applicable), and their respective participants. These Conditions are modified by certain provisions contained in the Global Certificate.

In the case of a transfer of part only of a holding of Certificates represented by one Registered Certificate, a new Registered Certificate shall be issued to the transferee in respect of the part transferred and a further new Registered Certificate in respect of the balance of the holding not transferred shall be issued to the transferor. All transfers of Certificates and entries on the Register will be made subject to the detailed regulations concerning transfers of Certificates scheduled to the Agency Agreement. The regulations may be changed by the Trustee, with the prior written approval of the Registrar and the Certificateholders. A copy of the current regulations will be made available by the Registrar to any Certificateholder upon request.

In the case of a partial exercise of an early dissolution right resulting in Certificates of the same holding having different terms, separate Registered Certificates shall be issued in respect of those Certificates of that holding that have the same terms. New Registered Certificates shall only be issued against surrender of the existing Certificates to the Registrar or any Transfer Agent. In the case of a transfer of Certificates to a person who is already a holder of Certificates, a new Registered Certificate representing the enlarged holding shall only be issued against surrender of the Registered Certificate representing the existing holding.

4 Status and Limited Recourse

(a) Status

Each Certificate will represent an undivided pro rata ownership interest in the relevant Trust Assets (pursuant to the Master Declaration of Trust as supplemented by the relevant Supplemental Declaration of Trust). The Certificates will constitute unconditional, unsubordinated, unsecured limited recourse obligations of the Trustee. Each Certificate will rank pari passu, without preference or priority, with all other Certificates of the relevant Series issued under the Programme.

The payment obligations of the Obligor (acting in any capacity) under the Transaction Documents to which it is a party will constitute unconditional, unsubordinated and unsecured obligations of the Obligor which (save for such exceptions as may be provided by applicable law) shall at all times rank at least pari passu with all its other present and future unsecured and unsubordinated obligations from time to time outstanding.

(b) Limited Recourse

The proceeds of the relevant Trust Assets are the sole source of payments on the Certificates of each Series. Save as provided in this Condition 4, Certificates do not represent an interest in or obligation of any of the Trustee, the Delegate, the Obligor, any of the Agents or any of their respective affiliates. The net proceeds of the realisation of, or enforcement with respect to, the relevant Trust Assets may not be sufficient to make all payments due in respect of the Certificates.

The Obligor is obliged to make payments under the relevant Transaction Documents to which it is a party directly to the Trustee, the Delegate (acting in the name and on behalf of the Trustee) and/or the Agents. The Delegate will, as delegate of the Trustee for the Certificateholders, have recourse against the Obligor to recover payments due to the Trustee from the Obligor pursuant to such Transaction Documents. None of the Trustee, the Delegate and the Agents shall be liable for the late, partial or non-recovery of any such payments from the Obligor save in the case of its wilful default, actual fraud or gross negligence.

(c) Agreement of Certificateholders

By subscribing for or acquiring Certificates, each Certificateholder is deemed to have agreed that notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in these Conditions or any Transaction Document:

- (i) no payment of any amount whatsoever shall be made by any of the Trustee (acting in any capacity), the Obligor (to the extent that it fulfils all of its obligations under the relevant Transaction Documents), the Delegate or any of their respective shareholders, directors, officers, employees or agents on their behalf except to the extent funds are available therefor from the relevant Trust Assets and further acknowledges and agrees that no recourse shall be had for the payment of any amount owing hereunder or under any Transaction Document, whether for the payment of any fee or other amount hereunder or any other obligation or claim arising out of or based upon the Transaction Documents, against the Trustee (acting in any capacity), the Delegate or any of their respective directors, officers, employees or agents to the extent the relevant Trust Assets have been exhausted following which all obligations of the Trustee (acting in any capacity), the Obligor and the Delegate shall be extinguished;
- (ii) the Trustee may not sell, transfer, assign or otherwise dispose of the Trust Assets to a third party, and may only realise its rights, title, interests, benefits and entitlements, present and future, in, to and under the Trust Assets in the manner expressly provided in the Transaction Documents;
- (iii) if the proceeds of the Trust Assets are insufficient to make all payments due in respect of the Certificates, Certificateholders will have no recourse to any assets of the Trustee (other than the Trust Assets in the manner and to the extent contemplated by the Transaction Documents), the Delegate or any of their respective directors, officers, employees, agents, shareholders or affiliates, in each case in respect of any shortfall or otherwise;

The obligations of the Trustee hereunder or any other Transaction Document to which it is a party are corporate or limited liability obligations of the Trustee and no personal liability shall attach to or be incurred by the directors or officers of the Trustee (in their capacity as such), save in the case of their wilful default or actual fraud; and
- (vi) it shall not be entitled to claim or exercise any right of set off, counterclaim, abatement or other similar remedy which it might otherwise have, under the laws of any jurisdiction, in respect of any sums due under the Transaction Documents with respect to any liability owed by it to the Trustee or claim any lien or other rights over any property held by it on behalf of the Trustee.

7 Periodic Distribution Provisions

A Periodic Distribution Amount will be payable in respect of the relevant Certificates and be distributable by the Trustee to the Certificateholders in accordance with these Conditions.

(a) Fixed Rate Certificates Provisions

- (i) This Condition 7(a) is applicable to the Certificates only if the Fixed Rate Certificates Provisions are specified in the applicable Pricing Supplement as being applicable.
- (ii) Each Fixed Rate Certificate bears profit on its outstanding face amount from and including the Profit Commencement Date at the rate per annum (expressed as a percentage) equal to the Profit Rate, such profit being payable in arrear on each Periodic Distribution Date. The amount of profit payable shall be a Fixed Amount, a Broken Amount or an amount determined in accordance with Condition 7(e). Each such amount of profit is referred to in these Conditions as a “Periodic Distribution Amount”.

(b) Floating Rate Certificates Provisions

- (i) This Condition 7(b) is applicable to the Certificates only if the Floating Rate Certificates Provisions are specified in the applicable Pricing Supplement as being applicable.
- (ii) Each Floating Rate Certificate bears profit on its outstanding face amount from and including the Profit Commencement Date at the rate per annum (expressed as a percentage) equal to the Profit Rate, such profit being payable in arrear on each Periodic Distribution Date. The amount of profit payable per Calculation Amount shall be an amount determined in accordance with Condition 7(e). Each such amount of profit is referred to in these Conditions as a “Periodic Distribution Amount”. Such Periodic Distribution Date(s) is/are either shown in the applicable Pricing Supplement as Specified Periodic Distribution Dates or, if no Specified Periodic Distribution Date(s) is/are shown in the applicable Pricing Supplement, Periodic Distribution Date shall mean each date which falls the number of months or other period shown in the applicable Pricing Supplement as the Specified Period after the preceding Periodic Distribution Date or, in the case of the first Periodic Distribution Date, after the Profit Commencement Date.
- (iii) The Profit Rate in respect of Floating Rate Certificates for each Return Accumulation Period shall be determined in the manner specified hereon and the provisions below relating to either ISDA Determination or Screen Rate Determination shall apply, depending upon which is specified hereon.

(iv) ISDA Determination

Where ISDA Determination is specified hereon as the manner in which the Profit Rate is to be determined, the Profit Rate for each Return Accumulation Period shall be determined by the Calculation Agent as a rate equal to the relevant ISDA Rate. For the purposes of this subparagraph (iv), ISDA Rate for a Return Accumulation Period means a rate equal to the Floating Rate that would be determined by the Calculation Agent under a Swap Transaction under the terms of an agreement incorporating the ISDA Definitions and under which:

- (A) if the Pricing Supplement specifies either “2006 ISDA Definitions” or “2021 ISDA Definitions” as the applicable ISDA Definitions:
 - (1) the Floating Rate Option (as defined in the relevant ISDA Definitions) is as specified hereon;
 - (2) the Designated Maturity (as defined in the relevant “ISDA Definitions”) is a period specified hereon;
 - (3) the relevant Reset Date (as defined in the relevant “ISDA Definitions”) is the first day of that Return Accumulation Period unless otherwise specified hereon;

- (4) if the specified Floating Rate Option is an Overnight Floating Rate Option (as defined in the relevant “ISDA Definitions”), Compounding is specified to be applicable hereon and:
 - (I) Compounding with Lookback is specified hereon as the Compounding Method, then (a) Compounding with Lookback is the Overnight Rate Compounding Method and (b) Lookback is the number of Applicable Business Days (as defined in the relevant “ISDA Definitions”) specified hereon;
 - (II) Compounding with Observation Period Shift is specified hereon as the Compounding Method, then (a) Compounding with Observation Period Shift is the Overnight Rate Compounding Method, (b) is the number of Observation Period Shift Business Days (as defined in the relevant ISDA Definitions) specified hereon and (c) Observation Period Shift Additional Business Days (as defined in the relevant “ISDA Definitions”), if applicable, are the days specified hereon; or
 - (III) Compounding with Lockout is specified hereon as the Compounding Method, then (a) Compounding with Lockout is the Overnight Rate Compounding Method, (b) Lockout is the number of Lockout Period Business Days (as defined in the relevant “ISDA Definitions”) specified hereon and (c) Lockout Period Business Days (as defined in the relevant ISDA Definitions), if applicable, are the days specified hereon;
- (5) if the specified Floating Rate Option is an Index Floating Rate Option (as defined in the relevant ISDA Definitions) and Index Provisions are specified to be applicable hereon, the Compounded Index Method with Observation Period Shift shall be applicable and, (a) Observation Period Shift is the number of Observation Period Shift Business Days (as defined in the relevant “ISDA Definitions”) specified hereon and (b) Observation Period Shift Additional Business Days (as defined in the relevant “ISDA Definitions”) are the days, if applicable, specified hereon; and
- (6) references in the relevant ISDA Definitions to:
 - (I) “Confirmation” shall be deemed to be references to the applicable Pricing Supplement;
 - (II) “Calculation Period” shall be deemed to be references to the relevant Return Accumulation Period; or
 - (III) “Termination Date” shall be deemed to be references to the Maturity Date; and
 - (IV) “Effective Date” shall be deemed to be references to the Profit Commencement Date; and
- (B) if the Pricing Supplement specifies “2021 ISDA Definitions” as the applicable ISDA Definitions:
 - (1) Administrator/Benchmark Event shall be disappplied; and

- (2) if the Temporary Non-Publication Fallback for any specified Floating Rate Option is specified to be “Temporary Non- Publication Fallback – Alternative Rate” in the Floating Rate Matrix of the 2021 ISDA Definitions, the reference to “Calculation Agent Alternative Rate Determination” in the definition of “Temporary Non-Publication Fallback – Alternative Rate” shall be replaced by “Temporary Non-Publication Fallback – Previous Day’s Rate”.

(v) Screen Rate Determination

- (A) Subject to Condition 7(b)(vii), where Screen Rate Determination is specified hereon as the manner in which the Profit Rate is to be determined, the Profit Rate for each Return Accumulation Period will, subject as provided below, be either:

- (1) the offered quotation; or
- (2) the arithmetic mean of the offered quotations;

(expressed as a percentage rate per annum) for the Reference Rate which appears or appear, as the case may be, on the Relevant Screen Page as at the Relevant Time on the Profit Rate Determination Date in question as determined by the Calculation Agent. If five or more of such offered quotations are available on the Relevant Screen Page, the highest (or, if there is more than one such highest quotation, one only of such quotations) and the lowest (or, if there is more than one such lowest quotation, one only of such quotations) shall be disregarded by the Calculation Agent for the purpose of determining the arithmetic mean of such offered quotations;

- (y) if the Relevant Screen Page is not available or, if sub-paragraph (B)(1) applies and no such offered quotation appears on the Relevant Screen Page or if sub-paragraph (B)(2) applies and fewer than three such offered quotations appear on the Relevant Screen Page, in each case as at the Relevant Time, subject as provided below, the Trustee shall request, the principal Relevant Financial Centre office of each of the Reference Banks to provide the Calculation Agent with its offered quotation (expressed as a percentage rate per annum) for the Reference Rate at the Relevant Time on the Profit Rate Determination Date in question. If two or more of the Reference Banks provide the Trustee with such offered quotations, the Profit Rate for such Return Accumulation Period shall be the arithmetic mean of such offered quotations as determined by the Calculation Agent; and

- (B) if paragraph (y) above applies and the Trustee determines that fewer than two Reference Banks are providing offered quotations, subject as provided below, the Profit Rate shall be the arithmetic mean of the rates per annum (expressed as a percentage) as communicated to (and at the request of) the Trustee by the Reference Banks or any two or more of them, at which such banks were offered at the Relevant Time on the relevant Profit Rate Determination Date, deposits in the Specified Currency for a period equal to that which would have been used for the Reference Rate by leading banks in the Relevant Financial Centre inter-bank market or, if fewer than two of the Reference Banks provide the Trustee with such offered rates, the offered rate for deposits in the Specified Currency for a period equal to that which would have been used for the Reference Rate, or the arithmetic mean of the offered rates for deposits in the Specified Currency for a period equal to that which would have been used for the Reference Rate, at which, the Relevant Time on the relevant Profit Rate Determination Date, any one or more banks (which bank or banks is or are in the opinion of the Trustee suitable for such purpose) informs the Trustee it is quoting to leading banks in the Relevant Financial Centre inter-bank market, provided that, if the Profit Rate cannot be determined in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this paragraph, the Profit Rate shall be determined as at the last preceding Profit Rate Determination Date (though substituting, where a different Margin or Maximum or Minimum Profit Rate is to be applied to the relevant Return Accumulation Period from that which applied to the last preceding Return Accumulation Period, the Margin or Maximum or Minimum Profit Rate relating to the relevant Return Accumulation Period, in place of the Margin or Maximum or Minimum Profit Rate relating to that last preceding Return Accumulation Period).

(vi) Linear Interpolation

Where Linear Interpolation is specified hereon as applicable in respect of a Return Accumulation Period, the Profit Rate for such Return Accumulation Period shall be calculated by the Calculation Agent by straight line linear interpolation by reference to two rates based on the relevant Reference Rate (where Screen Rate Determination is specified hereon as applicable) or the relevant Floating Rate Option (where ISDA Determination is specified hereon as applicable), one of which shall be determined as if the Applicable Maturity were the period of time for which rates are available next shorter than the length of the relevant Return Accumulation Period and the other of which shall be determined as if the Applicable Maturity were the period of time for which rates are available next longer than the length of the relevant Return Accumulation Period provided however that if there is no rate available for the period of time next shorter or, as the case may be, next longer, then the Calculation Agent shall determine such rate at such time and by reference to such sources as it determines appropriate.

“Applicable Maturity” means: (a) in relation to Screen Rate Determination, the period of time designated in the Reference Rate, and (b) in relation to ISDA Determination, the Designated Maturity.

(vii) Benchmark Replacement (Independent Adviser)

- (A) If a Benchmark Event occurs in relation to an Original Reference Rate when any Profit Rate (or any component part thereof) for any Return Accumulation Period remains to be determined by reference to such Reference Rate, then the Trustee and/or the Obligor shall use its reasonable endeavours to appoint an Independent Adviser, as soon as reasonably practicable, to determine a Successor Rate, failing which an Alternative Rate (in accordance with Condition 7(b)(vii)(C)) and, in either case, an Adjustment Spread, if any (in accordance with Condition 7(b)(vii)(D)) and any Benchmark Amendments (in accordance with Condition 7(b)(vii)(E)).
- (B) In making such determination, an Independent Adviser appointed pursuant to this Condition 7(b)(vii) shall act in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner as an expert. In the absence of bad faith, wilful default or fraud, the Independent Adviser shall have no liability whatsoever to the Trustee and/or the Obligor, the Delegate, the Agents or the Certificateholders for any determination made by it pursuant to this Condition 7(b)(vii) and the Delegate will not be liable for any loss, liability, cost, charge or expense which may arise as a result thereof.

- (C) If the Independent Adviser determines that:
- (1) there is a Successor Rate, then such Successor Rate and the applicable Adjustment Spread shall subsequently be used in place of the Original Reference Rate to determine the Profit Rate (or the relevant component part(s) thereof) for the relevant Return Accumulation Period and all following Return Accumulation Periods (subject to the subsequent operation of Condition 7(b)(vii)); or
 - (2) there is no Successor Rate but that there is an Alternative Rate, then such Alternative Rate and the applicable Adjustment Spread shall subsequently be used in place of the Original Reference Rate to determine the Profit Rate (or the relevant component part(s) thereof) for the relevant Return Accumulation Period and all following Return Accumulation Periods (subject to the subsequent operation of this Condition 7(b)(vii)).
- (D) The Adjustment Spread (or a formula or methodology for determining the Adjustment Spread) shall be applied to the Successor Rate or the Alternative Rate (as the case may be). If the Independent Adviser is unable to determine the quantum of, or a formula or methodology for determining, such Adjustment Spread, then the Successor Rate or Alternative Rate (as applicable) will apply without an Adjustment Spread.
- (E) If any relevant Successor Rate, Alternative Rate and, in either case, the applicable Adjustment Spread is determined in accordance with this Condition 7(b)(vii) and the Independent Adviser determines that: (i) amendments to these Conditions, the Declaration of Trust and/or the Agency Agreement including, but not limited to amendments to the Day Count Fraction, Relevant Screen Page, Business Day Convention, Profit Rate Determination Date, the definition of Business Days, and/or the definition of Reference Rate applicable to the Certificates are necessary to ensure the proper operation of such Successor Rate or Alternative Rate and/or (in either case) the applicable Adjustment Spread (such amendments, the “Benchmark Amendments”); and (ii) the terms of the Benchmark Amendments, then the Trustee shall, subject to giving notice thereof in accordance with Condition 7(b)(vii)(G) and a certificate in accordance with Condition 7(b)(vii)(H), without any requirement for the consent or approval of relevant Certificateholders, vary these Conditions, the Declaration of Trust and/or the Agency Agreement to give effect to such Benchmark Amendments with effect from the date specified in such notice. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Condition 7(b)(vii), none of the Delegate, the Paying Agents or the Calculation Agent shall be obliged to concur with the Trustee, the Obligor or the Independent Adviser in respect of any changes or amendments as contemplated under this Condition 7(b)(vii) which would impose more onerous obligations upon it or expose it to any liability against which it is not adequately indemnified and/or secured and/or prefunded to its satisfaction or impose any additional duties, responsibilities or liabilities or reduce or amend its rights and/or the protective provisions afforded to it. In connection with any such variation in accordance with this Condition 7(b)(vii), the Trustee shall comply with the rules of any stock exchange on which the Certificates are for the time being listed or admitted to trading.
- (F) If: (A) the Trustee and/or the Obligor is unable to appoint an Independent Adviser; or (B) the Independent Adviser appointed by it fails to determine a Successor Rate or, failing which, an Alternative Rate in accordance with this Condition 7(b)(vii) prior to the date which is 10 business days prior to the relevant Profit Rate Determination Date, the Profit Rate applicable to the next succeeding Return Accumulation Period shall be equal to the Profit Rate last determined in relation to the Certificates in respect of the immediately preceding Return Accumulation Period. If there has not been a first Periodic Distribution Date, the Profit Rate shall be the initial Profit Rate. Where a different Margin or Maximum or Minimum Profit Rate is to be applied to the relevant Return Accumulation Period from that which applied to the last preceding Return Accumulation Period, the Margin or Maximum or Minimum Profit Rate relating to the relevant Return Accumulation Period shall be substituted in place of the Margin or Maximum or Minimum Profit Rate relating to that last preceding Return Accumulation Period. For the avoidance of doubt, this paragraph shall apply to the relevant next succeeding Return Accumulation Period only and any subsequent Return Accumulation Periods are subject to the subsequent operation of, and to adjustment as provided in, the first paragraph of this Condition 7(b)(vii). For the purposes of this Condition 7(b)(vii)(F) and Condition 7(b)(vii)(G) only, “business day” means a day, other than a Saturday or Sunday, on which banks are open for business in the place of the specified office of the Calculation Agent.

- (G) Any Successor Rate, Alternative Rate, Adjustment Spread and the specific terms of any Benchmark Amendments, determined under this Condition 7(b)(vii) will be notified at least 10 business days prior to the relevant Profit Rate Determination Date by the Trustee and/or the Obligor to the Delegate, the Calculation Agent, the Paying Agents. In accordance with Condition 16, notice shall be provided to the Certificateholders promptly thereafter.
- (H) No later than notifying the Delegate of the same, the Trustee shall deliver to the Delegate and the Agents a certificate signed by two authorised signatories of the Trustee:
- (1) confirming: (w) that a Benchmark Event has occurred; (x) the relevant Successor Rate, or, as the case may be, the relevant Alternative Rate; and (y) the applicable Adjustment Spread and (z) the specific terms of the Benchmark Amendments (if any), in each case as determined in accordance with the provisions of this Condition 7(b)(vii); and
 - (2) certifying that: the Benchmark Amendments (if any) are necessary to ensure the proper operation of such relevant Successor Rate or Alternative Rate and (in either case) the applicable Adjustment Spread; and
 - (3) certifying that (i) the Trustee has duly consulted with an Independent Adviser with respect to each of the matters above or, if that is not the case, (ii) explaining, in reasonable detail, why the Trustee has not done so.

Such certificate shall be available for inspection by the Certificateholders at all reasonable times during normal business hours (i) at the principal office of the Principal Paying Agent and/or (ii) in electronic form from the Principal Paying Agent upon Certificateholder request.

The Delegate and the Agents shall be entitled to rely on such certificate (without further enquiry and without liability to any person) as sufficient evidence thereof.

The Successor Rate or Alternative Rate and the Adjustment Spread and the Benchmark Amendments (if any) specified in such certificate will (in the absence of manifest error or bad faith in the determination of such Successor Rate or Alternative Rate and such Adjustment Spread and such Benchmark Amendments (if any)) and without prejudice to the Delegate and the Agents' ability to rely on such certificate as aforesaid) be binding on the Trustee and the Obligor, the Delegate and Principal Paying Agent, the Calculation Agent, the other Paying Agents and the Certificateholders.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this Condition 7, if following the determination of any Successor Rate, Alternative Rate, Adjustment Spread or Benchmark Amendments (if any), in the Calculation Agent's opinion there is any uncertainty between two or more alternative courses of action in making any determination or calculation under this Condition 7, the Calculation Agent shall promptly notify the Trustee and the Obligor thereof and the Trustee and the Obligor shall direct the Calculation Agent in writing as to which alternative course of action to adopt. If the Calculation Agent is not promptly provided with such direction, or is otherwise unable (other than due to its own gross negligence, wilful default or fraud) to make such calculation or determination for any reason, it shall notify the Trustee and the Obligor thereof and the Calculation Agent shall be under no obligation to make such calculation or determination and (in the absence of such gross negligence, wilful default or fraud) shall not incur any liability for not doing so.

- (I) Without prejudice to the obligations of the Trustee and the Obligor under Conditions 7(b)(iii)(A)-(D), the Original Reference Rate and the fallback provisions provided for in Conditions 7(b)(iv)(A) and 7(b)(iv)(B) will continue to apply unless and until a Benchmark Event has occurred.
- (J) As used in these Conditions:

“Adjustment Spread” means either (a) a spread (which may be positive, negative or zero), or (b) a formula or methodology for calculating a spread, in each case to be applied to the Successor Rate or the Alternative Rate (as the case may be) and is the spread, formula or methodology which:

- (1) in the case of a Successor Rate, is formally recommended, in relation to the replacement of the Original Reference Rate with the Successor Rate by any Relevant Nominating Body; or (if no such recommendation has been made, or in the case of an Alternative Rate)
- (2) the Independent Adviser determines is customarily applied to the relevant Successor Rate or Alternative Rate (as the case may be) in international debt capital markets transactions to produce an industry-accepted replacement rate for the Original Reference Rate; or (if the Independent Adviser determines that no such spread is customarily applied)
- (3) the Independent Adviser determines, is recognised or acknowledged as being the industry standard for over-the-counter derivative transactions which reference the Original Reference Rate, where such rate has been replaced by the Successor Rate or the Alternative Rate (as the case may be).

“Alternative Rate” means an alternative benchmark or screen rate which the Independent Adviser (following consultation with the Obligor) determines in accordance with this Condition 7(b)(vii)(I) is customary applied in international debt capital markets transactions for the purposes of determining floating profit rates (or the relevant component part thereof) in the same Specified Currency as the Certificates;

“Benchmark Amendments” has the meaning given to it in Condition 7(b)(vii)(E);

“Benchmark Event” means:

- (1) the Original Reference Rate ceasing to be published for a period of at least 5 Business Days or ceasing to exist; or
- (2) a public statement or publication of information by the administrator of the Original Reference Rate that it has ceased or that it will cease publishing the Original Reference Rate permanently or indefinitely (in circumstances where no successor administrator has been appointed that will continue publication of the Original Reference Rate); or
- (3) a public statement or publication of information by the supervisor of the administrator of the Original Reference Rate that the Original Reference Rate has been or will be permanently or indefinitely discontinued; or
- (4) a public statement by the supervisor of the administrator of the Original Reference Rate as a consequence of which the Original Reference Rate will be prohibited from being used either generally, or in respect of the Certificates; or
- (5) a public statement by the supervisor of the administrator of the Original Reference Rate that the Original Reference Rate is or will be (or is or will be deemed by such supervisor to be) no longer representative of its relevant underlying market; or
- (6) it has become unlawful for any Paying Agent, the Calculation Agent, the Issuer or other party to calculate any payments due to be made to any Certificateholder using the Original Reference Rate, provided that the Benchmark Event shall be deemed to occur (a) in the case of sub-paragraphs (1) and (3) above, on the date of the cessation of publication of the Original Reference Rate or the discontinuation of the Original Reference Rate, as the case may be, (b) in the case of sub-paragraph (iv) above, on the date of the prohibition of use of the Original Reference Rate and (c) in the case of sub-paragraph (5) above, on the date with effect from which the Original Reference Rate will no longer be (or will be deemed by the relevant supervisor to no longer be) representative of its relevant underlying market and which is specified in the relevant public statement, and, in each case, not the date of the relevant public statement.

The occurrence of a Benchmark Event shall be determined by the Trustee and promptly notified to the Agents. For the avoidance of doubt, none of the Agents nor the Delegate shall have any responsibility for making such determination.

“Independent Adviser” means an independent financial institution of international repute or an independent financial adviser with appropriate expertise appointed by the Trustee or the Obligor under Condition 7(b)(vii)(A);

“Relevant Nominating Body” means, in respect of a benchmark or screen rate (as applicable):

- (2) any working group or committee sponsored by, chaired or co-chaired by or constituted at the request of: (a) the central bank for the currency to which the benchmark or screen rate (as applicable) relates; (b) any central bank or other supervisory authority which is responsible for supervising the administrator of the benchmark or screen rate (as applicable); (c) a group of the aforementioned central banks or other supervisory authorities; or (d) the Financial Stability Board or any part thereof; and “Successor Rate” means a successor to or replacement of the Original Reference Rate which is formally recommended by any Relevant Nominating Body.

(c) Payment in Arrear

Subject to Condition 7(g), Condition 9(b), Condition 9(c), and Condition 13, and unless otherwise specified in the applicable Pricing Supplement, each Periodic Distribution Amount will be paid in respect of the relevant Certificates in arrear on each Periodic Distribution Date specified in the applicable Pricing Supplement.

(d) Margin, Maximum or Minimum Profit Rate and Rounding

If any Margin is specified hereon (either (x) generally, or (y) in relation to one or more Return Accumulation Periods), an adjustment shall be made to all Profit Rates, in the case of (x), or the Profit Rates for the specified Return Accumulation Periods, in the case of (y), calculated in accordance with Condition 7(b) by adding (if a positive number) or subtracting the absolute value (if a negative number) of such Margin subject always to the next paragraph.

If any Maximum or Minimum Profit Rate is specified hereon, then any Profit Rate Amount shall be subject to such maximum or minimum, as the case may be.

For the purposes of any calculations required pursuant to these Conditions (unless otherwise specified), (x) all percentages resulting from such calculations shall be rounded, if necessary, to the nearest one hundred-thousandth of a percentage point (with 0.000005 of a percentage point being rounded up), (y) all figures shall be rounded to seven significant figures (provided that if the eighth significant figure is a 5 or greater, the seventh significant figure shall be rounded up) and (z) all currency amounts that fall due and payable shall be rounded to the nearest unit of such currency (with half a unit being rounded up), save in the case of yen, which shall be rounded down to the nearest yen. For these purposes unit means the lowest amount of such currency that is available as legal tender in the country or countries of such currency.

(e) Calculation of Periodic Distribution Amount

The Periodic Distribution Amount payable per Calculation Amount in respect of any Certificate for any Return Accumulation Period shall be equal to the product of the Profit Rate, the Calculation Amount specified hereon, and the Day Count Fraction for such Return Accumulation Period, unless a Periodic Distribution Amount (or a formula for its calculation) is applicable to such Return Accumulation Period, in which case the amount of profit payable per Calculation Amount in respect of such Certificate for such Return Accumulation Period shall equal such Periodic Distribution Amount (or be calculated in accordance with such formula). In respect of any other period for which profit is required to be calculated, the provisions above shall apply save that the Day Count Fraction shall be for the period for which period is required to be calculated.

(f) Determination and Publication of Profit Rates, Periodic Distribution Amounts and Dissolution Distribution Amounts

The Calculation Agent shall, as soon as practicable on each Profit Rate Determination Date, or at such other time on such date as the Calculation Agent may be required to calculate any rate or amount, make any determination or calculation, determine such rate and calculate the Periodic Distribution Amounts for the relevant Return Accumulation Period, calculate the relevant Dissolution Distribution Amount or make such determination or calculation, as the case may be, and cause the Profit Rate and the Periodic Distribution Amounts for each Return Accumulation Period and the relevant Periodic Distribution Date and, if required to be calculated, the relevant Dissolution Distribution Amount to be notified to the Delegate, the Trustee, the Obligor, each of the Paying Agents, the Certificateholders in accordance with Condition 16 and any other Calculation Agent appointed in respect of the Certificates that is to make a further calculation upon receipt of such information and, if the Certificates are listed and/or admitted to trading on a stock exchange and the rules of such exchange or other relevant authority so require, the Obligor will cause such rates and amounts to be notified to such exchange or other relevant authority, in either case as soon as possible after their determination but in no event later than: (i) the commencement of the relevant Return Accumulation Period, if determined prior to such time, in the case of notification to such exchange or authority of a Profit Rate and Periodic Distribution Amount; or (ii) in all other cases, the fourth Business Day after such determination. Where any Periodic Distribution Date is subject to adjustment pursuant to Condition 7(h), the Periodic Distribution Amounts and the Periodic Distribution Date so published may subsequently be amended (or appropriate alternative arrangements made by way of adjustment) without notice in the event of an extension or shortening of the Return Accumulation Period. If the Certificates become due and payable under Condition 13, the accrued profit and the Profit Rate payable in respect of the Certificates shall nevertheless continue to be calculated as previously in accordance with this Condition but no publication of the Profit Rate or the Periodic Distribution Amount so calculated need be made. The determination of any rate or amount and the making of each determination or calculation by the Calculation Agent(s) shall (in the absence of manifest error) be final and binding upon all parties.

(g) Cessation of Profit Entitlement

No further amounts will be payable on any Certificate from and including the relevant Dissolution Date, unless default is made in the payment of the relevant Dissolution Amount in which case Periodic Distribution Amounts will continue to accrue in respect of the Certificates in the manner provided in this Condition 7 to the earlier of: (i) the Relevant Date; or (ii) the date on which a Sale Agreement is executed in accordance with the terms of the Purchase Undertaking or the Sale and Substitution Undertaking, as the case may be.

(h) Business Day Convention

If any date referred to in these Conditions that is specified to be subject to adjustment in accordance with a Business Day Convention would otherwise fall on a day that is not a Business Day, then, if the Business Day Convention specified is (A) the “Floating Rate Business Day Convention”, such date shall be postponed to the next day that is a Business Day unless it would thereby fall into the next calendar month, in which event (x) such date shall be brought forward to the immediately preceding Business Day and (y) each subsequent such date shall be the last Business Day of the month in which such date would have fallen had it not been subject to adjustment, (B) the “Following Business Day Convention”, such date shall be postponed to the next day that is a Business Day, (C) the “Modified Following Business Day Convention” such date shall be postponed to the next day that is a Business Day unless it would thereby fall into the next calendar month, in which event such date shall be brought forward to the immediately preceding Business Day or (D) the “Preceding Business Day Convention”, such date shall be brought forward to the immediately preceding Business Day.

(i) Calculation Agent

The Trustee shall procure that there shall at all times be one or more Calculation Agents if provision is made for them hereon and for so long as any Certificate is outstanding (as defined in the Agency Agreement). Where more than one Calculation Agent is appointed in respect of the Certificates, references in these Conditions to the Calculation Agent shall be construed as each Calculation Agent performing its respective duties under these Conditions. If the Calculation Agent is unable or unwilling to act as such or if the Calculation Agent fails duly to establish the Profit Rate for an Return Accumulation Period or to calculate any Periodic Distribution Amount or any Dissolution Distribution Amount, as the case may be, or to comply with any other requirement, the Trustee shall appoint a leading bank or financial institution engaged in the interbank market (or, if appropriate, money, swap or over-the-counter index options market) that is most closely connected with the calculation or determination to be made by the Calculation Agent (acting through its principal London office or any other office actively involved in such market) to act as such in its place, and the Calculation Agent shall be under no obligation to act or make such calculation or determination and shall not incur any liability in respect thereof. The Calculation Agent may not resign its duties without a successor having been appointed in accordance with the provisions of the Agency Agreement.

8 Payment

(a) Payments in respect of Certificates

Subject to Condition 7, payment of each Periodic Distribution Amount and the relevant Dissolution Amount will be made by the relevant Paying Agent in the Specified Currency, by wire transfer in same day funds to the registered account of each Certificateholder. Payments of the relevant Dissolution Amount will only be made against surrender of the relevant Certificate, where the Certificate is in definitive form, at the specified office of the relevant Paying Agent at the close of business on the fifteenth day before the due date for payment thereof (the “Record Date”). Payments of the relevant Dissolution Amount and each Periodic Distribution Amount in respect of the Global Certificate will be paid to the holder shown on the Register at the close of business on the relevant record date, being the Clearing System Business Day immediately prior to the date for payment, where “Clearing System Business Day” means Monday to Friday inclusive, except 25 December and 1 January.

For the purposes of these Conditions:

- (i) a Certificateholder’s registered account means an account denominated in the Specified Currency maintained by or on behalf of it with a bank that processes payments in the Specified Currency, details of which appear on the Register at the close of business on the relevant Record Date; and
- (i) a Certificateholder’s registered address means its address appearing on the Register at that time.

(b) Payments subject to Applicable Laws

All payments are subject in all cases to: (i) any applicable fiscal or other laws, regulations and directives in the place of payment, but without prejudice to the provisions of this Condition 8; and (ii) any withholding or deduction required pursuant to an agreement described in Section 1471(b) of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (as amended, the “Code”) or otherwise imposed pursuant to Sections 1471 through 1474 of the Code, any regulations or agreements thereunder, official interpretations thereof, or (without prejudice to the provisions of Condition 10) any law implementing an intergovernmental approach thereto. No commission or expenses shall be charged to the Certificateholders in respect of such payments.

(c) Payment only on a Payment Business Day

Payment instructions (for value the due date or, if that is not a Payment Business Day, for value the first following day which is a Payment Business Day) will be initiated by the relevant Paying Agent, on the due date for payment or, in the case of a payment of the relevant Dissolution Amount, if later, on the Business Day on which the relevant Certificate is surrendered at the specified office of the relevant Paying Agent.

Certificateholders will not be entitled to any additional Periodic Distribution Amount, Dissolution Amount or other payment for any delay after the due date in receiving the amount due if the due date is not a Payment Business Day, if the relevant Certificateholder is late in surrendering his Certificate (if required to do so).

If the relevant Dissolution Amount or any Periodic Distribution Amount is not paid in full when due, the relevant Registrar will annotate the Register with a record of the amount actually paid.

(d) Agents

In acting under the Agency Agreement and in connection with the Certificates, the Agents act solely as agents of the Trustee and (to the extent provided in the Master Declaration of Trust and the Agency Agreement) the Delegate and do not assume any obligations towards or relationship of agency or trust for or with any of the Certificateholders or any other party to the Transaction Documents.

The names of the initial Agents and their initial specified offices are set out in this Condition 8(d). The Trustee reserves the right at any time to vary or terminate the appointment of any Agent and/or to appoint additional or other Agents provided that: (i) it will at all times maintain a Principal Paying Agent and a Registrar (which may be the same entity); and (ii) so long as any Certificates are admitted to listing, trading and/or quotation on any listing authority, stock exchange and/or quotation system, there will at all times be a Paying Agent and a Transfer Agent having its specified office in such place (if any) as may be required by the rules of such listing authority, stock exchange and/or quotation system.

Notice of any such change or any change of any Specified Office shall be given to the Trustee, the Delegate and the Certificateholders in accordance with the provisions of the Agency Agreement.

9 Capital Distributions of the Trust

(a) Dissolution on the relevant Scheduled Dissolution Date

Unless the Certificates are previously redeemed, or purchased and cancelled, in full the Trustee will redeem the Certificates at the relevant Dissolution Distribution Amount and the Trust will be dissolved by the Trustee on the relevant Scheduled Dissolution Date as specified in the applicable Pricing Supplement, following the payment of such amount in full.

(b) Dissolution for Tax Reasons

If a Tax Event occurs, where “Tax Event” means:

- (i) (1) the Trustee has or will become obliged to pay additional amounts as described in Condition 10 as a result of any change in, or amendment to, the laws or regulations of a Relevant Jurisdiction or any change in the application or official interpretation of such laws or regulations, which change or amendment becomes effective on or after the date on which agreement is reached to issue the first Tranche of the relevant Series; and (2) such obligation cannot be avoided by the Trustee taking reasonable measures available to it; or

- (ii) (1) the Trustee has received notice from the Obligor that it has or will become obliged to pay additional amounts pursuant to the terms of any Transaction Document as a result of any change in, or amendment to, the laws or regulations of a Relevant Jurisdiction or any change in the application or official interpretation of such laws or regulations, which change or amendment becomes effective on or after the date on which agreement is reached to issue the first Tranche of the relevant Series; and (2) such obligation cannot be avoided by the Obligor taking reasonable measures available to it, the Trustee shall, upon receipt of a duly completed Exercise Notice from the Obligor in accordance with the Sale and Substitution Undertaking, redeem the Certificates in whole, but not in part, at any time (if the Certificates are Fixed Rate Certificates) or on any Periodic Distribution Date (if the Certificates are Floating Rate Certificates) (such dissolution date being a “Tax Dissolution Date”), on giving not less than the Minimum Notice Period nor more than the Maximum Notice Period notice to the Certificateholders in accordance with Condition 16 (which notice shall be irrevocable) at the relevant Tax Dissolution Amount, provided that no such notice of dissolution shall be given earlier than 90 days prior to the earliest date on which (in the case of paragraph (i) above) the Trustee would be obliged to pay such additional amounts if a payment in respect of the Certificates were then due, or (in the case of paragraph (ii) above) the Obligor would be obliged to pay such additional amounts if a payment to the Trustee under the relevant Transaction Document was then due.

Prior to the publication by or on behalf of the Trustee of any notice to Certificateholders pursuant to this Condition 9(b), the Obligor shall deliver to the Trustee and the Delegate: (x) a certificate signed by two authorised signatories of the Trustee (or the Obligor, as the case may be) stating that the Trustee is entitled to effect such redemption and settling forth a statement of facts showing that the conditions precedent to the right of the Trustee so to redeem have occurred; and (y) an opinion of independent legal or tax advisers of recognised standing to the effect either that the Trustee or the Obligor, as the case may be, has or will become obliged to pay such additional amounts as a result of such change or amendment. The Delegate shall be entitled to rely on such certificate (without further enquiry and without liability to any person) as sufficient evidence thereof.

Upon the expiry of any such notice to Certificateholders as is referred to above and payment in full of the relevant Tax Dissolution Amount to Certificateholders, the Trustee shall be bound to dissolve the Trust.

(c) Dissolution at the Option of the Obligor

If the Optional Dissolution Right is specified in the applicable Pricing Supplement, the Trustee shall, upon receipt of a duly completed Exercise Notice from the Obligor in accordance with the Sale and Substitution Undertaking, on giving not less than the Minimum Notice Period nor more than the Maximum Notice Period to the relevant Certificateholders in accordance with Condition 16, redeem all or, if so specified in such notice, some only of the Certificates at the relevant Optional Dissolution Amount on the Optional Dissolution Date specified in such notice in accordance with this Condition 9(c).

Any such redemption or exercise must relate to Certificates of a face amount at least equal to the Minimum Optional Dissolution Amount to be redeemed and no greater than the Maximum Optional Dissolution Amount to be redeemed (in each case as specified in the applicable Pricing Supplement).

If all (and not some only) of the Certificates are to be redeemed on any Optional Dissolution Date in accordance with this Condition 9(c), upon payment in full of the relevant Optional Dissolution Amount to all Certificateholders, the Trustee shall be bound to dissolve the Trust.

In the case of a partial redemption, the notice to the relevant Certificateholders shall also specify the face amount of Certificates drawn and the holder(s) of such Certificates to be redeemed, which shall have been drawn in such place and in such manner as may be fair and reasonable in the circumstances, taking account of prevailing market practices, subject to compliance with any applicable laws and stock exchange or other relevant authority requirements.

The Optional Dissolution Right and the Certificateholder Put Right may not both be specified as applicable in the applicable Pricing Supplement in respect of any Series.

The Optional Dissolution Right can be used to give effect to, inter alia, an optional dissolution right at par during a period (as specified in the applicable Pricing Supplement) prior to the Scheduled Dissolution Date (also known as a 'maturity par call').

(d) Certificateholder Put Right

If the Certificateholder Put Right is specified in the applicable Pricing Supplement, the Trustee shall, at the option of any Certificateholder, upon such holder giving not less than the Minimum Notice Period nor more than the Maximum Notice Period notice to the Trustee, upon the expiry of such notice, redeem such Certificates on the Certificateholder Put Right Date at the relevant Certificateholder Put Right Dissolution Amount. If all (and not some only) of the Certificates are to be redeemed on any Certificateholder Put Right Date in accordance with this Condition 9(d), upon payment in full of the relevant Certificateholder Put Right Dissolution Amount to all Certificateholders, the Trustee shall be bound to dissolve the Trust.

To exercise the right in this Condition 9(d), the relevant holder must, if such Certificates are in definitive form and held outside Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg, deposit its Certificate(s), on any business day in the city of the specified office of the Principal Paying Agent falling within the notice period, with the Principal Paying Agent, giving notice to the Principal Paying Agent of such exercise (a “Certificateholder Put Right Notice”) in the form obtainable from any Paying Agent, the Registrar or any Transfer Agent (as applicable). If Certificates are represented by a Global Certificate or are in definitive form and held through Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg, then in order to exercise the right in this Condition 9(d), a Certificateholder must, within the notice period, give notice to a Paying Agent of such exercise in accordance with the standard procedures of Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg in a form acceptable to the relevant clearing system from time to time (which shall, if acceptable to the relevant clearing system, be in the form of a duly completed Certificateholder Put Right Notice in the form set out in the Agency Agreement and obtainable from any Paying Agent, the Registrar or any Transfer Agent) and, if this Certificate is represented by a Global Certificate, at the same time present or procure the presentation of the relevant Global Certificate to a Paying Agent for notation or entry in the Register accordingly.

Any Certificateholder Put Right Notice or other notice given in accordance with the standard procedures of Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg by a holder of any Certificates pursuant to this Condition 9(d) shall be irrevocable except where, prior to the due date of redemption, a Dissolution Event has occurred and the Delegate has declared the Certificates due and payable pursuant to Condition 13, in which event such holder, at its option, may elect by notice to the Trustee to withdraw the notice given pursuant to this Condition 9(d).

The Certificateholder Put Right and the Optional Dissolution Right may not both be specified in the applicable Pricing Supplement in respect of any Series.

(e) Clean Up Call Right

If 75 per cent. or more of the aggregate face amount of Certificates then outstanding have been redeemed and/or purchased and cancelled pursuant to this Condition 9 and/or Condition 12, as the case may be, the Trustee shall, upon receipt of a duly completed Exercise Notice from the Obligor in accordance with the Sale and Substitution Undertaking, on giving not less than the Minimum Notice Period nor more than the Maximum Notice Period to the Certificateholders in accordance with Condition 16, redeem all (but not some only) of the Certificates at the Clean Up Call Right Dissolution Amount on the date specified in such notice (such dissolution date being a “Clean Up Call Right Dissolution Date”). Upon payment in full of the relevant Clean Up Call Right Dissolution Amount to the Certificateholders, the Trustee shall be bound to dissolve the Trust.

(f) Dissolution following a Dissolution Event

Upon the occurrence of a Dissolution Event which is continuing, the Certificates may be redeemed at the Dissolution Distribution Amount on the Dissolution Event Redemption Date, if the relevant conditions set out in Condition 13 are satisfied, and the Trust will be dissolved by the Trustee.

(g) No other Dissolution

The Trustee shall not be entitled to redeem the Certificates, and the Trustee shall not be entitled to dissolve the Trust otherwise than as provided in this Condition 9, Condition 12 and Condition 13.

(h) Effect of payment in full of Dissolution Amount

Upon payment in full of all amounts due and payable in respect of the Certificates of any Series and the dissolution of the Trust as provided for in this Condition 9 or Condition 13 (as applicable), such Certificates shall cease to represent interests in the relevant Trust Assets and no further amounts shall be payable in respect thereof and the Trustee shall have no further obligations in respect thereof.

10 Taxation

All payments in respect of the Certificates shall be made free and clear of, and without withholding or deduction for any taxes, duties, assessments or governmental charges of whatever nature, imposed, levied, collected, withheld or assessed by or on behalf of any Relevant Jurisdiction (“Taxes”), unless such withholding or deduction of the Taxes is required by law. In such event, the Trustee will pay additional amounts as shall be necessary in order that the net amounts received by the Certificateholder after such withholding or deduction shall equal the respective amounts due and payable to any Certificateholder which would have otherwise been receivable in the absence of such withholding or deduction, except that no such additional amount shall be payable in relation to any payment in respect of any Certificate presented for payment (where presentation is required):

- (a) by or on behalf of a holder who is liable for such Taxes in respect of such Certificate by reason of having some connection with a Relevant Jurisdiction other than the mere holding of such Certificate; or
- (b) more than 30 days after the Relevant Date except to the extent that a holder would have been entitled to additional amounts on presenting the same for payment on the last day of the period of 30 days.

In these Conditions:

“Relevant Date” means, in respect of any Certificate, the date on which payment in respect of it first becomes due or, if the full amount of the money payable has not been duly paid on or before such date, it means the date on which payment in full of the amount outstanding is made or (if earlier) the date on which notice to that effect shall have been duly given to Certificateholders by the Trustee in accordance with Condition 16; and

“Relevant Jurisdiction” means the Cayman Islands and the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia or, in each case, any political subdivision or any authority or agency thereof or therein having the power to tax.

The Transaction Documents provide that payments thereunder by the Obligor shall be made without any withholding or deduction for any taxes, unless such withholding or deduction is required by law and, in such case, provide for the payment by the Obligor of all additional amounts as will result in the receipt by the Trustee of such net amount as would have been receivable by it if no withholding or deduction had been made.

Further, in accordance with the Master Declaration of Trust, the Obligor has unconditionally and irrevocably undertaken to (irrespective of the payment of any fee), as a continuing obligation, in the event that the Trustee fails to comply with any obligation to pay additional amounts pursuant to this Condition 10, pay to or to the order of the Delegate such net amounts as are necessary so that the amount receivable by the Delegate (after any withholding or deduction for or an account of Taxes) equals any and all additional amounts, required to be paid by it in respect of the Certificates pursuant to this Condition 10.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in these Conditions, the Trustee, the Obligor, a Paying Agent or any other person shall be permitted to withhold or deduct any amounts required by Sections 1471 to 1474 of the Code (“FATCA”), any treaty, law, regulation or other official guidance implementing FATCA, or any agreement (or related guidance) between the Trustee, the Obligor, a Paying Agent or any other person and the United States, any other jurisdiction, or any authority of any of the foregoing implementing FATCA or any intergovernmental agreement to implement FATCA and none of the Trustee, the Obligor, any Paying Agent or any other person shall be required to pay any additional amounts with respect to any such withholding or deduction imposed on or with respect to any Certificates.

11 Prescription

The right to receive distributions in respect of the Certificates will be prescribed and become void unless claimed within a period of 10 years (in the case of the Dissolution Amount) and five years (in the case of Periodic Distribution Amounts) from the Relevant Date in respect thereof.

12 Purchase and Cancellation of Certificates

(a) Purchases

The Obligor and/or any Subsidiary may at any time purchase Certificates at any price in the open market or otherwise at any price. Such Certificates may be held, re-sold or, at the option of the Obligor, surrendered to the Registrar for cancellation in accordance with Condition 12(b).

(b) Cancellation of Certificates held by the Obligor and/or any of its Subsidiaries

If the Obligor wishes to cancel any of the Certificates purchased by it and/or any Subsidiary pursuant to Condition 12(a), the Obligor shall deliver a Cancellation Notice to the Trustee in accordance with the terms of the Master Declaration of Trust requiring the Trustee to cancel such Certificates and surrender such Certificates to the relevant Agent for cancellation.

(c) Dissolution of the Trust upon cancellation of all outstanding Certificates in a Series

In the event the Obligor and/or any of its Subsidiaries purchase all the outstanding Certificates in a Series pursuant to this Condition 12 and all such Certificates are subsequently cancelled by the Trustee, the relevant Trust will be dissolved by the Trustee and such Certificates shall cease to represent interests in the relevant Trust Assets and no further amounts shall be payable in respect thereof and the Trustee shall have no further obligations in respect thereof.

provided that paragraph (k) above shall not apply if any such procedure or step is taken for the purpose of, and followed by, a reconstruction, amalgamation, reorganisation, merger or consolidation on terms approved by an Extraordinary Resolution of the Certificateholders;
- (l) any event occurs that under the laws of any relevant jurisdiction has an analogous effect to any of the events referred to in paragraphs (i) to (k) above; or
- (m) it is or will become unlawful for the Obligor to perform or comply with any one or more of its obligations under any the Transaction Documents to which it is a party, or any of such obligations are not or cease to be valid, binding or enforceable; or
- (n) the Obligor repudiates or challenges, or does or causes to be done any act or thing evidencing an intention to repudiate or challenge, these Conditions or any (or any part of any) Transaction Document to which it is a party.

14 Enforcement and Exercise of Rights

- (a) Upon (i) the occurrence and continuation of a Dissolution Event, and (ii) (in the case of a Dissolution Event other than a Co-ownership Notice Event, an Initial Hedging Event, an Initial Hedging Refund Event or a Hedging Renewal Event), the giving of notice to the Trustee, the Obligor and the Certificateholders in accordance with Condition 16 of a Dissolution Request, to the extent any amount payable in respect of the Certificates has not been paid in full, the Trustee (or the Delegate, acting in the name and on behalf of the Trustee), (subject, in each case, to it being indemnified and/or secured and/or prefunded to its satisfaction), may (acting for the benefit of the Certificateholders) take one or more of the following steps:

- (i) enforce the Obligor's obligations under the Transaction Documents to which the Obligor is a party; and/or
 - (ii) take such other steps as the Trustee or the Delegate (acting in the name and on behalf of the Trustee) may consider necessary to recover amounts due to the Certificateholders.
- (b) Conditions 14(c) and (d) are subject to this Condition 14 (b). Following the enforcement, realisation and distribution of the net proceeds of the relevant Trust Assets in respect of the Certificates to the Certificateholders in accordance with these Conditions and the Master Declaration of Trust as supplemented by the relevant Supplemental Declaration of Trust, the obligations of the Trustee in respect of the Certificates shall be satisfied and the right of the Certificateholders to receive any further sums shall be extinguished and neither the Trustee nor the Delegate shall be liable for any such sums and, accordingly, Certificateholders may not take any action against the Trustee, the Delegate, the Agents or any other person (including the Obligor) to recover any such sum or asset in respect of the relevant Certificates or the Trust Assets. In particular, no holder of the Certificates shall be entitled in respect thereof to petition or to take any other steps for the winding-up of the Trustee.
- (c) No Certificateholder shall be entitled to proceed directly against the Trustee or the Obligor under any Transaction Document to which either of them is a party unless the Delegate, having become so bound to proceed: (i) fails to do so within a reasonable period; or (ii) is unable to do so by reason of an order of a court having competent jurisdiction, and the failure or inability shall be continuing. Under no circumstances shall the Delegate or any Certificateholder have any right to cause the sale or other disposition of any of the relevant Trust Assets and the sole right of the Delegate and the Certificateholders against the Trustee and the Obligor shall be to enforce their respective obligations under the Transaction Documents.
- (d) The Delegate shall not be bound in any circumstances to take any action to enforce or to realise the relevant Trust Assets or take any action against (as applicable) the Trustee and/or the Obligor under any Transaction Document to which either of the Trustee or the Obligor is a party unless directed or requested to do so: (i) by an Extraordinary Resolution; or (ii) in writing by the holders of at least 25 per cent. of the then outstanding aggregate face amount of the Certificates of the relevant Series and in either case then only if it is indemnified and/or secured and/or prefunded to its satisfaction against all Liabilities to which it may thereby render itself liable and provided that the Delegate shall not be held liable for the consequences of exercising its discretion or taking any such action and may do so without having regard to the effect of such action on individual Certificateholders.

15 Replacement of Certificates

If any Definitive Certificate is lost, stolen, mutilated, defaced or destroyed, it may be replaced at the Specified Office of the Registrar (and, if the Certificates are then admitted to listing, trading and/or quotation by any competent authority, stock exchange and/or quotation system which requires the appointment of a Paying Agent in any particular place, the Paying Agent having its Specified Office in the place required by such competent authority, stock exchange and/or quotation system), subject to all applicable laws and competent authority, stock and/or quotation system requirements, upon payment by the claimant of the expenses incurred in connection with such replacement and on such terms as to evidence, security, indemnity and otherwise as the Trustee or Registrar, as the case may be, may reasonably require. Mutilated or defaced Definitive Certificates must be surrendered before replacements will be issued.

16 Notices

Save as provided in this Condition 16, all notices regarding the Certificates will be in the English language and will be deemed to be validly given if published in a leading English language daily newspaper published in London (which is expected to be the Financial Times), or if such publication is not practicable, in a leading English language newspaper having general circulation in Europe. The Trustee shall also ensure that notices are duly published in a manner which complies with the rules of any stock exchange or other relevant authority on which the Certificates are for the time being listed or by which they have been admitted to trading. Any such notice will be deemed to have been given on the date of the first publication or, where required to be published in more than one newspaper, on the date of the first publication in all required newspapers. If publication as provided above is not practicable, a notice will be given in such other manner, and will be deemed to have been given on such date, as the Trustee shall approve.

Until such time as any Definitive Certificates are issued, there may, so long as the Global Certificate representing the Certificates is held in its entirety on behalf of Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg, be substituted for such publication in such newspaper(s) the delivery of the relevant notice to Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg for communication by them to the holders of the Certificates. Any such notice shall be deemed to have been given to the holders of the Certificates on the day on which the said notice was given to Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg.

Notices to be given by any Certificateholder shall be in writing and given by lodging the same, together with the relevant Certificate or Certificates, with the Principal Paying Agent. Whilst any of the Certificates are represented by a Global Certificate, such notice may be given by any holder of a Certificate to the Principal Paying Agent through Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg, as the case may be, in such manner as the Principal Paying Agent and Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg, as the case may be, may approve for this purpose.

17 Meetings of Certificateholders, Modification, Waiver, Authorisation and Determination

- (a) The Master Declaration of Trust contains provisions for convening meetings (including by way of telephony or electronic platform or facility) of Certificateholders to consider any matter affecting their interests, including the sanctioning by Extraordinary Resolution of a modification of any of these Conditions or the provisions of the Master Declaration of Trust or any other Transaction Document. Such a meeting may be convened by the Trustee or the Delegate at any time or by Certificateholders holding not less than ten per cent. of the aggregate face amount of the Certificates for the time being outstanding. The quorum for any meeting convened to consider an Extraordinary Resolution shall be one or more persons holding or representing a clear majority in aggregate face amount of the Certificates for the time being outstanding, or at any adjourned meeting one or more persons being or representing Certificateholders whatever the face amount of the Certificates held or represented, unless the business of such meeting includes consideration of proposals, inter alia (i) to modify any date for payment in respect of the Certificates, (ii) to reduce or cancel the aggregate face amount of, or any amount or premium payable or due in respect of the Certificates, (iii) to reduce the rate or rates of profit in respect of the Certificates or to vary the method or basis of calculating the rate or rates or amount of profit or the basis for calculating any Periodic Distribution Amounts in respect of the Certificates (other than any Benchmark Amendments), (iv) if a Minimum and/or a Maximum Profit Rate is shown hereon, to reduce any such Minimum and/or Maximum, (v) to vary the currency or currencies of payment or denomination of the Certificates, or (vi) to modify the provisions concerning the quorum required at any meeting of Certificateholders or the majority required to pass the Extraordinary Resolution, or (viii) to modify or cancel the payment obligations of the Obligor (in any capacity) and/or the Trustee under the Transaction Documents and/or the Certificates (as the case may be), or (ix) to amend any of the Obligor's of the Trustee's covenants included in the Transaction Documents, in which case the necessary quorum shall be one or more persons holding or representing not less than 75 per cent. or at any adjourned meeting not less than 25 per cent. in aggregate face amount of the Certificates for the time being outstanding. Any Extraordinary Resolution duly passed shall be binding on Certificateholders whether or not they were present at the meeting at which such resolution was passed.

- (b) The Master Declaration of Trust provides that a resolution in writing signed by or on behalf of the holders of not less than 75 per cent. of the aggregate face amount of the Certificates then outstanding shall for all purposes be as valid and effective as an Extraordinary Resolution passed at a meeting of Certificateholders duly convened and held. Such a resolution in writing may be contained in one document or several documents in the same form, each signed by or on behalf of one or more Certificateholders and that consent given by way of electronic consents through the relevant clearing system(s) (in a form satisfactory to the Delegate) by or on behalf of the Certificateholders of not less than 75 per cent. in aggregate face amount of the Certificates then outstanding for all purposes be as valid and effective as an Extraordinary Resolution passed at a meeting of Certificateholders.
- (c) The Master Declaration of Trust, any Supplemental Declaration of Trust and any other Transaction Document may only be amended by the Trustee with the consent of the Delegate and the Delegate may agree, without the consent or sanction of the Certificateholders, to any modification of any of the Master Declaration of Trust, any Supplemental Declaration of Trust or any other Transaction Document if, in the opinion of the Delegate such modification is: (i) of a formal, minor or technical nature; (ii) made to correct a manifest error; or (iii) not materially prejudicial to the interests of the outstanding Certificateholders and is other than in respect of a Reserved Matter or any provisions of the Master Declaration of Trust referred to in the definition of a Reserved Matter. Any such modification may be made on such terms and subject to such conditions (if any) as the Delegate may determine, shall be binding on the Certificateholders and, unless the Delegate otherwise decides, shall be notified by the Trustee to the Certificateholders in accordance with Condition 16 as soon as practicable thereafter.
- (d) The Delegate may, without the consent or sanction of the Certificateholders and without prejudice to its rights in respect of any subsequent breach from time to time and at any time: (i) give its consent under the Master Declaration of Trust, any Supplemental Declaration of Trust or any other Transaction Document and agree to waive or to authorise any breach or proposed breach of any provision of the Master Declaration of Trust, any Supplemental Declaration of Trust or any other Transaction Document; or (ii) determine that any Dissolution Event shall not be treated as such, provided that: (1) in the opinion of the Delegate, such waiver, authorisation or determination is not materially prejudicial to the interests of the outstanding Certificateholders and is other than in respect of a Reserved Matter; and (2) the Delegate will not do so in contravention of an express direction given by Extraordinary Resolution or a request made pursuant to Condition 13. No such direction or request will affect a previous waiver, authorisation or determination. Any such waiver, authorisation or determination shall be binding on the Certificateholders and unless the Delegate otherwise requires, shall be notified by the Trustee (or the Obligor may do so on its behalf) to the Certificateholders in accordance with Condition 16 as soon as practicable thereafter.
- (e) In connection with the exercise by it of any of its powers, authorities and discretions under the Master Declaration of Trust (including, without limitation, any modification), the Delegate shall have regard to the general interests of the Certificateholders as a class (except where the context otherwise requires (as determined by the Delegate in its absolute discretion)) and shall not have regard to any interest arising from circumstances particular to individual Certificateholders (whatever their number) and, in particular, but without limitation, shall not have regard to the consequences of such exercise for individual Certificateholders (whatever their number) resulting from them being for any purpose domiciled or resident in, or otherwise connected with, or subject to the jurisdiction of, any particular territory or any political subdivision thereof or taxing jurisdiction and the Delegate shall not be entitled to require, nor shall any Certificateholder be entitled to claim from the Trustee, the Delegate, the Obligor or any other person any indemnification or payment in respect of any tax consequence of any such exercise upon individual Certificateholders (except, in the case of the Trustee and the Obligor, to the extent already provided for in Condition 10).

18 The Delegate

The Trustee has in the Master Declaration of Trust irrevocably and unconditionally appointed the Delegate to be its delegate and attorney and in its name, on its behalf and as its act and deed to execute, deliver and perfect all documents, and to exercise all of the present and future powers (including the power to sub-delegate), rights, authorities (including, but not limited to, the authority to request directions from any Certificateholders and the power to make any determinations to be made under the Master Declaration of Trust as supplemented by the relevant Supplemental Declaration of Trust) and discretions vested in the Trustee by the Master Declaration of Trust as supplemented by the relevant Supplemental Declaration of Trust, that the Delegate may consider to be necessary or desirable in order, and subject to it being indemnified and/or secured and/or pre-funded to its satisfaction, to exercise all of the rights of the Trustee under any of the Transaction Documents and make such distributions from the relevant Trust Assets as the Trustee is bound to make in accordance with the Master Declaration of Trust as supplemented by the relevant Supplemental Declaration of Trust following the occurrence of a Dissolution Event, (together the “Delegation” of the “Relevant Powers”), provided that in no circumstances will such Delegation result in the Delegate holding on trust or otherwise managing the relevant Trust Assets and provided further that such Delegation and the Relevant Powers shall not include any obligation, duty, liability or covenant of the Trustee pursuant to the Master Declaration of Trust or any other Transaction Document or any duty, power, trust, authority or discretion to dissolve the trusts constituted by the Master Declaration of Trust as supplemented by the relevant Supplemental Declaration of Trust following the occurrence of a Dissolution Event or to determine the remuneration of the Delegate. The Trustee shall ratify and confirm all things done and all documents executed by the Delegate in the exercise of all or any of the Relevant Powers.

In addition to the Delegation of the Relevant Powers under the Master Declaration of Trust as supplemented by the relevant Supplemental Declaration of Trust, the Delegate also has certain powers which are vested solely in it from the date of the Master Declaration of Trust.

The appointment of a delegate by the Trustee is intended to be in the interests of the Certificateholders and does not affect the Trustee’s continuing role and obligations as sole trustee.

The Master Declaration of Trust contains provisions for the indemnification of the Delegate in certain circumstances and for its relief from responsibility, including provisions relieving it from taking action unless indemnified and/or secured and/or prefunded to its satisfaction. In particular, in connection with the exercise of any of its rights in respect of the relevant Trust Assets or any other right it may have pursuant to the Master Declaration of Trust, the Delegate shall in no circumstances be bound to take any action unless directed to do so in accordance with Condition 14, and then only if it shall have been indemnified and/or secured and/or prefunded to its satisfaction.

The Delegate makes no representation and assumes no responsibility for the validity, sufficiency or enforceability of the obligations of the Obligor under the Transaction Documents to which it is a party and shall not under any circumstances have any liability or be obliged to account to Certificateholders in respect of any payments which should have been made by the Obligor but are not so made and shall not in any circumstances have any liability arising from the relevant Trust Assets other than as expressly provided in these Conditions or in the Master Declaration of Trust as supplemented by the relevant Supplemental Declaration of Trust.

The Delegate may rely without liability to Certificateholders on a report, confirmation, certificate or any advice of any accountants, financial advisers, financial institution, auditors, insolvency officials or any other expert (whether or not addressed to the Delegate and whether their liability in relation thereto is limited (by its terms or by any engagement letter relating thereto entered into by the Delegate or any other person or in any other manner) by reference to a monetary cap, methodology or otherwise) in accordance with or for the purposes of the Master Declaration of Trust or the other relevant Transaction Documents. The Delegate may accept and shall be entitled to rely on any such report, confirmation or certificate or advice as sufficient evidence of the facts stated therein and such report, confirmation, certificate or advice shall be binding on the Trustee, the Delegate and the Certificateholders. The Delegate shall not be bound in any such case to call for further evidence or be responsible for any liability or inconvenience that may be occasioned by its failure to do so.

Each of the Trustee and the Delegate is exempted from: (i) any liability in respect of any loss or theft of the Trust Assets or any cash; (ii) any obligation to insure the Trust Assets (other than, with respect to the Trustee, in accordance with the Transaction Documents) or any cash; and (iii) any claim arising from the fact that the Trust Assets or any cash are held by or on behalf of the Trustee or on deposit or in an account with any depositary or clearing system or are registered in the name of the Trustee or its nominee, unless such loss or theft arises as a result of the Trustee's or the Delegate's own gross negligence, wilful default or fraud, as the case may be.

Nothing shall, in any case where the Trustee or the Delegate has failed to show the degree of care and diligence required of it as trustee, in the case of the Trustee (having regard to the provisions of the Master Declaration of Trust conferring on it any trusts (in the case of the Trustee only), powers, authorities or discretions) or as donee and delegate, in the case of the Delegate (having regard to the powers, authorities and discretions conferred on it by the Master Declaration of Trust and to the Relevant Powers delegated to it), respectively exempt the Trustee or the Delegate from or indemnify either of them against any liability for gross negligence, wilful default or fraud of which either of them may be guilty in relation to their respective duties under the Master Declaration of Trust.

19 Further Issues

In respect of any Series, the Trustee may from time to time (but subject always to the provisions of the Master Declaration of Trust) without the consent of the Certificateholders create and issue additional Certificates having the same terms and conditions as the outstanding Certificates of such Series or terms and conditions which are the same in all respects save for the date and amount of the first payment of the Periodic Distribution Amount and the date from which Periodic Distribution Amounts start to accrue, and so that the same shall be consolidated and form a single Series with the outstanding Certificates of such Series. Any additional Certificates which are to form a single Series with the outstanding Certificates of a particular Series shall be constituted by a deed supplemental to the Master Declaration of Trust as supplemented by the relevant Supplemental Declaration of Trust. References in these Conditions to the Certificates include (unless the context requires otherwise) any other Certificates issued pursuant to this Condition 19 and forming a single Series with such Certificates.

20 Currency Indemnity

Any amount received or recovered in a currency other than the currency in which payment under the relevant Certificate is due (whether as a result of, or of the enforcement of, a judgment or order of a court of any jurisdiction, in the insolvency, winding-up or dissolution of the Trustee or the Obligor or otherwise) by any Certificateholder in respect of any sum expressed to be due to it from the Trustee shall only constitute a discharge to the Trustee to the extent of the amount in the currency of payment under the relevant Certificate that the recipient is able to purchase with the amount so received or recovered in that other currency on the date of that receipt or recovery (or, if it is not practicable to make that purchase on that date, on the first date on which it is practicable to do so). If the amount received or recovered is less than the amount expressed to be due to the recipient under any Certificate, the Trustee shall indemnify it against any actual loss (excluding opportunity loss) sustained by it as a result. In any event, the Trustee shall indemnify the recipient against the actual cost of making any such purchase (excluding opportunity cost or cost of funding). These indemnities constitute a separate and independent obligation from the Trustee's other obligations, shall give rise to a separate and independent cause of action, shall apply irrespective of any indulgence granted by any Certificateholder and shall continue in full force and effect despite any other judgment, order, claim or proof for a liquidated amount in respect of any sum due under any Certificate or any other judgment or order.

21 Contracts (Rights Of Third Parties) Act 1999

No rights are conferred on any person under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 to enforce any term of these Conditions, but this does not affect any right or remedy of any person which exists or is available apart from that Act.

22 Governing Law and Dispute Resolution

- (a) The Master Declaration of Trust, the Certificates and these Conditions (including the remaining provisions of this Condition 22) and any non-contractual obligations arising out of or in connection with the Master Declaration of Trust, the Certificates and these Conditions are governed by, and shall be construed in accordance with, English law.
- (b) Any dispute, claim, difference or controversy arising out of, relating to or having any connection with the Master Declaration of Trust, the Certificates and these Conditions (including any dispute as to their existence, validity, interpretation, performance, breach or termination or the consequences of their nullity or any dispute relating to any non-contractual obligations arising out of or in connection with them) (a “Dispute”) shall be referred to and finally resolved by arbitration under the Arbitration Rules of the London Court of International Arbitration (“LCIA”) (the “Rules”), which Rules (as amended from time to time) are incorporated by reference into this Condition 22.

In relation to any such arbitration:

- (i) the arbitral tribunal shall consist of three arbitrators, each of whom shall be an arbitrator experienced in international securities transactions;
- (ii) the claimant(s) and the respondent(s) shall each nominate one arbitrator within 15 days from receipt by the Registrar of the LCIA of the Response to the Request for arbitration as defined in the Rules, and the presiding arbitrator of the arbitral tribunal shall be nominated by the two party-nominated arbitrators within 15 days of the last of their appointments. If the presiding arbitrator of the arbitral tribunal is not so nominated, he shall be chosen by the LCIA;
- (iii) the seat of arbitration shall be London, England;
- (iv) the language of the arbitration shall be English;
- (v) the claimant(s) and the respondent(s) undertake to waive any right of application to determine a preliminary point of law under section 45 of the Arbitration Act 1996 of the United Kingdom;

- (vi) if any Dispute raises issues which are substantially the same as or connected with issues raised in a Dispute which has already been referred to arbitration under the Certificates (an “Existing Dispute”) or arises out of substantially the same facts as are the subject of an Existing Dispute (a “Related Dispute”), then the arbitral tribunal nominated or appointed in respect of any such Existing Dispute shall also be nominated as the arbitral tribunal in respect of any Related Dispute, save where the arbitral tribunal considers such appointment would be inappropriate;
- (vii) where the same arbitral tribunal has been appointed in relation to two or more Existing and/or Related Disputes, the arbitral tribunal may, with the agreement of all of the parties concerned or upon the application of one of the parties, being a party to each of such Disputes, order that the whole or part of the matters at issue shall be heard together upon such terms or conditions as the arbitral tribunal thinks fit; and
- (viii) upon request of a party to a Dispute which itself wishes to be joined to any reference to arbitration proceedings in relation to a Dispute, the arbitral tribunal may join any such party to any reference to arbitration proceedings in relation to that Dispute between them. Each of the Trustee and the Obligor hereby consents to be joined to any reference to arbitration proceedings in relation to any Dispute at the request of a party to that Dispute, and to accept the joinder of a party requesting to be joined pursuant to this paragraph (viii).

(c) Waiver of interest

- (i) Each of the Trustee and the Obligor has agreed in the Master Declaration of Trust that if any proceedings are brought by or on behalf of the Trustee, the Obligor or the Delegate under the Master Declaration of Trust, it will:
 - (A) not claim judgment interest under, or in connection with, such proceedings; and
 - (B) to the fullest extent permitted by law, waive all and any entitlement it may have to interest awarded in its favour by any court as a result of such proceedings.
- (ii) For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in this Condition 22(c) shall be construed as a waiver of rights in respect of any Wakala Portfolio Revenues, Required Amounts, Periodic Distribution Amounts, Dissolution Distribution Amounts, Exercise Price, Certificateholder Put Right Exercise Price, Optional Dissolution Exercise Price, Co-owner Shares Exercise Price, Hedging Amounts, Hedging Required Amounts, Hedging Shortfall Amounts, Shortfall Amounts or profit or principal of any kind howsoever described payable by the Trustee (in any capacity) or the Obligor (in any capacity) pursuant to the Transaction Documents and/or the Conditions or any other document or agreement, howsoever such amounts may be described or re-characterised by any court or arbitral tribunal.

(d) Waiver of immunity

The Obligor has in the Transaction Documents waived irrevocably, to the fullest extent permitted by law:

- (i) any immunity from suit, attachment or execution to which it might otherwise be entitled by virtue of its sovereign status under the State Immunity Act 1978 of the United Kingdom or otherwise in any action arising out of or based on these Conditions which may be instituted as provided for in these Conditions in any arbitration having its seat in London, England; and
- (ii) any immunity from attachment or execution to which it might otherwise be entitled by virtue of its sovereign status in any other jurisdiction in an action to enforce an arbitral award properly obtained in England and Wales as referred to in paragraph (i) above.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Transaction Documents, such waiver of immunity shall not be deemed or interpreted to include any waiver of immunity in respect of (i) present or future “premises of the mission” as defined in the Vienna Convention on Diplomatic Relations signed in 1961; (ii) “consular premises” as defined in the Vienna Convention on Consular Relations signed in 1963; (iii) any other property or assets used solely or mainly for governmental or public purposes in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia or elsewhere; (iv) military property or military assets or property or assets of the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia related thereto; (v) rights or immunities or property held by individuals or by entities, agencies, or instrumentalities distinct from the Obligor (regardless of their relationship to the Obligor); or (vi) other procedural or substantive rights enjoyed by the Obligor by virtue of its sovereign status besides immunity from suit, attachment, and execution. Without prejudice to the generality of the above, none of the provisions of this Condition 22(d) shall apply to actions brought under the United States federal securities law or any securities laws of any state thereof.

SUMMARY OF PROVISIONS RELATING TO THE CERTIFICATES WHILE IN GLOBAL FORM

The Certificates of each Series will be in registered form. Certificates will be issued outside the United States in reliance on Regulation S under the Securities Act.

Global Certificates

Each Tranche of Certificates will initially be represented by a global trust certificate in registered form (a “Global Certificate”). Global Certificates will be deposited with a common depository (the “Common Depository”) for Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg and will be registered in the name of a nominee for the Common Depository. Persons holding beneficial interests in Global Certificates will be entitled or required, as the case may be, under the circumstances described below, to receive physical delivery of definitive Certificates in fully registered form.

Payments to registered Holder

Payments of any amount in respect of the Global Certificates will, in the absence of provision to the contrary, be made to the person shown in the Register as the registered Holder of the Certificates represented by a Global Certificate at the close of business (in the relevant clearing system) on the Clearing System Business Day before the due date for such payment (the “Record Date”) where the “Clearing System Business Day” means Monday to Friday inclusive, except 25 December and 1 January. None of the Trustee, the Delegate, the Obligor, any Agent will have any responsibility or liability for any aspect of the records relating to or payments or deliveries made on account of ownership interests in the Global Certificates or for maintaining, supervising or reviewing any records relating to such ownership interests.

Payment of any amounts in respect of Certificates in definitive form will, in the absence of provision to the contrary, be made to the persons shown on the Register on the relevant Record Date (as defined in Condition 8(a)) immediately preceding the due date for payment in the manner provided in that Condition.

Exchange for definitives

Interests in a Global Certificate will be exchangeable (free of charge), in whole but not in part, for Definitive Certificates of a particular Series only upon the occurrence of an Exchange Event. The Trustee will promptly give notice to Certificateholders in accordance with Condition 16 if an Exchange Event occurs. For these purposes, an “Exchange Event” will occur if: (a) the Trustee has been notified that both Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg or any other relevant clearing system is closed for business for a continuous period of 14 days (other than by reason of legal holidays) or announces an intention permanently to cease business and no successor clearing system is available; or (b) any of the circumstances described in Condition 13 occurs and is continuing. In the event of the occurrence of an Exchange Event, Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg or any other person acting on their behalf, as the case may be, (acting on the instructions of any holder of an interest in such Global Certificate) may give notice to the Registrar requesting exchange and, in the event of the occurrence of an Exchange Event as described above, the Trustee may also give notice to the Registrar requesting exchange. Any such exchange shall occur not later than 15 days after the date of receipt of the first relevant notice by the Registrar.

For so long as any Certificate is represented by a Global Certificate held on behalf of Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg, each person (other than Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg) who is for the time being shown in the records of Euroclear or of Clearstream, Luxembourg as the holder of a particular face amount of such Certificate (in which regard any certificate or other document issued by Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg as to the face amount of such Certificate standing to the account of any person shall be conclusive and binding for all purposes save in the case of manifest error) shall be treated as the holder of such face amount of such Certificate for all purposes other than with respect to any payment on such face amount of such Certificate, for which purpose the registered holder of the relevant Global Certificate shall be treated by the Trustee and their respective agents as the holder of such face amount of such Certificate in accordance with and subject to the terms of the relevant Global Certificate and the expressions “Certificateholder” and “holder of Certificates” and related expressions shall be construed accordingly.

Pursuant to the Agency Agreement, the Principal Paying Agent shall arrange that, where a further Tranche is issued which is intended to form a single Series with an existing Tranche at a point after the Issue Date of the further Tranche, the Certificates of such further Tranche shall be assigned a common code and ISIN which are different from the common code and ISIN assigned to Certificates of any other Tranche of the same Series until such time as the Tranches are consolidated and form a single Series.

Any reference herein to Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg shall, whenever the context so permits, be deemed to include a reference to any additional or alternative clearing system.

DESCRIPTION OF THE PUBLIC INVESTMENT FUND

OVERVIEW

The Fund is the sovereign wealth fund of the Kingdom, established in accordance with Royal Decree No. M/24 dated 25/06/1391H (corresponding to 18 August 1971) (“Royal Decree No. M/24”) and regulated by the Law of the Public Investment Fund issued pursuant to Royal Decree No. M/92 dated 12/08/1440H (corresponding to 17 April 2019). The Fund became organisationally connected to the CEDA pursuant to Article 5 of Council of Ministers’ Resolution No. 270 dated 3/6/1436H (corresponding to 23 March 2015) and has since been an instrumentality of the Kingdom with financial autonomy, as well as independence, in carrying out its investment management and day to day operational activities, as ratified pursuant to Article 2 of Royal Decree No. M/92. The Fund reports to the CEDA, whose chairman, HRH Prince Mohammed bin Salman bin Abdulaziz Al Saud, Crown Prince of Saudi Arabia and Prime Minister of the Kingdom (“HRH The Crown Prince”), acts as the chairman of the Fund (the “Chairman”) (see further “Relationship with the Government”).

Historically, the Fund’s mandate was to provide financial support for key projects and companies considered strategically significant for the development of the economy of the Kingdom. The Fund’s mandate has evolved over the years and, pursuant to its central role within the Kingdom’s Vision 2030, the Fund has continued to actively contribute to domestic economic development, while also expanding its international assets by investing in global sectors and markets, establishing strategic partnerships and launching large-scale initiatives and projects. The Fund now holds a portfolio of high-quality domestic and international investments, diversified across sectors, geographies and asset classes, and aims to maximise sustainable returns in line with the goals and objectives of Vision 2030.

Through Vision 2030, the Fund has launched a strategic transformation programme, with the aim of: (i) growing the assets of the Fund; (ii) unlocking new sectors of the Kingdom’s economy through the Fund; (iii) building strategic economic partnerships through the Fund; and (iv) localising cutting-edge technology and knowledge through the Fund.

The Fund operates and makes investments through the following six investment pools, two of which are internationally focused and four of which are primarily domestically focused:

- Saudi Equity Holdings. This investment pool includes equity holdings in listed and unlisted companies primarily in the Kingdom across different sectors. The Fund seeks to maximise the value of its portfolio companies in this investment pool and generate long-term sustainable returns. Investments within this pool also include shares in listed or private companies in the Middle East and North Africa region (“MENA”), and indirect investments in MENA companies through other parties or externally managed funds.
- Saudi Sector Development. This investment pool includes direct and indirect investments in new sectors and companies in the Kingdom. Through these investments, the Fund seeks to unlock the potential of key new sectors to support the diversification and development of the Kingdom’s economy, increase private sector participation, localise knowledge and technology, and create high-skilled jobs and opportunities for small and medium-sized enterprises (“SMEs”). The Fund has identified a number of sectors that it expects will contribute to the Kingdom’s economic development, including, for example, the entertainment and recycling sectors.
- Saudi Real Estate and Infrastructure Development. This investment pool includes real estate and infrastructure assets in the Kingdom. The Fund has identified a number of initiatives intended to improve the utilisation and maximise the value of its land bank, and upgrade critical infrastructure to support the Kingdom’s economic development. The Fund also intends to leverage these investments to attract capital from local and foreign investors. Examples of such initiatives include programmes for the regeneration of inner cities, the development of hotel and housing capacity in strategic locations and developing the new Jeddah downtown.

- Saudi Giga-Projects. This investment pool includes investments in large-scale and complex ecosystems that aim to significantly transform the Saudi economy (referred to as “Giga-Projects”). These Giga-Projects are multifaceted, globally unique in scope and ambition, and are designed to stimulate overall growth and add significant value to the economy. Moreover, these projects are expected to generate significant value for the Fund in the medium- to long-term. This pool includes five Giga-Projects currently under development: Neom, Red Sea Global project, Qiddiya, ROSHN and the Diriyah Project.
- International Strategic Investments. This investment pool includes long-term direct and indirect investments through selected strategic partnerships globally. Through this pool, the Fund targets investments in industries with the potential for future growth, fosters relationships with innovative companies and investors and strengthens links with international counterparts, influential investors and investment managers. This pool includes the Fund’s substantial investments made in, among others, the SoftBank Vision Fund L.P. (the “SoftBank Vision Fund”), the Blackstone Infrastructure Fund Programme and Lucid Group Inc.
- International Diversified Pool. This investment pool includes international global investments in public and private markets, diversified across fixed income, equity, hedge funds, real estate and infrastructure. International investments are those that are not domiciled in the Kingdom or the MENA region. This investment pool’s objective is to generate strong long-term returns that provide a source of future income.

For further detail regarding the Fund’s investment policies and funding principles, see “—Planning and Investment Process” and “—Funding Principles” below.

The Fund is an active investor and constantly reviews opportunities to invest in sectors and asset classes aligned with its investment strategy. As at 30 June 2024, the volume of the Fund’s international investments had increased to constitute 16 per cent (16%) of the Fund’s AUM, compared to 9 per cent (9%) as at 31 December 2017, illustrating the geographical diversification of the Fund’s portfolio.

HISTORY

The Fund was established by Royal Decree No. M/24, which ratified and approved Council of Ministers’ Resolution No. 468 dated 25/6/1391H (corresponding to 18 August 1971), confirming a draft regulation for the Fund’s establishment as proposed by the Minister of Finance and National Economy. The Fund operated as an administrative department of the Ministry of Finance (“MoF”) until 22 March 2015 with the authority to carry out the functions for which it was established.

Royal Decree No. M/24 was subsequently supplemented by Council of Ministers’ Resolution No. 508 dated 2/4/1394H (corresponding to 2 May 1974) (“Resolution No. 508”), which gave the Fund an explicit mandate to invest in and hold equity in certain joint stock companies on behalf of the Government. As mentioned in Resolution

No. 508, the intention of the Government at that time was to facilitate greater ownership by Saudi citizens in such companies.

Pursuant to Royal Decree No. M/62 dated 4/10/1435H (corresponding to 31 July 2014) (“Royal Decree No. M/62”), which ratified and approved Council of Ministers’ Resolution No. 386 dated 24/09/1435H (corresponding to 21 July 2014), the Fund was further authorised to invest in existing companies or establish new companies, within or outside the Kingdom, either alone or in partnership with third parties from the public or private sector. Royal Decree No. M/62 provides that, other than with respect to matters covered by the provisions in the articles of association of the companies to be formed or participated in by the Fund, the provisions of the Companies Law promulgated by Royal Decree No. M/6 dated 22/03/1385H (as amended) (corresponding to 22 July 1965) and other relevant regulations shall apply to such companies.

The Fund became organisationally connected to the CEDA pursuant to Article 5 of Council of Ministers’ Resolution No. 270 dated 3/6/1436H (corresponding to 23 March 2015) (“Resolution No. 270”), with the Chairman of the CEDA assuming the role of Chairman of the Fund. The CEDA provides general oversight to the Fund but has no involvement in the Fund’s day-to-day operations (for further details, see “Relationship with the Government”).

In 2017, the Fund announced its Vision Realisation Programme (2018–2020) as part of its strategy to facilitate the realisation of Vision 2030, and to complement the set of executive programmes that were announced in connection therewith. Upon conclusion of the Vision Realisation Programme (2018–2020), a five-year strategy for the Fund was announced in January 2021, including the PIF Program (as defined below). See “PIF Strategy (2021-2025)” below for further details.

STRENGTHS

Strategic Importance – Unlocking the Kingdom’s Potential

The Fund is the sovereign wealth fund of the Kingdom. The Fund is a key enabler of the Kingdom’s Vision 2030 and the Fund has continued to actively contribute to domestic economic development, while also expanding its international assets by investing in global sectors and markets, establishing strategic partnerships and launching large-scale programmes and initiatives. In January 2021, the Fund announced its five-year strategy, including the PIF Program (as defined below). As part of the strategy, the Fund, among other initiatives, plans to: (a) invest a minimum of US$40 billion annually in domestic projects and investments; (b) contribute up to US$320 billion to non-oil GDP cumulatively through its portfolio companies; (c) increase AUM to US$1.07 trillion; and (d) create 1.8 million direct, indirect and induced jobs, in each case by the end of 2025. The Fund aims to act as a driver of economic diversification for the Kingdom by developing strategic sectors and solid economic partnerships that deepen the Kingdom’s regional and global influence.

Catalysing the Green Agenda in the Kingdom and Globally

The Fund aims to take a leadership role with respect to environmental, social and governance (“ESG”) investing among sovereign wealth funds and the broader global investment community. This includes closely managing and improving the ESG performance of all the Fund’s investments and actively engaging with the Fund’s investees to facilitate improved ESG management. The Fund has played, and continues to play, a critical role in expanding the use of new technologies and industries that will help the Kingdom to deliver its goal of net zero emissions by 2060 and the Fund’s goal of achieving net zero emissions by 2050 – a commitment announced during COP27. In addition, the considerations from the Paris Climate Change Agreement have been embedded in the Fund’s investment decision processes since 2016. The Fund expects to invest more than US$19 billion in Eligible Green Projects by 2027 on the basis of its working assumptions as at the date of this Offering Circular.

The Fund is mandated to develop 70 per cent (70%) of the Kingdom's renewable energy capacity by 2030. Notable investments in sustainability projects include:

- NEOM, which is a 26,500km² development project in the Kingdom, expected to be fully powered by renewable energy, and to utilise green technology in building water capabilities and maximising usage efficiency;
- ACWA Power Company (“ACWA Power”), which is one of the largest developers, investors, and operators of power generation and desalinated water plants in the region;
- Red Sea Global project, which is a developer spearheading a new model of development with the aim of enhancing the Kingdom's luxury tourism and sustainability offering. Its portfolio includes the following projects:
 - The Red Sea Project, which is a responsible and regenerative luxury tourism destination along the west coast of the Kingdom that is being developed to offer world-leading tourism experiences whilst protecting the environment for future generations to enjoy; and
 - AMAALA, which is a responsible and regenerative ultra-luxury tourism destination that focuses on transformative personal journeys inspired by wellness, arts, culture, and the purity of the Red Sea. AMAALA aims to operate with a zero-carbon footprint, fully powered by renewable energy;
- Lucid Group Inc., which produces electric vehicles and is headquartered in the US;

Diversified & Commercially Driven Investments

The Fund operates and makes investments through four primarily domestically focused investment pools (Saudi Equity Holdings, Saudi Sector Development, Saudi Real Estate and Infrastructure Development and Saudi Giga-Projects) and two internationally focussed investment pools (International Strategic Investments and International Diversified Pool). The Fund aims to maintain the geographical diversification of its portfolio as well as the current diversification between liquid and illiquid assets.

As a result of the Fund’s strategic importance within the Kingdom, in particular with respect to Vision 2030 and senior oversight from its Board, the Fund has access to unique investment opportunities in the Kingdom and globally.

The Fund’s investment process is governed by a principle-based methodology to allocate capital with the aim of achieving high returns over the medium to long term. First, each investment must feature an investment rationale, such as synergies to Vision 2030’s objectives, economic contributions to the Kingdom, and compliance with ESG standards. Second, the expected cash flows from the investment must meet internal rate of return hurdles and fall within the acceptable bounds of value at risk for the Fund’s portfolio. Investment decisions are made by the Fund’s Board and Executive Management (defined below) investment committees comprising senior members and subject to rigorous analysis and scrutiny.

The Fund launched its first Vision Realisation Program in 2017 (the “First VRP”) laying out its portfolio strategy, targets and key performance indicators. The Fund’s Total Shareholder Return (defined below) in SAR terms was 8.7 per cent (8.7%) per annum for the period from the launch of the First VRP to 31 December 2023. “Total Shareholder Return” is a compounded and annualised measure of returns, taking into account changes in the portfolio value and dividends generated, excluding any capital injections or withdrawals by the Fund’s shareholder. The Fund’s portfolio comprises a broad variety of investments for which a benchmark index or a comparable is not readily available, in particular for the local and unlisted parts of the portfolio. As a long-term investor, the Fund believes Total Shareholder Return over a longer-term period is an appropriate measure of the performance and resilience of the Fund’s portfolio.

Funding Flexibility and Liquidity

PIF funds its activities through: (i) retained earnings from investments; (ii) capital injections from the Government; (iii) Government assets transferred to the Fund; and (iv) financing raised in the local and global credit markets. The scale of the Fund’s current and projected asset base, and its limited level of financial leverage, means that the Fund has considerable scope to incur indebtedness while remaining at a conservative level of leverage. The Fund also seeks to hold an ample amount of liquid assets at all times to meet liquidity needs, and as at 30 June 2024, the AUM of the Fund’s Treasury Assets amounted to SAR 123 billion.

Disciplined Financial Policies

Indicators of credit quality

The Fund sets out borrowing indicators (the “Indicators”) that cover a range of credit ratios which include debt affordability, liquidity and leverage measures. The purpose of the Indicators is to ensure the Fund’s borrowing remains sustainable with a positive impact on the public sector debt and the credit ratings of the Kingdom.

The Fund’s Indicators provide a quantitative snapshot of its credit quality and the strength of its financial position. These key indicators of credit quality cover three main dimensions, namely, interest coverage, liquidity and leverage:

- The indicator of interest coverage is the ratio of net cash flows generated from operations (which consists of divestments, dividends and distributions received, income from investments and interest income less operating expenses) to interest expenses.
- The indicator of liquidity is the number of years that liquid assets cover upcoming debt maturities. Liquid assets include cash and cash equivalents (including cash, term deposits, and money market instruments), undrawn committed credit lines and short-term investments (including Government and Government Related Entities bonds, Aramco equity and debt securities, corporate bonds, loans, sukuk, market valuation of listed stocks, all subject to various haircuts).
- The indicator of leverage is the ratio of net debt to AUM. The net debt is computed as gross debt less cash and cash equivalents (including cash, term deposits and money market instruments).

Such information is presented as additional measures as management believes that investors would find such information useful for assessing the Fund's credit quality as an investment company. Such information is not determined in accordance with IFRS as IFRS does not prescribe the provision of such information, nor the computation methodology of such information. Such information may not be comparable to that of other companies that may determine similarly titled credit quality indicators differently. Such information should not be considered in isolation or as alternatives to the Fund's financial results based on its consolidated financial statements as measures of its consolidated financial performance.

As at each of 31 December 2023 and 31 December 2022, on an unconsolidated basis, the Indicators were as follows:

Interest coverage ratio (multiple)	> 7	> 7
Liquidity ratio (years)	>10	>10
Leverage ratio (%)	< 10	< 10

The Indicators are calculated frequently and in accordance with the methodology set out above. The Indicators are considered at the end of each financial year. The Fund aims to complement the Indicators by maintaining its financial ratios consistent with the highest scores defined by credit rating agencies, and is committed to a strong credit profile over the long term.

Liquidity

The Fund's primary sources of funds are proceeds from portfolio divestments and dividends and investment distributions from its portfolio companies. In addition, the Fund's funding sources are supplemented by borrowings, asset transfers from the Government and capital contributions from the Government.

The Fund believes that it currently maintains sufficient liquidity to meet its existing requirements. The Fund regularly evaluates its capital structure to ensure that it is optimal for its objectives. The Fund remains open and flexible to various financing options as long as they meet its objectives. Depending on market conditions, the Fund may access the capital markets to raise additional liquidity or redeem or repurchase its outstanding notes and certificates to manage its debt maturity profile and enhance its capital efficiency.

For the year ended 31 December 2023, the Fund maintained a strong balance sheet. This provides the Fund the flexibility to invest with a long-term horizon, to take advantage of market dislocations, and to reposition its portfolio for the future.

Ambitious Governance and Transparency Agenda

Through its continuous enhancements of governance and transparency standards, the Fund strives to maintain leadership among global sovereign wealth funds.

The Fund has a robust risk management framework which entails three lines of defence. First, the Fund's risk governance framework includes Board-level committees (Risk Committee and Audit and Compliance Committee) and appropriate delegated authorities, following the principles set out in the Fund's risk appetite statement (the "Risk Appetite Statement"). Second, the Fund's risk controls include an independent risk division which is responsible for reviewing exposures, challenging decisions made by operational teams, as well as reporting and escalating concerns. Third, the Fund's risk data and reporting infrastructure aggregates portfolio-level analysis for regular Board and management reports.

The Fund also seeks to enhance transparency and raise its own profile globally through international credit rating processes, publication of consolidated annual financial statements, and other disclosures required in connection with listed bond issuances.

PIF STRATEGY (2021-2025)

In January 2021, the Fund announced its five-year strategy, including its Vision Realisation Programme 2021-2025 (the "PIF Program"). As part of the PIF Program, among other initiatives, the Fund plans to (a) invest a minimum of US$40 billion annually in domestic projects and investments, (b) contribute up to US$320 billion to non-oil GDP cumulatively through its portfolio companies, (c) increase AUM to US$1.07 trillion, of which international assets are expected to comprise 24 per cent (24%) and (d) create up to 1.8 million direct, indirect and induced jobs, in each case by the end of 2025.

The Fund has developed eight strategic pillars through which it designs and develops its initiatives. These strategic pillars comprise initiatives across several sectors and asset classes globally to achieve the Fund's 2025 and 2030 aspirations, given their direct compatibility with the goals of Vision 2030. The strategic pillars are also compatible with the directives issued by the CEDA's Strategic Management Committee and the Board.

The Fund's eight strategic pillars are described below:

Launch and Grow Domestic Sectors

This strategic pillar seeks to drive the Kingdom's economic transformation, develop local sectors and maximise the value of the Fund's investments in Saudi companies. It comprises all initiatives that aim to develop new sectors or further develop established sectors that can benefit from the Kingdom's significant economic growth. The initiatives that fall within this strategic pillar are identified at a sector level and are categorised into four themes for domestic investment: (i) creating industries at scale; (ii) diversifying revenue sources; (iii) unlocking potential resources; and (iv) improving quality of life.

Accordingly, under the PIF Program, the Fund plans to focus on 13 sectors as part of its core domestic strategy, namely: aerospace and defence; automotive; transport and logistics; food and agriculture; construction and building components and services; entertainment, leisure and sports; financial services; real estate; utilities and renewables; metals and mining; health care; consumer goods and retail; and telecom, media and technology. Since 2017, the Fund has established 95 companies in the 13 strategic sectors mentioned above, and has generated more than 763,000 direct, indirect and induced jobs.

Develop Domestic Real Estate Projects

The development of the Kingdom's real estate and infrastructure sector is a key part of Vision 2030 and is different in scale and nature from other real estate and infrastructure sectors globally. This strategic pillar seeks to develop local real estate and infrastructure projects and companies along the value chain. It covers all initiatives in connection with building development companies or supporting new companies in the real estate and infrastructure sector in the Kingdom.

The initiatives within this strategic pillar are delineated by region (Central, West, South, East and North) and include projects in each region. The initiatives in this sector aim to achieve several goals, including:

- Contributing to the Vision 2030 objective of increasing the rate of homeownership within the Kingdom to 70 per cent (70%) of the population;
- Diversifying revenue sources;
- Improving the Hajj and Umrah experience for both local and international visitors;
- Instilling construction and design best practices into the sector, in line with global best practices;
- Reinforcing strategic partnerships with investors (local and international);
- Cultivating and fostering innovation;
- Developing world-class urban communities;
- Enhancing the quality of life for Saudi citizens;
- Developing and promoting the Kingdom as a tourism destination;
- Improving the primary infrastructure of the Kingdom and supporting economic development; and
- Driving local supply chain growth for the real estate sector.

Develop Giga-Projects

This strategic pillar focuses on the Kingdom's projects of exceptional scale and ambition, which enable the creation of new ecosystems and unlock new sectors. This is facilitated by the promotion of technology and knowledge in the Kingdom. For example, the Giga-Projects are designed to stimulate the economy and their benefits are expected to be realised beyond the real estate and infrastructure sectors, helping to diversify the economy away from oil. They are intended to support the Kingdom's economic transformation efforts and promote investments in several sectors, with the objective of achieving high returns over the medium and long term. The Fund will lead the investment in these programmes in order to build a strong foundation, creating new jobs, contributing to GDP growth and attracting both local and foreign direct investments in lucrative sectors. See "Portfolio —Saudi Giga-Projects" below.

Grow and Diversify the Fund's Assets Internationally

The main goal of this pillar is to diversify the Fund's sources of income by growing and diversifying the Fund's international portfolio investments broadly, across geographies, asset classes and sectors, and away from the domestic economy and oil and gas industries. By allocating capital to public and private market investments internationally, the Fund intends to increase the number of its strategic partnerships. Moreover, additional international investments will reduce portfolio risk by providing greater diversification. The initiatives under this pillar aim to: (i) enhance and diversify returns; (ii) strengthen the Kingdom's position internationally as a leader and enabler of the future global economy and build its reputation as a preferred investor and partner of choice; and (iii) achieve high, long-term returns by taking part in diversified global investments in public and private markets, and provide future sources of wealth and returns.

Support National Development and Act as an Enabler of Vision 2030

This strategic pillar focuses on the Fund's value creation and support of national development through:

- Securing supply chain and localisation: The Fund has developed a supply chain strategy to avoid delays to projects, ensure availability of materials and services for the projects at reasonable prices, increase localisation through large local spending and make use of investment opportunities in the supply chains in connection with the Fund's projects, without over-saturating the private sector.

- Enhancing private sector engagement: Increasing private sector participation in the Kingdom's economy is an important component of the Fund's business model. The Fund consistently evaluates the potential impact of an investment initiative in the private sector. On 14 March 2023, the Fund launched its inaugural Private Sector Forum which featured more than 50 of the Fund's portfolio companies. The two-day forum was focused on the Fund's efforts to support and enable the private sector, to unlock opportunities and further diversify the Kingdom's economy by investing in new sectors, enhancing competitiveness, increasing local content, and creating new jobs that are in line with Vision 2030. The forum aims to strengthen the Fund's business model by:
 - Investors: engaging the private sector as an investor in the Fund's projects and in investment opportunities in companies' supply chains, in sectors led by the Fund's portfolio companies;
 - Suppliers: opening the Fund's procurement opportunities to a wider breadth of private sector suppliers within the Kingdom and building the capabilities of private sector suppliers that are important for the Fund; and
 - Financiers: involving the private sector as third-party funds providers to the Fund, its portfolio companies and its projects.
- Enabling Vision 2030 through collaboration with other vision realisation programmes ("VRPs"): The Fund launched its first VRP in September 2017 as part of a series of programmes to achieve the objectives of Vision 2030. In addition, the Fund intends to facilitate other VRPs, investing in opportunities that are commercially viable across various sectors in the Kingdom that are also aligned with the Fund's strategy and investment requirements.

This strategic pillar is expected to drive domestic value creation and maximise long-term economic growth, and enable the Fund to facilitate other VRPs in the Kingdom.

Exploit Portfolio Synergies and Create Strategic and Operational Value

This strategic pillar aims to: (i) build an interconnected network of the Fund's portfolio companies across geographies and sectors, with a focus on increasing collaboration and realising synergies between them; and (ii) establish and grow the Fund's centre for governance to drive sustainable value creation and promote investments related to sustainability and ESG, which are intended to address the Kingdom's long-term prosperity and resilience goals.

Such initiatives will impact investments across all of the Fund's six investment pools, with the aim of building an interconnected network of portfolio companies across sectors. These initiatives will also support the Fund's overall investment agenda to promote prosperity and resilience in the Kingdom.

Diversify Funding and Strengthen the Fund's Balance Sheet

The Fund leverages several sources of funding, such as earnings in the form of dividends and divestments, capital injections, asset transfers from the Government, loans and debt instruments raised at the Fund level. Funding optimisation and balance sheet strengthening is expected to be a key part of the Fund's growth strategy for several reasons, including: (i) maximising risk-adjusted returns; (ii) increasing diversification in its portfolio; (iii) engaging the private sector; and (iv) supporting capital recycling to reinvest in high-growth projects, which will help the Fund to achieve its strategic objectives.

The initiatives in this pillar are aimed at: (i) supporting the Fund and its portfolio companies in achieving and optimising their targeted capital structure; (ii) enhancing the participation of international institutional investors in the local equity and debt market; (iii) developing the Fund's funding strategy at Fund and portfolio company levels and designing debt programmes targeting a wide pool of local and international investors while leveraging the Fund’s relationships; and (iv) supporting companies through their IPO and encouraging private sector participation in the Kingdom’s markets.

Strengthen the Fund as an Institution

This strategic pillar will enable the Fund as an institution to create further value across other strategic pillars by elevating the Fund’s thought leadership in economic development and forecasting topics, transforming the Fund into a leading digitalised organisation, implementing a common culture across the Fund and developing a communication strategy.

To meet the objectives of the PIF Program and in line with its key role in achieving Vision 2030, the Fund seeks to strengthen its institutional capacity through the following initiatives: (i) establish the PIF Centre for Economic Insight; (ii) position the Fund as a digitised, intellectually leading organisation of the future; (iii) build a common, unified culture in a fast-growing organisation; and (iv) communicate the Fund’s purpose locally and globally.

PLANNING AND INVESTMENT PROCESS

Under the guidance of its Chairman, the Board is responsible for overseeing the Fund’s long-term strategy, investment policy and performance. The Fund has adopted a governance and operating model that reflects its mandate and objectives, and builds on global best practices to enable well-informed decision making. As an independent entity with full administrative and financial autonomy in carrying out its investment management and day to day operational activities, the Fund reports directly to the CEDA (see further “Relationship with the Government”) and is managed by the Board. For further details, see “Management and Employees”.

One of the Board’s core areas of responsibility is to oversee investment-related decisions by the Fund. The Board has also established a sub-committee, the Board Investment Committee, which reviews and endorses the Fund’s investment activities, namely investments in and governance of portfolio companies, new direct and indirect investments, establishment of new companies, asset transfers and investment policy. The members of this sub-committee are all non-executive members (with the exception of His Excellency the Governor of the Fund) with local and international expertise in different fields.

Under the Board and the Board Investment Committee, the Management Investment Committee reviews all investment proposals prior to submission to the Board and its sub-committees, in addition to utilising the investment powers granted to the Fund’s Executive Management (as defined in “Management and Employees”) through delegation of authority by the Board.

The Fund has developed and approved investment policies which provide more detailed instructions with respect to management of the Fund’s investment portfolios, including:

- a Total Programme Investment Policy (the “TPIP”), which is a comprehensive investment strategy for the whole investment programme that provides common guidelines to all portfolios and identifies how the Fund’s assets are distributed within such portfolios. The TPIP sets out the high-level investment strategies of each investment pool, the allocation of capital and assets, and the relevant investment restrictions;
- investment policies specifically tailored for each investment pool; and
- the investment policy in respect of the treasury portfolio, being the Fund’s non-investment portfolio.

The Fund’s investment policies enable it to adopt the best global investment practices by identifying the objective of each investment portfolio, providing details of the relevant asset categories, and allocating targets, performance standards and risk tolerance. The Fund’s Risk Appetite Statement sets out the level of risk that can be tolerated by the Fund in achieving its objectives. The Fund currently reviews and updates the Risk Appetite Statement annually in line with its objectives. The Fund also has a detailed policy and procedural manual with respect to its investment process, including any required inputs from support control functions.

Given the Fund's wide-ranging goals and investment opportunities, the Fund adopts a flexible, principle-based methodology to determine how to balance and allocate capital. A "priority system" is used to allocate capital across the six investment pools. Under the priority system, available capital will go to the top priority in the list, up to a pre-determined limit, and then to the next highest priority on the list, up to a pre-determined limit, until the capital has been allocated. The Fund has established a list of capital priorities which is reviewed on a quarterly basis or after each substantial capital placement. The list of capital priorities is developed by comparing the Fund's objectives and key performance indicators with available investment opportunities. The Fund takes into account the following when developing its list of capital priorities:

- Investment return measures: return on shareholder's capital, internal rate of return, investment multiples;
- Investment risk measures: downside risks, value at risk (scaled to the size of capital investment) and risk of capital loss;
- Business activity: whether it is a new company or new sector, and synergies with existing businesses;
- Impact on local economy: employment impact and contribution to sector growth; and
- Innovation measures: acquisition of patents and contribution to the domestic development of a highly educated workforce.

FUNDING PRINCIPLES

Pursuant to its investment policies, the Fund expects to invest at least SAR 150 billion within the Kingdom each year for the next 10 years. The Fund is also expected to invest an aggregate amount of SAR 1 trillion in the local economy over the next five years, and an aggregate amount of SAR 3 trillion in the local economy over the next 10 years.

Sources of Funds

The Fund funds its activities through the following sources:

1. retained earnings from investments;
2. capital injections from the Government;
3. Government assets transferred to the Fund; and
4. loans and debt instruments.

For the year ended 31 December 2023, the Group's dividends received / receivable from associates and joint ventures amounted to SAR 5,392 million on a consolidated basis. For the years ended 31 December 2023 and 31 December 2022, the Group's total dividends received (comprising: (i) dividends received from subsidiaries; (ii) dividends received from associates, and (iii) dividends received from equities) amounted to SAR 47,803 million and SAR 28,619 million, respectively, each on an unconsolidated and unaudited basis.

In 2020, the Government transferred US$40 billion to the Fund. In addition, on 13 February 2022, HRH The Crown Prince announced the transfer of 4 per cent (4%) of Saudi Aramco's shares to the Fund. On 16 April 2023, HRH The Crown Prince announced the transfer of a further 4 per cent (4%) of Saudi Aramco's shares to Sanabil (as defined below), a portfolio company of the Fund. On 7 March 2024, HRH the Crown Prince announced the transfer of a further 8 per cent (8%) of Saudi Aramco's shares to fully owned companies of the Fund. The transfers were structured as private transactions between the Government and the Fund.

The scale of the Fund’s current and projected asset base, and its limited level of financial leverage, provides the Fund with a considerable scope to incur indebtedness while remaining at a conservative level of leverage.

On 17 July 2024, the Fund entered into a US$15 billion revolving credit facility (the “2024 RCF”). The 2024 RCF replaces the previous $15 billion revolving credit facility agreed in 2021 and is offered for an initial period of three years. The 2024 RCF was signed with a diverse global syndicate of 23 financial institutions. As of the date of this Offering Circular, the 2024 RCF remains undrawn.

The majority of the Fund’s equity funding is SAR-denominated. The Fund’s long-term funding strategy aims to rebalance this capital structure through diversifying its funding sources, including issuing debt (while retaining a conservative leverage ratio and strong credit metrics).

Capital Recycling

The Fund also aims to monetise its equity holdings through a “capital recycling” approach to its investment portfolio, whereby it may partially exit from strong and established industry leaders in both the local and international equity markets and reinvest in certain emerging sectors. The Fund will recycle available capital by following a three-tier approach based on the available pipeline of investment opportunities. Recent disposals made in line with the Fund’s strategy of recycling capital includes: (i) the sale of the Fund’s 70 per cent (70%) stake in SABIC for US$69.1 billion in 2020; (ii) the listing of ACWA Power on the Tadawul in October 2021; (iii) the sale of a minority stake in Saudi Telecom in December 2021; (iv) the IPO of Saudi Tadawul Group Holding Company in December 2021 and the follow-on sale of 12 million shares of Saudi Tadawul Group Holding Company in November 2022; and (v) the sale of the Fund’s 10.92 per cent (10.92%) stake in National Gas and Industrialization Company in September 2023. Recent investments made in line with the Fund’s strategy of recycling capital and recent notable investments include: (i) the Fund’s US$1.3 billion investment in Reliance Retail Ventures Limited in November 2020; (ii) the Fund’s acquisition of Newcastle United Football Club on 7 October 2021 along with PCP Capital Partners and RB Sports & Media; (iii) the Fund’s acquisition of up to 9.5 per cent (9.5%) of Skyborn Renewables alongside Global Infrastructure Partners in December 2022; (iv) the Fund’s acquisition of a 30 per cent (30%) stake in Saudi District Cooling Company (Saudi Tabreed) in February 2023; (v) the Fund’s US$1.3 billion investment, in Nesma & Partners Contracting Company, ElSeif Engineering Contracting Company, AlBawani Holding Company, and AlMabani General Contractors Company in February 2023; (vi) the 2023 subscription of new shares in Tamimi Markets, one of the Kingdom’s leading grocery chains, in June 2023; (vii) the acquisition of a 61.9 per cent (61.9%) stake in Saudi Iron & Steel Company in May 2024; and (viii) the acquisition of a 23.08 per cent (23.08%) stake in Middle East Paper Company, an enterprise in the recycling of paper products in January 2024.

This “capital recycling” approach is expected to also benefit the Fund’s portfolio companies themselves through: (i) access to additional sources of funding for future growth plans; (ii) closer public market scrutiny ensuring increased focus on financial disclosures, governance and reporting; (iii) increased market visibility; and (iv) providing funding for investments. If the asset is already a publicly listed company, the Fund may consider decreasing its ownership interest, although it may still aim to retain a majority stake. The proceeds received from the monetisation can then be used to fund the investment pipeline pursuant to the asset allocation strategy, subject to the overall objectives of the Fund and the Kingdom.

SABIC Disposal

In 2020, the Fund completed the sale of a 70 per cent (70%) stake in SABIC to Saudi Aramco, for a total price of US$69.1 billion, as part of the Fund’s strategy of recycling capital. Pursuant to the original agreement, the purchase price was to be paid over nine instalments between 2020 and 2028 pursuant to a seller loan provided by the Fund represented by nine tranches of promissory notes denominated in U.S. dollars (the “Aramco Promissory Notes”). Between June 2022 and May 2023, Saudi Aramco fully repaid the Aramco Promissory Notes.

For further details, see “—PIF Strategy (2021-2025)—Diversify Funding and Strengthen the Fund’s Balance Sheet” above.

On 9 January 2023, HRH The Crown Prince announced the Diriyah Project as the Fund's fifth Giga-Project. As part of the Diriyah Project, the historic city of Diriyah will be transformed into a lifestyle destination to showcase the Kingdom's culture and history through the delivery of heritage experiences, educational and cultural opportunities, residential living and lifestyle offerings (to include shopping, entertainment and dining experiences). At the heart of the development is the Turaif District UNESCO World Heritage Site. Once complete, tourists will have the opportunity to explore the Kingdom's history and culture at Diriyah's museums and purpose-built pavilions. Established by Royal Order in 2017, the Diriyah Gate Development Authority will continue its regulatory and supervisory role in maintaining the heritage and history of Diriyah.

The Diriyah Project is expected to support many strategic domestic sectors, create partnerships with the local private sector and unlock new investment opportunities at all stages of its development and production, including in sectors such as construction, tourism, retail, entertainment and culture. The Diriyah Project is also expected to create a large number of new job opportunities and to provide a series of initiatives designed to contribute to enriching the quality of life for residents and the experience of visitors to Diriyah.

The Diriyah Project aligns with the Fund's strategy to focus on unlocking the capabilities of promising sectors, including the tourism and culture sectors, and to support the Kingdom's position regionally and internationally as a leading tourism and cultural destination.

International Diversified Pool

The International Diversified Pool includes international global investments in public and private markets, diversified across fixed income, equity, hedge funds, real estate and infrastructure. International investments are those that are not domiciled in the Kingdom or the MENA region. This investment pool's objective is to generate strong long-term returns that provide a source of future income.

Recently, the Fund has developed connections with various asset managers, investment banks, and international brokerage companies to become one of the world's largest investors. Such measures have led to its significant growth in commitments and investments with various global fund managers across multiple asset classes, such as public and private equity, credit, real estate and infrastructure, in different geographical areas.

Within this investment pool, the majority of assets are externally managed, with 39 per cent (39%) of assets being internally managed by the Fund as at 31 December 2023. Investments in this asset pool are organised into two liquidity tiers: tier 1 (working capital) ("Tier 1 Assets") and tier 2 (medium term investments) ("Tier 2 Assets").

Tier 1 Assets are expected to be used to cover the Fund's near-term disbursements. These assets are primarily invested in bank deposits and money market funds or similar investment products. The overall portfolio is expected to maintain an average credit quality sufficient to minimise the probability of credit losses and a maturity profile reasonably consistent with projections of near-term expenditures. Tier 1 Assets are expected to have maturities of 397 days or less.

Tier 2 Assets are expected to be used to cover projected expenditures beyond one year and borrowing expenses at the Fund level, while also acting as a contingency reserve if working capital in Tier 1 Assets unexpectedly becomes depleted due to spending requirements, market stress or other unanticipated reasons. Tier 2 Assets are expected to be invested primarily to generate income and capital appreciation from high quality, low risk investments. Tier 2 Assets may also include equity investments limited to diversified exchange traded funds and equity index tracker funds, which reference broad market equity indices or similar investments.

COMPETITION

As the sovereign wealth fund of the Kingdom, the Fund has a unique mandate, meaning there are few organisations that undertake the same activities as the Fund. However, the Fund does face competition from international competitors which may be interested in pursuing similar investments, and certain of the Fund's business units and/or managed investments face competition in their specific business areas. The nature and extent of this competition, and its effect on the Fund as a whole, varies depending on the business concerned. Notwithstanding, the Fund is diversifying its activities to limit its exposure to risks associated with over-concentration.

LITIGATION

Neither the Fund nor the Trustee is involved in any litigation, arbitration or administrative proceedings relating to claims which could have a material adverse effect on its financial condition and results of operations or is aware of any such litigation, arbitration or administrative proceeding that is pending or threatened.

ENVIRONMENT, SOCIAL AND GOVERNANCE

The Fund aims to take a leadership role with respect to ESG among sovereign wealth funds and the broader global investment community, which will in turn support the Kingdom in achieving its Vision 2030 targets regarding ESG. The Fund has already taken significant steps towards achieving this goal, such as being a founding member of the One Planet SWF Network, an initiative in which a group of leading sovereign wealth funds work together to accelerate efforts to transition to a low greenhouse gas emissions economy and address the risks related to climate change in the management of large, long-term and diversified asset pools. In addition, the Fund has committed to achieve net-zero emissions by 2050. Furthermore, the Fund has also launched several internal initiatives, such as:

1. incorporating the Paris Climate Change Agreement in the investment decision process, in line with a Royal Decree issued in 2016;
2. referencing ESG in the Fund's Investment Policy Statement;
3. developing a Responsible Investing Policy focused on integrating ESG factors in investment decisions;
4. actively engaging with portfolio companies on ESG and screening companies for alignment with the Fund's ESG values using proprietary ESG performance management frameworks; and
5. incorporating ESG considerations into the investment sourcing process.

On 21 March 2022, the Fund announced that Saudi Aramco, SAUDIA, ACWA Power, MA'ADEN and ENOWA (a subsidiary of Neom) (the "Partners") have each signed a separate non-binding memorandum of understanding to become the first potential partners of the MENA Regional Voluntary Carbon Market Company. The VCM aims to connect the supply of carbon credits with demand from investors, corporates and institutions wanting to reduce their carbon footprint by offsetting carbon emissions they generate as they work towards net zero targets. As part of the agreement, the Partners will support the Fund in the development of the VCM through the supply, purchase and trading of carbon credits. On 25 October 2022, the Fund auctioned 1.4 million tons of carbon credits at the VCM with the facilitation of the Regional Voluntary Carbon Market Company, held on the first day of the 6th Edition of the Future Investment Initiative in Riyadh. The auction's success demonstrated the growing demand for carbon credits as a means to offset greenhouse gas emissions and promote environmental stewardship. The proceeds generated from the auction will be channeled towards initiatives that contribute to environmental conservation and climate resilience.

On 14 June 2023, the Regional Voluntary Carbon Market Company auctioned more than 2.2 million metric tons of carbon credits in Nairobi, Kenya. This was the largest-ever voluntary carbon credit auction. A total of 16 Saudi and international businesses participated in the purchase of carbon credits at the auction, including Saudi Aramco, SEC and ENOWA (a subsidiary of Neom).

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

The ownership and control of intellectual property generated by the Fund and its portfolio companies is an important consideration for the Fund when negotiating new joint ventures. Broadly, where practicable, the Fund endeavours to ensure that any intellectual property developed remains in the ownership of the joint venture and also aims to ensure that such intellectual property is protected against infringement using appropriate tools available.

INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY

The Fund's IT department is responsible for designing, implementing, and maintaining state-of-the-art digital and technology capabilities in order to empower and enable the Fund to achieve the PIF Program, and in turn, Vision 2030. The IT department delivers services and technological solutions that facilitate the execution and completion of diverse projects within the Fund's business units.

The Fund leverages a robust structured framework to manage IT capabilities and services end-to-end. This framework covers all aspects of the technology capabilities that help drive and enable business to manage their core functionalities, including the IT strategic mandate, the enterprise architecture and the IT operating model.

The framework is designed with cybersecurity as its overarching goal. First, the framework aims to identify the business requirements that the Fund's IT department needs to respond to. The IT department takes into account the IT strategic mandate in order to align its processes and systems with the overall organisation strategy. The IT department also considers the enterprise architecture in order help the management to best provide digital and technology services to different divisions of the Fund. Lastly, the framework embraces the IT organisational and functioning model, which includes people, processes and governance factors that assist the Fund to achieve its objectives efficiently and effectively.

Currently, the Fund is in the process of transitioning from a traditional technology structure into a new strategically focused structure. From a process and technology perspective, the Fund is moving away from the waterfall processes and a development-focused approach, towards leaner project management and more agile processes in order to achieve hybrid solutions. From a governance perspective, the Fund aims to create a more collaborative environment for better decision-making and to embrace a growth-oriented mindset when providing digital solutions. From an organisational structure perspective, instead of traditionally siloed, large, fixed teams, the Fund seeks to adopt smaller but more agile, integrated and cross-functional teams.

RELATIONSHIP WITH THE GOVERNMENT

Introduction

The Fund is the sovereign wealth fund of the Kingdom. Pursuant to the PIF Law, the Fund's mandate is to invest its assets in accordance with the highest standards to maximise returns for the benefit of the public welfare, to support the Kingdom's economic development and to diversify its sources of income, in the interests of future generations. The Fund is an instrumentality of the Kingdom with financial autonomy, as well as independence, in carrying out its investment management and day to day operational activities. The Fund is organisationally connected to the CEDA, whose chairman, HRH Prince Mohammed bin Salman bin Abdulaziz Al Saud, Crown Prince of Saudi Arabia and Prime Minister of the Kingdom, acts as the chairman of the Board.

The Fund plays an integral role in the Vision 2030 strategy by seeking to generate sustainable long-term economic benefits for the Kingdom. Through its investment activities, the Fund contributes to the diversification of the Kingdom's economy and the promotion of growth within selected industries and sectors that have a high potential for growth and hold commercial value, therefore contributing to the development of the Kingdom's economy and stimulation of private sector growth.

The Fund's Role in the Kingdom's Vision 2030 Strategy

The Fund plays a fundamental role in implementing the Kingdom's Vision 2030 strategy, a comprehensive agenda of socio-economic reforms with the aim of achieving fundamental economic, social and structural changes in the Kingdom by the year 2030 (see "Overview of the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia—Vision 2030").

The CEDA has identified 11 executive programmes with the aim of achieving the strategic goals of Vision 2030. With its mandate broadened, the Fund was entrusted with a strategic role within Vision 2030 to lead the national economic transformation for positive, sustainable change in the Kingdom.

The Fund is charged with the following strategic objectives as part of Vision 2030:

- to grow the assets of the Fund;
- to unlock new sectors;
- to localise cutting-edge technology and knowledge; and
- to build strategic economic partnerships.

The Fund is also involved as an enabler for other strategic programmes within the Kingdom. As a result, the Fund collaborates with other VRPs, investing in opportunities that are commercially viable across sectors in the Kingdom, provided those opportunities also align with the Fund's strategy and investment requirements.

In January 2021, the Fund announced its five-year strategy, including the PIF Program. As part of the strategy, the Fund, among other initiatives, plans to: (a) invest a minimum of US$40 billion annually in domestic projects and investments; (b) contribute US$320 billion to non-oil GDP cumulatively through its portfolio companies; (c) increase AUM to over US$1.07 trillion; and (d) create 1.8 million direct and indirect jobs by the end of 2025. The Fund aims to act as a primary driver of economic growth and diversification for the Kingdom by developing strategic sectors and solid economic partnerships.

The Fund has identified the following 13 strategic sectors which will constitute a priority in the local market, in order to achieve the best results which can support the national economy: aerospace and defence; automotive; transport and logistics; food and agriculture; construction and building components and services; entertainment, leisure and sports; financial services; real estate; utilities and renewables; metals and mining; healthcare; consumer goods and retail; and telecom, media and technology. Investments in the aforementioned sectors are expected to contribute to the achievement of the targets set in Vision 2030, and the Fund and its subsidiaries aim to contribute SAR 1.2 trillion to the non-oil GDP, cumulatively, by the end of 2025.

Government Oversight

The Fund became organisationally connected to the CEDA pursuant to Article 5 of Council of Ministers' Resolution No. 270 dated 3/6/1436H (corresponding to 23 March 2015) and is a distinct public legal entity with full administrative and financial autonomy, exercising absolute independence in carrying out its investment management and day to day operational activities, as ratified pursuant to Article 2 of Royal Decree No. M/92. The Fund makes periodic reports to the CEDA, which is one of two sub-cabinets of the Kingdom and oversees the Kingdom's domestic economic and development affairs (see "Description of the Public Investment Fund—History"). Whilst the CEDA, as part of its role, oversees the overall general performance of the Fund, the CEDA is not involved, in any way, with the Fund's investment decisions or the management of its investments, nor with the appointment of the board members of its portfolio companies.

The Fund maintains administrative and financial autonomy from the Government (including the CEDA) in the operation of its business and the management of its portfolio investments. The Board is responsible for the Fund's investment policies and has general oversight over all of the Fund's strategic activities, whilst day-to-day operations, in addition to selected strategic decisions, are delegated by the Board to the Fund's senior management team (see "Management and Employees—Management"). The Fund's investment process is operated entirely through its internal management committees (see "Description of the Public Investment Fund—Planning and Investment Process").

Pursuant to Article 7 of the PIF Law, the Board is obliged to submit to the CEDA those internal bylaws ("Bylaws") and policies ("Policies") of the Fund (or any amendment thereto) that regulate the following matters:

- setting investment strategies, policies, and procedures, including targeted returns; and the mechanism for deciding on an investment, monitoring its performance, and exiting therefrom (however, as noted above, the decisions made under that mechanism are taken solely by the Fund);
- setting a policy for distribution of Fund profits;
- setting risk management procedures and systems;
- determining the accounting standards and policies for drafting and auditing the Fund's financial statements, and determining the beginning and end of the fiscal year;
- approving the Fund's loans and other forms of debt, including issuing sukuk and bonds, in accordance with relevant rules, as well as any rules and procedures that regulate the Board's activities (including calling for and holding meetings, and voting on decisions); and
- not less than 15 days or more than 30 days from the entry into force of such Bylaws and Policies, following which the CEDA may direct the Board to make any amendments to those Bylaws and Policies.

The Fund is also required to submit to the CEDA an annual report within 210 days from the end of the Fund's fiscal year. Pursuant to Article 24 of the PIF Law, the CEDA may, upon reviewing the Fund's report of the preceding fiscal year, direct the Board to take any action the CEDA deems appropriate in relation to the matters set out in that report, which sets out the financial accounts and audited financial statements of PIF.

Contributions from the Government

The Government has historically provided financial support to the Fund in the form of monetary contributions. The Government has also historically made non-monetary contributions to the Fund from time to time, including in the form of contributions of equity securities and land transfers.

There is no specific budget to determine the amount of funding the Fund receives from the Government, and the Fund is not a recipient of the Government's annual general budget allocations. However, the Government has stated its intention to implement its development plans either through the Kingdom's general budget or through the role played by the Fund and other development funds in the Kingdom. For example, in March and April 2020, SAR 150 billion (US$40 billion) was transferred from the Government to the Fund, in February 2022 the Government transferred 4 per cent (4%) of Saudi Aramco's shares to the Fund, in April 2023 a further 4 per cent (4%) of Saudi Aramco's shares were transferred to Sanabil, a portfolio company of the Fund, and in March 2024, a further 8 per cent (8%) of Saudi Aramco's shares were transferred to fully owned companies of the Fund.

As set out in the 2023 Audited Consolidated Financial Statements, the value of the Government's contributions to the Fund amounted to SAR 317.5 billion and SAR 310.2 billion in the years ended 31 December 2022 and 31 December 2023, respectively. As at 31 December 2023, the total contribution from the Government to the Fund amounted to SAR 1,308 billion.

The Fund expects that its future capital and investment expenditure will largely be funded by capital injections from the Government, Government asset transfers, loans and debt instruments, and retained earnings from investments.

Distributions of Dividends to the Government

Subject to the approval of the Board, the Fund may, from time to time, make distributions of dividends to the Government (see further "Risk Factors— The Government has the right to request that the Board consider distributions of the Fund's profits or assets to the Government").

As set out in the 2023 Audited Consolidated Financial Statements, the Fund's distributions to the Government amounted to nil for the year ended 31 December 2023 (31 December 2022: nil). The Group's deemed dividends amounted to SAR 835 million and SAR 528 million in the years ended 31 December 2022 and 31 December 2023, respectively. Deemed dividends comprise the payments made by the Fund due to the actions of the Government where the Fund is not the owner of the assets or obligated for liabilities resulting from the Government's actions.

MANAGEMENT AND EMPLOYEES

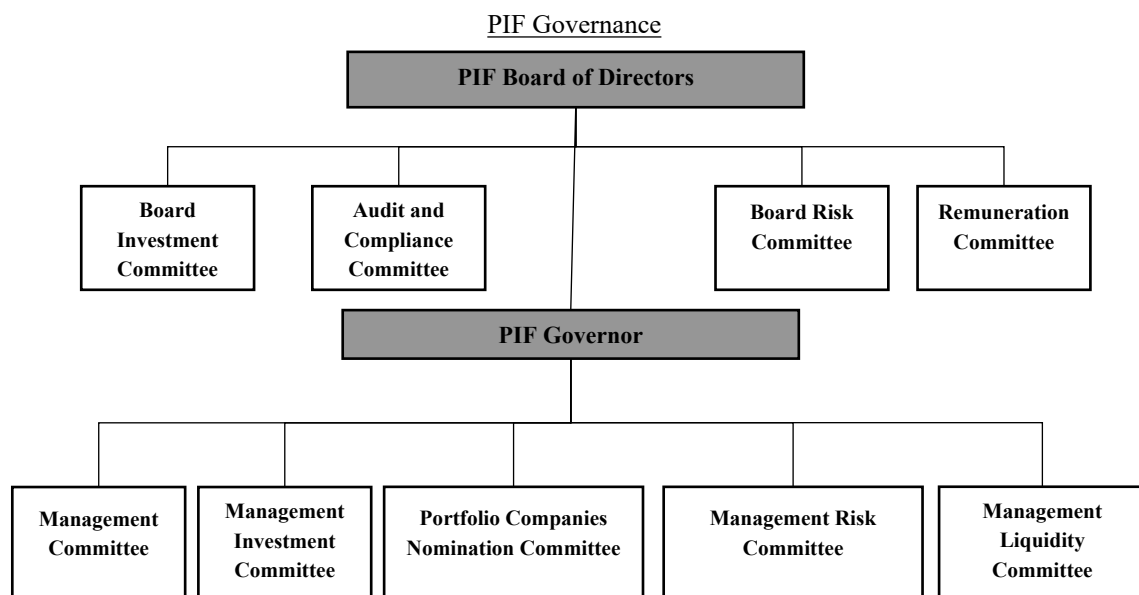

MANAGEMENT

The Fund was established in accordance with Royal Decree No. M/24 dated 25/06/1391H (corresponding to 18 August 1971) as the investment arm under the supervision of the MoF, and with the issuance of resolution No. 270 by the Council of Ministers on 3/6/1436H (corresponding to 23 March 2015), the oversight of the Fund transferred from the MoF to the CEDA, which is a subset of the Saudi Cabinet. Accordingly, the Board was reconstituted with His Royal Highness Prince Mohammed bin Salman bin Abdulaziz Al Saud, Crown Prince, Prime Minister and Chairman of the CEDA, becoming the Chairman of the Fund. This change broadened the Fund's mandate and expanded its scope to play a strategic national role in the Kingdom's economic transformation which the Kingdom is currently going through. Furthermore, the Fund is one of the cornerstones of Vision 2030, and plays a vital role in supporting the achievement of Vision 2030's objectives and targets.

After issuance of the Royal Decree No. M/92 dated 12/08/1440H (corresponding to 18 April 2019), the PIF Law was approved in order to regulate the Fund's activities, emphasize the Fund's status as a distinct public entity with full administrative and financial autonomy and highlight that the objectives of the Fund are: to invest its funds and assets in accordance with the highest standards; to achieve returns for the purpose of serving the Kingdom's public interest; to contribute to the economic development of the Kingdom and diversify its sources of income; and to take into account the interest of future generations by investing sustainably.

The objectives described above are empowered with the authorities granted to the Fund pursuant to the PIF Law in order for it to carry out its mandate. As set out in the PIF Law, the Fund is empowered to invest both inside and outside the Kingdom, to own and dispose of assets (including real estate, rights in rem, shares, securities, foreign currencies, commodities and financial derivatives) and to set up companies and other special purpose entities. The Fund is also permitted to participate in lending and other forms of financing, and to enter into loans and other forms of indebtedness, including issuing sukuks and bonds.

In accordance with the PIF Law, its Board manages and supervises the affairs of the Fund, and ensures the realisation of its goals and implementation of its powers as per the bylaws of the Fund. To that end, the Fund has the authority to approve and issue internal rules and policies. Different administrative levels are interconnected under the supervision of the Board to ensure transparent communication, effective work and significant progress, in order to achieve specific and clear results. The Board is supported by its four sub-committees, each of which comprises expert members in their fields, and is further enabled by a well-qualified management team (the "Executive Management"), as illustrated in the chart below.

The Board

Under the chairmanship and guidance of HRH Prince Mohammed bin Salman bin Abdulaziz Al Saud, the Board is composed of several independent and seasoned experts from a range of fields. Such diversity of knowledge means that multiple aspects and perspectives of an issue are covered before a Board decision is taken, which assists the Fund in continuing to play a leading role in the Kingdom's economic development and ensures proper alignment with other public entities and initiatives. Moreover, the Board is responsible for overseeing the Fund's long-term strategy, investment policy and performance. The Board has four key areas of responsibility:

1. Core activities: investment-related decisions;
2. Control activities: audit, compliance and risk management;
3. Support activities: recruitment and remuneration; and
4. Planning and monitoring activities: strategy and planning; governance and oversight; and reporting and monitoring.

Board Level committees

The Board and the committee governance system is based on the need to ensure precision in operation oversight and alignment with the Fund's strategy. Four sub-committees were established to ensure the Board receives adequate advice on its key focus areas, and exercises its delegate authorities accordingly.

Board Investment Committee

The Board Investment Committee reviews and endorses the Fund's investment activities, namely investments in and governance of portfolio companies, new direct and indirect investments, establishment of new companies, asset transfers and investment policy. The members of this committee, except for His Excellency the Governor, are all non-executive members with local and international expertise in different fields.

Audit and Compliance Committee

The Audit and Compliance Committee approves the internal and external audit plans, reviews audit reports and the financial statements. It also exercises oversight over the Fund's compliance with all applicable laws and regulations and adherence to international standards of conducting business, including the addressing of financial crime risk. All members of this committee are non-executive members who offer their knowledge in the fields of audit, compliance and internal control to ensure the Fund operations are on the right track and match best practices around the globe.

Board Risk Committee

This committee ensures that investments comply with risk management policies. It also prepares a risk appetite statement and formulates mitigation plans to avoid any risks the Fund might encounter during its investment and non-investment activities.

Remuneration Committee

This committee has oversight of the overall remuneration pool relating to each senior management member, the compensation policy for external members in the Fund committees and the compensation and benefits scheme linked to the performance management of employees.

Delegation of Authority

As the Fund matured in its operations, it attracted subject matter experts to guide the delivery of its projects. To ensure efficient operation of the Fund while enticing professional diverse opinions on the feasibility or otherwise of investments, these specialists were integrated with the Fund's governance structure and Executive Management. Consequently, the Board recognised the need to review and amend the extent of delegated authority. It also mandated periodic reporting activities to ensure that proper monitoring of the execution of these delegated authorities are in place. As part of this process, more responsibilities were also entrusted to each sub-committee.

The Executive Management team subsequently developed a mechanism for delegating authority to each function of the Fund and highlighted the roles and responsibilities of all management level committees. Such a governance model enables the Fund to achieve its aspirations to become a global investment powerhouse that diversifies the economy and empowers the private sector to make well-informed decisions. The model also contributes towards the Fund's aspirations to be the leading institution to partner with active investors who deliver valuable input and global impact. The governance model delivers a strong level of oversight and control, with the right level of guidance. This balance helps overcome challenges and mitigates risks that might affect the smooth operation of daily activities. Additionally, the Fund has established audit, compliance and risk functions to ensure proper controls are in place.

The Fund's Executive Management

The Fund's Executive Management consists of 14 executives, in addition to His Excellency the Governor. The members of the Executive Management team hold the appropriate level of knowledge to lead the activities within their designated fields and to achieve the desired goals and objectives of the Fund. The 14 executives are experienced in various disciplines, both locally and internationally, and were recruited from top tier organisations around the globe to assist the Fund in achieving its targets.

OVERVIEW OF THE KINGDOM OF SAUDI ARABIA

Geography

The Kingdom comprises a land area of approximately 2,150,000 square kilometres, and is located in the Arabian Peninsula, a peninsula of south-west Asia situated north-east of Africa. The Kingdom has coastlines on the Red Sea to the west and the Arabian Gulf to the east. It is bordered in the north and north-east by the Hashemite Kingdom of Jordan and the Republic of Iraq, in the east by the State of Kuwait, the State of Qatar, and the United Arab Emirates, in the south-east by the Sultanate of Oman and in the south by the Republic of Yemen, and is connected to the Kingdom of Bahrain by the King Fahd Causeway. The Kingdom is the largest country in the GCC.

The capital city of the Kingdom is Riyadh. The Kingdom has undergone rapid urbanisation in recent decades and over 80 per cent (80%) of the population of the Kingdom currently lives in cities, with approximately half the population of the Kingdom being concentrated in the six largest cities of Riyadh, Jeddah, Makkah, Medina, Ta'if and Dammam. Makkah, the birthplace of the Prophet Muhammad (peace be upon him (“PBUH”)), is home to the Grand Mosque (al-masjid al-haram), which surrounds Islam’s holiest site (al-ka'bah), which is the direction of Muslim prayer. Medina on the other hand is the burial place of the Prophet Muhammad (PBUH), and is home to the Prophet’s Mosque (al-masjid an-nabawi) and is Islam’s second holiest city after Makkah.

In the west of the Kingdom, a geological exposure known as the Arabian-Nubian Shield contains various precious and basic metals such as gold, silver, copper, zinc, lead, tin, aluminium and iron and, mainly in the east of the Kingdom, extensive sedimentary formations contain various industrial minerals. The Kingdom’s deeper sedimentary formations in the eastern part of the country contain most of its proven and recoverable oil reserves.

Population and Demographics

The population of the Kingdom was estimated to be 32.2 million as of 2022, representing an increase of 4.5 per cent (4.5%) as compared to 30.8 million as of 2021. The Kingdom has a young population, with over 60 per cent (60%) of the population being under the age of 35 and over 50 per cent (50%) under the age of 30 in 2022 (source: GASTAT).

The non-Saudi portion of the Kingdom’s total population comprises expatriates from neighbouring states as well as significant numbers of expatriates from Asia (mostly from India, Pakistan, Bangladesh, Indonesia and the Philippines), Europe, the Americas and other countries around the world. The official language of the Kingdom is Arabic, although English is widely spoken.

Government and Political System

The Kingdom is a monarchy with a political system rooted in the traditions and culture of Islam. The Custodian of the Two Holy Mosques, the King of Saudi Arabia (the “King”), is the head of state and presides over meetings of the Council of Ministers which the King attends. Royal Decree No. A/90 dated 27/08/1412H (corresponding to 1 March 1992) (the “Basic Law of Governance”) provides that the Holy Quran and Sunnah (the teachings of the Prophet Muhammad (PBUH)) form the primary sources of law in the Kingdom. The Basic Law of Governance specifies that the King must be chosen from among the sons of the founding King, the Late King Abdulaziz bin Abdul Rahman Al Saud (“King Abdulaziz”), and their male descendants. In 2006, the Allegiance Commission (hay'at al-bay'ah) was established, to determine which member of the royal family will be the next King and the next Crown Prince, comprising: (i) the surviving sons of King Abdulaziz; (ii) a son of every deceased/incapacitated son of King Abdulaziz; and (iii) a son of the incumbent King and one son of the incumbent Crown Prince, both appointed by the incumbent King. The current King, Custodian of the Two Holy Mosques King Salman bin Abdulaziz Al Saud, acceded to the throne on 23 January 2015. The current Crown Prince is HRH Prince Mohammed bin Salman bin Abdulaziz Al Saud, who also holds the positions that include Prime Minister, Chairman of the Council for Economic and Development Affairs and Chairman of the Council for Political and Security Affairs.

The Kingdom is divided into 13 provinces, each of which has a governor and a provincial council. The provincial councils are empowered to determine the development needs of their respective provinces, make recommendations and request appropriations in the annual budget. The Kingdom’s 13 provinces comprise Riyadh, Makkah, Medina, the Eastern Province, Asir, Al-Baha, Tabuk, Al-Qassim, Ha’il, Al-Jouf, the Northern Borders, Jizan and Najran. These provinces are further divided into 118 governorates, which are in turn sub-divided into municipalities. Pursuant to the Law of Regulation of Municipalities and Rural Areas, issued by Royal Decree No. 5/M in 1977, the term of each municipal council is two years and half of the members of any municipal council must be chosen by elections, while the other half are appointed by the Minister of Municipalities and Housing. In 2015, women were allowed to stand for election to, and vote for the members of, the municipal councils.

Council of Ministers (Majlis Al-Wuzara)

The Crown Prince is the Prime Minister of the Council of Ministers (majlis al-wuzara). The King presides over meetings of the Council of Ministers which the King attends. The Council of Ministers was established by Royal Decree in 1953, and currently comprises the Prime Minister, 25 Ministers with portfolios and 11 Ministers of State. The Council of Ministers is selected by the King and is responsible for, among other things, executive and administrative matters such as foreign and domestic policy, defence, finance, health and education. The King and executive officials at the national, provincial and local levels also hold regular meetings, which are open to members of the public and where members of the public may discuss issues and raise grievances.

In 1974, in accordance with the Law of the Council of Ministers, the Bureau of Experts (formerly known as the Department of Experts) was established to assist the Council of Ministers. The Bureau of Experts is responsible for, among other things, reviewing and studying cases referred to it by the Council of Ministers and its sub-committees, drafting new laws, proposing amendments to existing laws and drafting forms for High Orders, Royal Decrees and Council of Ministers Resolutions, which are then presented to the Council of Ministers for approval.

The Shura Council (Majlis Ash-Shura)

In 1992, in conjunction with the promulgation of the Basic Law of Governance, the Law of the Shura Council (Majlis Ash-Shura / Consultative Council) was introduced. The Shura Council comprises 150 members, of which at least 20 per cent (20%) must be females. The Chairperson, Vice Chairperson and General Secretary of the Shura Council are appointed or removed by the King. The Shura Council has the authority to propose, review and debate legislation, which is then presented to the Council of Ministers for approval. Legislation approved by the Council of Ministers only acquires the force of law once the King has issued his approval by way of a Royal Decree. However, the Council of Ministers or the relevant government ministry or authority may be delegated the power to enact further executive regulations that govern the implementation of such legislation.

Council of Political and Security Affairs and the Council of Economic and Development Affairs

In January 2015, a Royal Order was issued consolidating 12 existing Government councils and commissions under two new councils: (i) the Council of Political and Security Affairs (the “CPSA”); and (ii) the CEDA. The formation of the CPSA and the CEDA was intended to promote greater efficiency and productivity in the various branches of the Government and enhance co-ordination between Government entities, thereby leading to swift decision-making and execution of proposals.

Council of Political and Security Affairs

Vision 2030

On 25 April 2016, the Government announced its new strategy, known as "Vision 2030", which sets forth a comprehensive agenda of socio-economic reforms with the aim of achieving fundamental economic, social and structural changes in the Kingdom by the year 2030. Vision 2030 is based upon three fundamental existing strengths of the Kingdom: (i) its importance in the Arab and Islamic world; (ii) its leading investment capabilities; and (iii) its unique strategic geographical location with the ability to connect the three continents of Asia, Europe and Africa.

Vision 2030 focuses on three broad themes, each of which aims to capitalise on the Kingdom's existing strengths in its society, culture, heritage and economy. The three themes highlighted in Vision 2030 are societal development, economic reform and effective governance.

The key objectives of Vision 2030 include the diversification of the Kingdom's economy and decreased reliance upon oil-related revenues, boosting the private sector's role in the economy, lowering unemployment and raising non-oil revenue. Vision 2030 includes regulatory, budget and policy changes to be implemented in a phased manner. The Council of Ministers has delegated to the CEDA the overall responsibility for establishing and monitoring the measures required for the effective implementation of Vision 2030, and the CEDA has in turn established an integrated governance model to implement detailed programmes to attain the desired results.

Legal and Judicial System

Saudi law is derived from the Basic Law of Governance and legislation enacted in various forms, the most common of which are Royal Orders, Royal Decrees, High Orders, Council of Ministers resolutions, ministerial resolutions and ministerial circulars having the force of law.

The Kingdom follows a civil law system. The Kingdom's judicial system comprises the general courts, which have general jurisdiction over most civil and criminal cases, and specialised courts covering certain specific areas of law, including a system of administrative courts known as the Board of Grievances, Commercial Courts, Personal Status Courts, Penal Courts and a Specialised Criminal Court. There are also various adjudicatory or quasi-judicial committees with special jurisdiction over such matters as banking transactions, securities regulation, intellectual property, labour disputes, tax, electricity industry disputes and medical malpractice.

In 2007, the Government announced a restructuring of the judicial system, including the establishment of courts of appeal and a supreme court, as well as the merger of most special adjudicatory committees into the general courts, though exceptions were made for certain adjudicatory committees. The committees that are exempted from the 2007 reforms include the Banking Disputes Committee, the Committee for the Enforcement of the Banking Control Law and the Committee for Resolution of Insurance Disputes and Violations, each of which operates under the aegis of SAMA; the Committee for the Resolution of Securities Disputes, which operates under the aegis of the CMA; and the Committee for Resolution of Custom Duties Disputes. The 2007 reforms also proposed the transfer of jurisdiction over commercial disputes from the Board of Grievances to the commercial courts which started to hear disputes of a commercial nature pursuant to the Circular of the Supreme Court of Justice No. T/967 dated 01/01/1439H (corresponding to 22 September 2017). As part of the ongoing restructuring of the judicial system, personal status courts, courts of appeal and a supreme court have already been established.

The enforcement of judgments and arbitral awards (including foreign judgments and arbitral awards) against government entities (such as the Ministry of Finance) is subject to the Administrative Enforcement Law. Pursuant to the Administrative Enforcement Law, a circuit court of the Board of Grievances may issue an enforcement order against a government entity after notifying the government entity of the enforcement and the lapse of a warning period. The Administrative Enforcement Law came into force in August 2023. See “Risk Factors Relating to Enforcement—Certificateholders may only be able to enforce the Certificates through arbitration before the LCIA”. Pursuant to the Insolvency Law issued by Royal Decree No. M/50 dated 28/5/1439H (corresponding to 13 February 2018) as amended by Royal Decree No. M/89 dated 9/7/1441H (corresponding to 4 March 2020), which came into effect in August 2018, the Board of Grievances’ exclusive jurisdiction to supervise insolvency and bankruptcy proceedings relating to commercial entities was transferred to the Commercial Courts.

Judicial departments known as “Enforcement Departments” staffed by specialised “enforcement judges” have exclusive jurisdiction to consider the enforcement of foreign judgments and arbitral awards obtained against private entities and individuals. The Enforcement Departments may, at their discretion, enforce all or any part of a foreign judgment or arbitral award, subject to certain conditions, which include compliance of such judgment or award with public policy in the Kingdom.

The Public Prosecution (formerly known as the Bureau of Investigation and Public Prosecution) is an independent government body belonging to the judiciary that reports directly to the King, headed by a general prosecutor.

Economy

The Saudi economy has been resilient despite the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic as a result of, among others, the Government’s response measures. In 2020, the local economy was deeply impacted by the pandemic and the oil market crisis, resulting in one of the most severe recessions in decades.

In 2022, the Kingdom experienced a rapid recovery with its real GDP growth reaching a decade-high of 8.7 per cent (8.7%) year on year. The growth was primarily driven by the performance of the oil sector, which expanded by 15.4 per cent (15.4%) year on year. Oil production increased to an average of 10.59 million barrels per day in 2022, approximately 16.3 per cent (16.3%) higher than the average in 2021, which played a significant role in this growth. Additionally, the non-oil sector also grew by 5.4 per cent (5.4%) year on year.

In the second quarter of 2023, the Kingdom’s economy experienced a growth rate of 1.1 per cent (1.1%) year on year, down from the stronger growth of 3.8 per cent (3.8%) year on year observed in the previous quarter. The oil GDP of the Kingdom experienced a decline of 4.2 per cent (4.2%) year on year, mainly due to reductions in oil output compared to the previous year. This reduction in production was a result of the production cuts agreed upon during the April 2023 OPEC meeting. On the other hand, the non-oil sector continued to exhibit a solid recovery, with an annual growth rate of 5.5 per cent (5.5%) in the second quarter, in line with the growth seen in the first quarter of 2023. Additionally, government services, which constitute a significant component of GDP, experienced a rise of 2.7 per cent (2.7%) year on year.

In 2023, the Kingdom's real GDP experienced a 0.8 per cent (0.8%) fall year on year. The IMF revised its 2024 forecast for the Kingdom's real GDP growth, lowering it from 2.6 per cent (2.6%) to 1.7 per cent (1.7%). This revision represents a decrease of 0.9 per cent (0.9%) from IMF's April 2024 update.

Since registering 42.4 in 2020, the IHS Markit's Saudi Purchasing Managers' Index (PMI) registered 59.6 during June 2023 and nearing February 2023's eight-year high of 59.8. Similarly, the PMI held steady at 57.0 in April 2024. This positive reading signalled the ongoing robustness of the supply side of the economy. On the other hand, domestic demand also rose, partly driven by increased holiday spending, resulting in a surge in new orders and output.

Fiscally, total government expenditures are expected to increase to SAR 1,251 billion in 2024, while total revenues are projected to increase to SAR 1,172 billion. The higher than budgeted Government expenditure in fiscal year 2023 was mainly driven by the Government's response to the economic conditions and geopolitical challenges, including high global inflationary pressures, a food crisis, and the impact of supply chains on the domestic economy. The fiscal deficit for 2023 is estimated to be SAR 82 billion, while the fiscal deficit for 2024 is forecasted to be SAR 79 billion, as a result of the factors discussed above. By the end of 2023, the level of public debt was estimated to reach SAR 1,024 billion, or 24.8 per cent (24.8%) of GDP, as a result of bond issuances and the use of government reserves.

Inflation in the Kingdom averaged 2.5 per cent (2.5%) in 2022. The inflation rate in the Kingdom registered a year on year increase of 2.3 per cent (2.3%) in 2023. Housing, water, electricity, gas and other fuels were the main driver of the inflation rate and registered a 7.9 per cent (7.9%) increase year on year in 2023. Restaurants and hotels registered a 4.1 per cent (4.1%) increase year on year.

Despite the recent growth in the non-oil sector, oil revenue is the primary source of income for the Kingdom's economy. Traditionally, the Kingdom's economy has been constructed around the oil industry. However, the government has been implementing ambitious initiatives, including Vision 2030, to diversify the Kingdom's economy and sources of revenue, with the goal to reduce its dependence on oil revenues. According to the Kingdom's 2024 Budget, total revenues are forecasted to reach SAR 1,227 billion and SAR 1,259 billion in 2025 and 2026, respectively.

The Kingdom's economy has in the past been adversely affected by periods of low international oil prices, including in the first half of 2020, primarily due to the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic on the global economy and the increase in supply. Oil prices have recovered since April 2020, with the OPEC Reference Basket price generally fluctuating between US$54.38 and US$73.53 per barrel in the first half of 2021. Oil prices rose over the course of 2021 and 2022, as of 31 December 2022, the average OPEC Reference Basket price per barrel was US$81.29. Since the beginning of 2023, global oil prices have remained stable, and the average monthly OPEC Reference Basket price per barrel for September 2023 rose to US$94.60 and was US$78.44 as of 31 December 2023.

Notwithstanding the challenging economic conditions, according to data from the IMF, the Kingdom's economy is still estimated to have grown during 2020 as a result of ongoing government expenditure on development projects and continued structural and regulatory reforms aimed at achieving sustainable economic growth through diversifying the production base and increasing the contribution of the non-oil sector. However, real GDP decreased by 0.8 per cent (0.8%) in 2023, compared to an increase of 7.5 per cent (7.5%) in 2022. Data from GASTAT indicates that this is largely due to a slowdown in oil activities, with a decrease of 9 per cent (9%) in 2023, compared to an increase of 15 per cent (15%) in 2022. The non-oil sector experienced an increase of 4.4 per cent (4.4%) in 2023 compared to an increase of 5.6 per cent (5.6%) in 2022.

in each case, it shall immediately deliver written notice to the Trustee and the Delegate of such non-compliance or expected non-compliance, as the case may be, and the details thereof (each such notice referred to in paragraphs (f)(ii)(A) and (f)(ii)(B) being an "Initial Hedging Notice" and a "Hedging Renewal Notice", respectively); and

- (g) it shall, upon the crediting of any Substitution Shortfall Amount to the Collection Account pursuant to the Service Agency Agreement and/or the Co-ownership Undertaking, as the case may be, notify the Trustee in writing that such amount is freely available in connection with substitution of the relevant Substituted Wakala Assets for the New Wakala Assets; and

- (h) it shall carry out any incidental matters relating to any of the above.

The delivery of an Initial Hedging Notice (such event being an "Initial Hedging Event") or a Hedging Renewal Notice referred to in paragraph (f)(ii)(B) (such event being a "Hedging Renewal Event") to the Trustee and the Delegate pursuant to paragraph (f)(ii) above shall constitute an Obligor Event.

In relation to each relevant Series:

- (a) on each Hedging Date corresponding to a Dissolution Date or the Wakala Ownership Period End Date, the Service Agent has irrevocably and unconditionally undertaken to transfer the amounts (if any) credited to the Collection Account in accordance with paragraph (f)(i)(G) above in an amount equal to the lesser of (i) the amount so credited to the Collection Account and (ii) the applicable Hedging Required Amount, to the relevant Transaction Account; and

- (b) if, in relation to any Hedging Date:

- (i) an Initial Hedging Notice or a Hedging Renewal Notice has not been delivered by the Service Agent to the Trustee and the Delegate (A) (in the case of an Initial Hedging Notice) within 60 days of the Issue Date of the first Tranche of the relevant Series; or (B) (in the case of a Hedging Renewal Notice) within the 60 day period prior to the relevant issuance anniversary date and, in each case, prior to the Hedging Date; and

- (ii) the amount (if any) credited to the Collection Account pursuant to paragraph (f)(i)(G) above is less than the relevant Hedging Required Amount (the difference between the relevant Hedging Required Amount and the amount credited to the Collection Account being the “Hedging Shortfall Amount”), the Service Agent has irrevocably and unconditionally undertaken to:

- (A) (in the case of the Hedging Date corresponding to a substitution date or the last day of the Hedging Period which is not also a Wakala Ownership Period End Date) credit to the Collection Account the applicable Hedging Shortfall Amount on such relevant Hedging Date; and
- (B) (in the case of the Hedging Date corresponding to a Dissolution Date or the Wakala Ownership Period End Date) pay the Hedging Shortfall Amount directly (in same day, freely transferable, cleared funds) into the Transaction Account on such relevant Hedging Date.

Subject to paying the relevant amounts to the Transaction Account in accordance with paragraph (b) above, there will be no further claim against the Service Agent for failing to comply with its obligations in connection with the hedging arrangements.

The Service Agent has acknowledged and confirmed in the Service Agency Agreement that it is capable of performing the Services (including procuring each Hedging Arrangement) in accordance with the provisions of the Service Agency Agreement. Without prejudice to the Service Agent's entitlement to incur service agency liabilities amounts in accordance with the provisions of the Service Agency Agreement, the Service Agent has further confirmed, based on its due diligence, that it has the resources to perform its obligations as described above.

The Service Agent has also undertaken to the Trustee that, in relation to each Series it shall:

- (a) keep and maintain all documents, books, records and other information reasonably necessary or advisable in respect of all amounts received in respect of the Wakala Portfolio Revenues during the Wakala Ownership Period;
- (b) maintain actual or constructive possession, custody or control of all of the Wakala Assets comprised in the Wakala Portfolio at all times during the Wakala Ownership Period provided that, in each case, it is legally possible for the Service Agent to so maintain; and
- (c) not take any steps during the Wakala Ownership Period that will result in the Wakala Portfolio not comprising any Wakala Assets at any time.

In relation to each Series, if, following payment of amounts standing to the credit of the Reserve Account as described below, a shortfall remains on any Wakala Distribution Determination Date, the Service Agent may either (A) provide Shari'a compliant funding itself, or (B) procure Shari'a compliant funding from a third party, in each case, to the extent necessary to ensure that the Trustee receives, on each Wakala Distribution Determination Date, the Required Amount payable by it in accordance with the Conditions of the relevant Series on the immediately following Periodic Distribution Date, by payment of the same into the relevant Transaction Account and on terms that such funding will be payable: (i) from amounts standing to the credit of the Collection Account in accordance with the provisions of the Service Agency Agreement, or (ii) from the relevant exercise price payable pursuant to the terms of the Purchase Undertaking or the Sale and Substitution Undertaking, as the case may be, the relevant Hedging Required Amount payable pursuant to the terms of the Service Agency Agreement and/or the Shortfall Amount payable pursuant to the terms of the Co-ownership Undertaking, as the case may be (such funding in relation to a Series, a “Liquidity Facility”).

The Service Agent shall provide the Services in accordance with all applicable laws and regulations and with the degree of skill and care that it would exercise in respect of its own assets and service the Wakala Portfolio relating to each Series in accordance with generally accepted Shari'a principles.

The Service Agent shall be entitled to receive a fee for acting as service agent which comprises a fee of U.S.$100 (the receipt and adequacy of which is acknowledged by the Service Agent under the Service Agency Agreement) and may also receive incentive payments as described below.

In relation to each Series, as an advance payment to the Service Agent for service agency liabilities amounts to be paid or incurred by it in respect of the Services, the Trustee shall procure that an amount equal to the All Expenses Reserve Amount (being the amount specified as such in the applicable Wakala Services Particulars and which will be funded from a portion of the proceeds of the relevant Certificates) (and upon the issuance of an Additional Tranche of the relevant Series, any required increase to such All Expenses Reserve Amount as determined by the Service Agent in its sole discretion) (the adequacy of which the Service Agent hereby acknowledges) is credited to the Collection Account on the Issue Date of each Tranche.

Notwithstanding any other provision in the Service Agency Agreement, the Service Agent shall not incur or pay any liability in any wakala distribution period (“Wakala Distribution Period”) in respect of the Services to be performed in relation to the relevant Wakala Assets which, individually or in the aggregate, would exceed the All Expenses Reserve Amount (the amount by which such liability exceeds the All Expenses Reserve Amount, being the “Additional Service Agency Liabilities Amount”) unless:

- (a) a notice in writing requesting such incurrence or payment of Additional Service Agency Liabilities Amount has been submitted by the Service Agent to the Trustee; and
- (b) following such request, the Trustee has (subject to the prior consent of the Certificateholders) agreed in writing within one business day of the date of such request to pay to the Service Agent an amount equal to such Additional Service Agency Liabilities Amount.

The Service Agent has acknowledged and agreed that, following the delivery of such request, if the Trustee has not provided its agreement in accordance with paragraph (b) above (such event being an “Additional Service Agency Liabilities Amount Event”) then an Obligor Event shall occur.

If, during any Wakala Distribution Period, the Service Agent incurs or pays any such liability without first satisfying the conditions in paragraphs (a) and (b) above, then it shall be deemed to have unconditionally agreed to satisfy, donate and pay all such liabilities from its own account and the Trustee shall have no responsibility whatsoever in connection with such liability.

In the Service Agency Agreement, the Trustee and the Service Agent have agreed that, in relation to each Series and provided no Dissolution Event has occurred and is continuing, if, at any time, any Wakala Asset ceases to be an Eligible Asset, the Service Agent shall promptly deliver a substitution request to the Trustee.

In relation to each Series, the Service Agent will maintain two ledger accounts (such accounts being the “Collection Account” and the “Reserve Account”) in its books (each of which shall be denominated in the Specified Currency) in which all Wakala Portfolio Revenues will be recorded. All Wakala Portfolio Revenues in relation to each Series will be recorded in the Collection Account of such Series.

Amounts standing to the credit of the Collection Account relating to each Series will be applied by the Service Agent on each “Wakala Distribution Determination Date” (being the Business Day immediately preceding the relevant Periodic Distribution Date under the Certificates of the relevant Series) in the following order of priority:

- (a) first, in payment to the Service Agent or any relevant third party of any amounts advanced by it to the Trustee by way of a Liquidity Facility in respect of the relevant Series;

- (b) second, in payment into the relevant Transaction Account an amount equal to the lesser of the Required Amount payable on the immediately following Periodic Distribution Date and the balance of the Collection Account; and
- (c) third, any amounts still standing to the credit of the Collection Account immediately following payment of all of the above amounts shall be debited from the Collection Account and credited to the relevant Reserve Account.

Amounts standing to the credit of the Reserve Account relating to each Series shall be applied by the Service Agent as follows:

- (a) if there will be a shortfall on:
 - (i) a Wakala Distribution Determination Date (after payment into the Transaction Account of the relevant amount in accordance with paragraph (b) above);
 - (ii) the Wakala Ownership Period End Date (after payment into the Transaction Account of the relevant amounts payable in accordance with Service Agency Agreement and/or the other Transaction Documents), in each case between: (i) the amount standing to the credit of the relevant Transaction Account; and (ii) the Required Amount payable on the immediately following Periodic Distribution Date or such Wakala Ownership Period End Date, as the case may be (the difference between such amounts being referred to in this Agreement as a “Shortfall”), the Service Agent shall pay into the Transaction Account on that Wakala Distribution Determination Date, Wakala Ownership Period End Date, as the case may be, from the amounts standing to the credit of the Reserve Account (if any) an amount equal to the Shortfall (or such lesser amount as is then standing to the credit of the Reserve Account); and

- (b) the Service Agent shall be entitled to deduct amounts standing to the credit of the Reserve Account at any time during the Wakala Ownership Period and to use such amounts for its own account, provided that such amounts shall be repaid by it if so required to fund a Shortfall in accordance with paragraph (a) above or upon the occurrence of a Dissolution Event.

Following payment of all amounts due and payable under the Certificates on any Dissolution Date upon which all (but not some only) of the Certificates of the relevant Series are to be redeemed, the Service Agent shall be entitled to retain any amounts that remain standing to the credit of the Reserve Account or the Collection Account for its own account as an incentive payment for acting as Service Agent.

In the event that the Service Agent receives any non-Shari'a compliant revenues in the course of its collection of the Wakala Portfolio Revenues, the Service Agent has undertaken in the Service Agency Agreement that it shall pay such amounts to such Shari'a compliant charity or charities as nominated by the Service Agent and approved by the Sukuk Structuring Adviser.

The Service Agent has agreed in the Service Agency Agreement that all payments by it under the Service Agency Agreement must be made in the Specified Currency and without any withholding or deduction for any taxes unless required by law and without set off or counterclaim of any kind and, in such case, the Service Agent will pay all additional amounts as will result in the receipt by the Trustee of such net amounts as would have been receivable by it if no withholding or deduction had been made.

The Service Agent has undertaken in the Service Agency Agreement that any payment obligations of the Service Agent under the Service Agency Agreement constitute unconditional, unsubordinated and unsecured obligations of the Service Agent and (save for such exceptions as may be provided by applicable law) shall at all times rank at least pari passu with all other present and future unsecured and unsubordinated obligations of the Service Agent from time to time outstanding.

Purchase Undertaking

The Purchase Undertaking was executed as a deed on 16 October 2023 by PIF in favour of the Trustee and the Delegate, and is governed by English law.

In relation to each Series, PIF has irrevocably granted to the Trustee and the Delegate (in each case, on behalf of itself and the Certificateholders) each of the following rights:

- (b) to require PIF to purchase and accept the transfer and assignment, on the Scheduled Dissolution Date, of all of the Trustee's rights, title, interests, benefits and entitlements in, to and under the Wakala Assets comprised in the Wakala Portfolio applicable to such Series at the Exercise Price specified in the relevant Exercise Notice;

- (d) provided that a substitution request has been delivered by the Service Agent in accordance with the Service Agency Agreement, to require PIF to sell, transfer and assign to the Trustee on the substitution date all of PIF's (or a nominee's) rights, title, interests, benefits and entitlements in, to and under the new Wakala Assets against the transfer and assignment to PIF (or the relevant nominee) of all of the Trustee's rights, title, interests, benefits and entitlements in, to and under the substituted Wakala Assets, subject to certain conditions set out in the Purchase Undertaking, in each case, on an as is basis but free and clear of any adverse claim (without any warranty express or implied and if any warranty is implied by law, it shall be excluded to the fullest extent permitted by law) and otherwise on the terms and subject to the conditions of the Purchase Undertaking.

PIF has undertaken in the Purchase Undertaking that:

- (a) if, at the time of delivery of an exercise notice in accordance with the provisions of the Purchase Undertaking, the Public Investment Fund remains in actual or constructive possession, custody or control of, all or any part of the Wakala Assets or the Certificateholder Put Right Wakala Assets, as the case may be; and
- (b) if, following delivery of an exercise notice in accordance with the provisions of the Purchase Undertaking, PIF fails to pay the relevant Exercise Price or Certificateholder Put Right Exercise Price, as the case may be, in accordance with the provisions of the Purchase Undertaking for any reason whatsoever,

PIF shall (as an independent, severable and separately enforceable obligation) fully indemnify the Trustee for the purpose of redemption in full of the Certificates then outstanding or the relevant Certificates to be redeemed on the Certificateholder Put Right Date, as the case may be, and, accordingly, the amount payable under any such indemnity claim will equal the relevant Exercise Price or the Certificateholder Put Right Exercise Price, as the case may be. Payment in full of an amount equal to:

- (a) firstly, the lesser of: (i) the relevant Exercise Price or the Certificateholder Put Right Exercise Price, as the case may be; and (ii) an amount equal to the relevant Dissolution Distribution Amount, together with an amount equal to the amounts payable pursuant to Condition 5(b)(i), into the Transaction Account (by wire transfer for same day value); and
- (b) secondly, any remaining amount of the relevant Exercise Price or the Certificateholder Put Right Exercise Price, as the case may be, into the Collection Account, shall evidence the acceptance of the Exercise Notice by PIF delivered in accordance with the provisions of the Purchase Undertaking and the conclusion of the purchase, transfer and assignment of all of the Trustee's rights, title, interests, benefits and entitlements in, to and under the Wakala Assets or the Certificateholder Put Right Wakala Assets, as the case may be, and shall constitute full discharge of the obligation of PIF to pay the Exercise Price or the Certificateholder Put Right Exercise Price, as the case may be, to the Trustee (for the benefit of the Certificateholders). PIF has agreed in the Purchase Undertaking that all payments by it under the Purchase Undertaking must be made in the Specified Currency and without any withholding or deduction for any taxes unless required by law and without set off or counterclaim of any kind and, in such case, PIF will pay all additional amounts as will result in the receipt by the Trustee of such net amounts as would have been receivable by it if no withholding or deduction had been made.

PIF has undertaken in the Purchase Undertaking that any payment obligations of PIF under the Purchase Undertaking will constitute unconditional, unsubordinated and unsecured obligations of PIF and (save for such exceptions as may be provided by applicable law) shall at all times rank at least pari passu with all other present and future unsecured and unsubordinated obligations of PIF from time to time outstanding.

the Wakala Portfolio is not comprised solely of Listed Shares; and (ii) (A) the Value of such Optional Dissolution Wakala Assets shall not exceed the Optional Dissolution Proportion of the aggregate Value of the Wakala Assets of the relevant Series as at the date of the relevant Exercise Notice; and (B) immediately following such sale, transfer and assignment, the aggregate Value of the Wakala Assets of the relevant Series shall be at least equal to the aggregate face amount of the Certificates then outstanding;

in each case, on an as is basis but free and clear of any adverse claim (without any warranty express or implied and if any warranty is implied by law, it shall be excluded to the fullest extent permitted by law) and otherwise on the terms and subject to the conditions of the Sale and Substitution Undertaking.

Co-ownership Undertaking

The Co-ownership Undertaking was executed as a deed on 16 October 2023 by PIF in favour of the Trustee and the Delegate, and is governed by English law.

In relation to each Series, PIF has irrevocably granted to the Trustee and the Delegate (in each case, on behalf of itself and the Certificateholders) in relation to any Unlisted Shares comprised in the relevant Wakala Portfolio, each of the following rights:

- (a) save for any Specified Purchase, it shall not purchase any Unlisted Shares which would result in it becoming a co-owner in the Relevant Company with the Trustee unless, prior to so doing, PIF notifies the Trustee and the Delegate of the intended purchase of such Unlisted Shares, as the case may be (the “General Co-ownership Notice”);
- (b) following any Market Purchase or Specified Purchase:
 - (i) it may, at its discretion:
 - (A) (in the case of a Market Purchase) procure as soon as reasonably practicable cancellation of the relevant Certificates in accordance with the Conditions or as soon as reasonably practicable on-sell the relevant Certificates that are the subject of the Market Purchase; and

- (B) (in the case of a Specified Purchase) as soon as reasonably practicable on-sell the relevant Unlisted Shares that are the subject of the Specified Purchase,
 - in each case (other than the cancellation of the relevant Certificates) to any other person (other than a Subsidiary of PIF) such that it is no longer a co-owner in the Relevant Company with the Trustee; and
 - (ii) if it continues as a co-owner in the Relevant Company with the Trustee, it shall immediately notify the Trustee of that fact (the “Specified Co-ownership Notice”); and
 - (c) if:
 - (i) either PIF:
 - (A) (i) has delivered a General Co-ownership Notice and is a co-owner in the Relevant Company with the Trustee; or (ii) has delivered a Specified Co-ownership Notice; or
 - (B) (i) has neither delivered a General Co-ownership Notice nor a Specified Co-ownership Notice; and (ii) is a co-owner in the Relevant Company with the Trustee on the Relevant Date corresponding to the Shortfall Payment Date; and
 - (ii) the aggregate Value of the Co-owner Unlisted Shares forming part of:
 - (A) the Substituted Wakala Assets on the Relevant Date corresponding to the relevant Shortfall Payment Date is less than the aggregate Initial Value of such Unlisted Shares; and
 - (B) the Wakala Assets, the Certificateholder Put Right Wakala Assets or the Optional Dissolution Wakala Assets, as the case may be, on the Relevant Date corresponding to the relevant Shortfall Payment Date is less than the Required Shares Amount,
- (each such difference, a “Shortfall Amount”), it shall:
- (A) (in the case of the Shortfall Payment Date corresponding to a substitution date) pay the applicable Shortfall Amount to the Collection Account on such relevant Shortfall Payment Date; and
 - (B) (in the case of the Shortfall Payment Date corresponding to a Dissolution Date) pay the Shortfall Amount directly (in same day, freely transferable, cleared funds) to the Transaction Account on such relevant Shortfall Payment Date.

PIF has agreed in the Co-ownership Undertaking that all payments by it under the Co-ownership Undertaking must be made in the Specified Currency and without any withholding or deduction for, or on account of, any taxes unless required by law and without set off or counterclaim of any kind and, in such case, PIF will pay all additional amounts as will result in the receipt by the Trustee of such net amounts as would have been receivable by it if no withholding or deduction had been made.

PIF has undertaken in the Co-ownership Undertaking that any payment obligations of PIF under the Co-ownership Undertaking will constitute unconditional, unsubordinated and unsecured obligations of PIF and (save for such exceptions as may be provided by applicable law) shall at all times rank at least pari passu with all other present and future unsecured and unsubordinated obligations of PIF from time to time outstanding.

Master Declaration of Trust, as supplemented by each Supplemental Declaration of Trust

The Master Declaration of Trust was entered into on 16 October 2023 between the Trustee, PIF and the Delegate and is governed by English law. A Supplemental Declaration of Trust between the same parties will be entered into on the Issue Date of each Tranche of Certificates and will also be governed by English law.

The Trust Assets in respect of each Series of Certificates comprise (i) all of the cash proceeds of the issue of the Certificates, pending the application thereof in accordance with the terms of the Transaction Documents; (ii) all of the Trustee's rights, title, interests, benefits and entitlements, present and future, in, to and under the Wakala Portfolio; (iii) all of the Trustee's rights, title, interests, benefits and entitlements, present and future, in, to and under the Transaction Documents (excluding any representations given by PIF to the Trustee and/or the Delegate pursuant to any of the Transaction Documents or the covenant given to the Trustee pursuant to clause 17.1 of the Master Declaration of Trust); (iv) all amounts standing to the credit of the Transaction Account from time to time; and (v) all proceeds of the foregoing.

If and to the extent the Trustee has exercised its rights under Condition 19 to issue additional Certificates in respect of a Series, on the date of issue of such additional Certificates, the Trustee will execute a Declaration of Commingling of Assets for and on behalf of the holders of the existing Certificates and the holders of such additional Certificates so created and issued, declaring that the Additional Assets transferred to the Trustee (in respect of the issuance of the additional Certificates) and the Wakala Assets comprising the Wakala Portfolio immediately prior to the acquisition of the Additional Assets (in respect of the relevant Series as in existence immediately prior to the creation and issue of such additional Certificates in relation to the relevant Series) are commingled and shall collectively comprise part of the Trust Assets for the benefit of the holders of the existing Certificates and the holders of such additional Certificates as tenants in common pro rata according to the face amount of Certificates held by each Certificateholder, in accordance with the Master Declaration of Trust.

Pursuant to the Master Declaration of Trust as supplemented by the relevant Supplemental Declaration of Trust, the Trustee will, in relation to each Series of Certificates, inter alia:

- (a) hold the relevant Trust Assets on trust absolutely for and on behalf of the holders of the Certificates as beneficiaries in respect of that Series only; and
- (b) act as trustee in respect of the Trust Assets, distribute the income from the Trust Assets and perform its duties in accordance with the provisions of the Master Declaration of Trust as supplemented by the relevant Supplemental Declaration of Trust.

The Trustee will irrevocably and unconditionally appoint the Delegate to be its delegate and attorney and in its name, on its behalf and as its act and deed to execute, deliver and perfect all documents, and to exercise all of the present and future trusts, powers (including the power to sub-delegate), rights, authorities (including, but not limited to, the authority to request directions from any Certificateholders and the power to make any determinations to be made under the Master Declaration of Trust as supplemented by the relevant Supplemental Declaration of Trust or any of the other Transaction Documents) and discretions vested in the Trustee by the Master Declaration of Trust as supplemented by the relevant Supplemental Declaration of Trust, that the Delegate may consider to be necessary or desirable in order, subject to it being indemnified and/or secured and/or pre-funded to its satisfaction, to exercise all of the rights of the Trustee under any of the Transaction Documents and make such distributions from the relevant Trust Assets as the Trustee is bound to make in accordance with the Master Declaration of Trust as supplemented by the relevant Supplemental Declaration of Trust. The appointment of such delegate is intended to be in the interests of the Certificateholders and does not affect the Trustee's continuing role and obligations as sole trustee.

In respect of the powers, trusts, authorities, discretions, rights and duties vested in or delegated to the Delegate in accordance with the provisions of the Master Declaration of Trust, the Delegate is not bound to take any steps to ascertain whether any Dissolution Event and/or Tax Event has happened, or to monitor or supervise the performance of the Obligor or the Trustee or any of the other parties to the Transaction Documents or under the Certificates or any other agreement or documents relating to the transactions therein. The Delegate can request a certificate signed by an authorised signatory of the Trustee or Obligor confirming that, as at a date no more than seven days before the date of the certificate, no Dissolution Event, nor any Tax Event had occurred since the previous certification date (but is not otherwise entitled to receive such a certificate on an on-going basis).

Until it shall have actual knowledge or shall have express notice pursuant to the provisions of Master Declaration of Trust to the contrary, the Delegate shall be entitled to, and shall, assume that no Dissolution Event or Tax Event has happened and that the Trustee and the other parties to the Transaction Documents are observing and performing all their respective obligations under the Transaction Documents and no event has happened as a consequence of which any of the Certificates may become redeemable.

PIF has covenanted and undertaken in the Master Declaration of Trust as follows:

- (a) to comply with all provisions of the Conditions which are expressed to be applicable to it;
- (b) to comply with the terms of the Transaction Documents to which it is a party;
- (c) to maintain actual or constructive possession, custody or control of all of the Wakala Assets comprised in the Wakala Portfolio at all times provided that, in each case, it is legally possible for the Obligor to so maintain;
- (d) to ensure that the Wakala Portfolio applicable to each Series of Floating Rate Certificates is not at any time comprised solely of Listed Shares; and
- (e) subject to the Conditions, as soon as reasonably practicable, give notice in writing to the Trustee and the Delegate upon becoming aware the occurrence of a Dissolution Event or Tax Event (and the steps, if any, being taken to remedy it).

PIF has acknowledged and agreed in the Master Declaration of Trust that the Obligor Events applicable to it are set out in full in the Conditions, that it is fully aware of and understands the terms thereof and that the occurrence thereof shall constitute a Dissolution Event for the purposes of the Conditions.

PIF has covenanted and undertaken in the Master Declaration of Trust that:

- (a) if, at the time of delivery of an exercise notice in accordance with the provisions of the Purchase Undertaking, the Public Investment Fund remains in actual or constructive possession, custody or control of, all or any part of the Wakala Assets or the Certificateholder Put Right Wakala Assets, as the case may be; and
- (b) if, following delivery of an exercise notice in accordance with the provisions of the Purchase Undertaking, PIF fails to pay the relevant Exercise Price or the Certificateholder Put Right Exercise Price, as the case may be, in accordance with the provisions of the Purchase Undertaking for any reason whatsoever,

PIF shall (as an independent, severable and separately enforceable obligation) fully indemnify the Trustee for the purpose of redemption in full of the Certificates then outstanding or the relevant Certificates to be redeemed on the Certificateholder Put Right Date, as the case may be, and, accordingly, the amount payable under any such indemnity claim will equal the relevant Exercise Price or the Certificateholder Put Right Exercise Price, as the case may be.

In the event that the Trustee fails to comply with any obligation to pay additional amounts pursuant to Condition 10, PIF has covenanted and undertaken in the Master Declaration of Trust that it will unconditionally and irrevocably (irrespective of the payment of any fee), as a continuing obligation, pay to or to the order of the Delegate (for the benefit of the Certificateholders) such net amounts as are necessary so that the amount receivable by the Delegate (after any withholding or deduction for tax) equals any and all additional amounts required to be paid by it in respect of the Certificates pursuant to Condition 10.

A non-interest bearing Transaction Account in London will be established in the name of the Trustee. Moneys received in the Transaction Account will, inter alia, comprise payments of Periodic Distribution Amounts and/or Dissolution Amounts immediately prior to each Periodic Distribution Date and/or any Dissolution Date, as the case may be. The Declaration of Trust shall provide that all moneys credited to the Transaction Account from time to time will be applied in the order of priority set out in the Declaration of Trust.

TAXATION

The following is a general description of certain tax considerations relating to the Certificates. It does not purport to be a complete analysis of all tax considerations relating to the Certificates and is not intended as tax advice. Prospective purchasers of Certificates should consult their own tax advisers as to which countries' tax laws could be relevant to acquiring, holding and disposing of Certificates and receiving payments of profit, principal and/or other amounts under the Certificates and the consequences of such actions under the tax laws of those countries. This summary is based upon the law as in effect on the date of this Offering Circular and is subject to any change in laws that may take effect after such date.

Cayman Islands

The following is a discussion of certain Cayman Islands tax consequences of an investment in the Certificates. The discussion is a general summary of present law, which is subject to prospective and retroactive change. It is not intended as tax advice, does not consider any investor's particular circumstances, and does not consider tax consequences other than those arising under Cayman Islands law.

Under existing Cayman Islands laws, payments on Certificates issued under the Programme will not be subject to taxation in the Cayman Islands and no withholding will be required on the payments to any holder of the Certificates, nor will gains derived from the disposal of the Certificates be subject to Cayman Islands income or corporation tax. The Cayman Islands currently have no income, corporation or capital gains tax and no estate duty, inheritance or gift tax. On 11 October 2023, the Trustee received an undertaking from the Governor in Cabinet of the Cayman Islands, pursuant to the Tax Concessions Act (As Revised) of the Cayman Islands, that for a period of 30 years from the date of grant of that undertaking no law which is enacted in the Cayman Islands imposing any tax to be levied on profits, income, gains or appreciation shall apply to the Trustee or its operations and, in addition, that no tax to be levied on profits, income, gains or appreciations or which is in the nature of estate duty or inheritance tax shall be payable on or in respect of the shares or other obligations (which includes the Certificates) of the Trustee or by way of the withholding in whole or part of any relevant payment as defined in the Tax Concessions Act (As Revised). No capital or stamp duties are levied in the Cayman Islands on the issue or redemption of Certificates. However, an instrument transferring title to any Certificates, if brought to or executed in the Cayman Islands, would be subject to Cayman Islands stamp duty. An annual registration fee is payable by the Trustee to the Cayman Islands Registrar of Companies which is calculated by reference to the nominal amount of its authorised capital. At current rates, this annual registration fee is U.S.$1,006.10. The foregoing is based on current law and practice in the Cayman Islands and this is subject to change therein.

Kingdom of Saudi Arabia

Overview of Saudi Tax Law and Zakat Regulations

Income Tax

According to the Income Tax Law issued under Royal Decree No. M/1 dated 15/1/1425H (corresponding to 6 March 2004) and its Implementing Regulations issued under Ministerial Resolution No. 1535 dated 11/6/1425H (corresponding to 29 July 2004), as amended from time to time (the “Income Tax Law”), a resident company in the Kingdom with foreign (i.e., non-GCC) ownership (on its foreign partner's (shareholder's) share) and a non-resident who carries out business in the Kingdom through a Permanent Establishment (as defined below) is subject to corporate income tax in the Kingdom at the rate of 20 per cent. (20%) Resident companies wholly-owned by GCC persons (in addition to persons subject to Zakat listed below under the section entitled “Zakat”) are subject to Zakat instead of corporate income tax. Resident companies jointly owned by GCC and non-GCC persons are subject to corporate income tax in respect of the share of their taxable profit attributable to the ownership (legal or beneficial) percentage held by non-GCC persons and Zakat on the ownership (legal or beneficial) percentage held by GCC persons.

Shares held directly by GCC persons or via other GCC companies (where the shareholding structure does not fall outside of the GCC) in a resident company are subject to Zakat and not income tax. In determining the tax/Zakat profile of a Saudi tax/Zakat resident company, the Zakat, Tax and Customs Authority (“ZATCA”) applies a “look-through” approach to determine whether the up-stream shareholding structure at any point exists outside of the GCC (i.e., at the ultimate shareholder level). However, the “look-through” approach only applies to shareholders that are GCC resident persons. Therefore, the percentage of the share capital of a legal entity resident in the Kingdom that is owned by a shareholder entity incorporated outside the GCC is subject to corporate income tax regardless of the nationalities of the ultimate shareholders in such non-GCC incorporated entity.

Zakat

The Zakat implementing regulations of the Kingdom were issued by Ministerial Resolution No. 2216, dated 7/7/1440H (corresponding to 14 March 2019) and became effective for financial years starting 1 January 2019. However, recently, new Zakat implementing regulations under MR 1007 dated 19/8/1445H, published on 11/9/1445H (corresponding to 21 March 2024) (the “New Zakat Regulations”) were issued and are effective for financial years starting 1 January 2024 (and replaced Resolution No. 2216 dated 7/7/1440). The Zakat payers have the option to apply the New Zakat Regulations retrospectively subject to fulfillment of certain conditions.

Zakat is a religious levy subject to varying interpretations and complex computation rules. Separate rules are applicable for the calculation of Zakat by (i) resident Zakat payers who are engaged in the Kingdom in financing activities licensed by SAMA, (ii) finance funds licensed by the CMA and (iii) Zakat payers who are engaged in the Kingdom in non-financing activities.

According to the New Zakat Regulations, the following are subject to the provisions of the New Zakat Regulations:

- GCC natural persons resident in the Kingdom, carrying on activity in the Kingdom under a license/applicable rules and regulations;
- Saudi-owned sole proprietorship that is established in KSA in accordance with relevant regulations and rules;
- resident companies wholly-owned by GCC persons and for companies jointly owned by GCC and non-GCC persons, on the ownership percentage held by such GCC persons;
- State-owned companies and resident companies owned by the Fund;
- resident companies listed on a financial market in the Kingdom on the shares held by GCC persons and non-GCC persons (except for ownership by founder shareholders and those considered founder shareholders based on the relevant articles or other legal documents); and
- finance funds licensed by the CMA.

Notwithstanding the above, Zakat is not assessed/applicable to:

- (i) resident capital companies (i.e. limited liability companies, closed joint stock companies, listed entities, single shareholder companies) operating in the oil and hydrocarbon production sector, whether they are natural or legal persons, resident or non-resident, except shares owned directly or indirectly by persons working in the production of oil and hydrocarbons in capital companies listed in the Saudi capital market, and the shares of these companies owned directly or indirectly in capital companies;

- (ii) any entity (or Zakat payer) which is exempted by a decision of ZATCA or Ministry of Finance; and
- (iii) any resident entity with non-GCC ownership (on the percentage owned by non-GCC shareholders) and a non-resident who carries on business in the Kingdom through a Permanent Establishment, as they will be subject to corporate income tax.

With the New Zakat Regulations, charity associations, entities wholly owned by The Ministry of Endowments (“Awqaf”) and non-profit organizations are exempt from Zakat subject to certain conditions.

As per the New Zakat Regulations, if a zakat payer is following the Gregorian year, Zakat will be levied at approximately 2.578 per cent (2.578%) (prorated Zakat rate) on all the elements of Zakat base (including adjusted profits). The Zakat rate will be 2.5 per cent (2.5%) in case the Zakat payer is following the Hijri year. Moreover, there are maximum and minimum limits for Zakat base and Zakat payers will settle Zakat within these limits, unless their Zakat base is negative and they are in an adjusted loss situation (in which case, no Zakat will be due).

Withholding Tax

The Saudi Arabian tax law provides for actual withholding tax (“WHT”) at different rates (ranging from 5 per cent (5%) to 20 per cent (20%)) on payments made to non-resident parties (including those located in the GCC) by a Saudi resident or a Permanent Establishment of a non-resident person from a source of income in Saudi Arabia.

WHT is imposed on payments against services as well as payments for dividends, interest, and royalties but not on goods. Services are defined to mean any work performed for compensation except for the purchase and sale of goods or any other properties. Interest payments or loan charges paid to non-residents generally attract a 5 per cent (5%) WHT in the Kingdom, unless such WHT is reduced or eliminated pursuant to the terms of an applicable double tax treaty.

Application of double tax treaties in the Kingdom may take place under one of two methods: (i) refund mechanism, which requires the payor to be subject to the relevant payment of WHT and then a subsequent refund request of the WHT may be submitted to the ZATCA; or (ii) upfront claim method, which provides for the possibility of the payor to not be subject to the relevant payment to WHT. Both mechanisms require the beneficiary of the relevant payment to provide certain documents and forms to the ZATCA (such as tax residency certificate).

Value Added Tax (VAT)

The Kingdom introduced VAT with effect from 1 January 2018 pursuant to ratifying the GCC Framework Agreement with the remaining GCC member states. The VAT legislation was implemented in the Kingdom in line with the GCC Framework Agreement.

All goods and services supplied within or imported into the Kingdom are subject to VAT, unless they are classified as exempt or outside the scope for VAT purposes. Certain supplies are prescribed to be subject to VAT at a rate of zero (including qualifying medicines and medical goods, investment metals, qualified military goods, supplies to diplomatic missions, exports and international transportation). From 1 July 2020, the standard rate of VAT was increased from 5 per cent (5%) to 15 per cent (15%) and is applicable on all the standard-rated taxable supplies made in the Kingdom.

Certain financial services, including those where the consideration payable in respect of the services is by way of an implicit margin or spread (including but not limited to interest, spread, margin or other implicit margin), are treated as exempt supplies from a Saudi Arabian VAT perspective. Further, the exemption also applies to the issue or transfer of a debt security, equity security, or any other transferable document recognising an obligation to pay a monetary amount to the bearer.

“Capital Certificate” is not a defined term for Saudi Arabian VAT purposes, but is akin in nature to a debt security and should be exempt for Saudi Arabian VAT purposes where the supply is made by a registered taxpayer in the Kingdom as a part of its regular economic activity. However, the issue of securities by persons residing outside the Kingdom would be outside the scope of VAT in Saudi Arabia. Any additional fee, such as an administration charge in relation to the issue of a security, would be treated as consideration for a taxable supply subject to VAT where the supply is made in Saudi Arabia. Such an additional fee could be subject to VAT under a reverse charge mechanism if it is received by a VAT-registered taxpayer in the Kingdom from a supplier located outside Saudi Arabia.

Profits generated by holding the Capital Certificate or trading gains from its sale should be treated as VAT-exempt or outside the scope of VAT (depending on the client-specific circumstances of the transaction) for Saudi Arabian VAT purposes. The VAT exemption does not apply to fees charged by brokers or other intermediary parties for their services.

Further, should certain services be subject to Saudi Arabian VAT, supplies that are not related to Saudi Arabian real estate services and in other cases prescribed by law may qualify for a zero rating if supplied to a Saudi Arabian non-resident who benefits from the service outside of Saudi Arabia, subject to the fulfilment of the relevant conditions as mentioned in Article 33 of the Saudi Arabian VAT implementing regulations. Otherwise, the services would be subject to VAT at the standard rate of 15 per cent (15%).

The precise reporting requirements related to the various payments and receipts associated with the aforementioned transactions will depend on the residence of the Certificateholders, their types of activity and whether they are registered for Saudi Arabian VAT purposes. However, with the exception of explicit fees or charges, any trading gains should not be subject to VAT as they should either be treated as outside the scope or exempt for the purposes of Saudi Arabian VAT.

Real Estate Transaction Tax (RETT)

Pursuant to the Royal Decree No. (A/84) dated 1 October 2020, new rules were announced treating certain supplies of real estate as exempt from Saudi Arabian VAT and implementing RETT at the rate of 5 per cent. (5%) The RETT implementing regulations became effective on 4 October 2020. Subsequently, the ZATCA announced certain amendments to the RETT implementing regulations through different ministerial resolutions.

The tax base for RETT should be the value agreed upon between the parties, or the value of the property, provided that it is not less than the fair market value at the date of disposal.

Further, RETT at 5 per cent (5%) will be imposed on certain real estate transactions. As explained above, the transactions under consideration refer to any legal act transferring ownership or possession of Saudi Arabian real estate, including - but not limited to - contracts intended for transferring the right of usage or the right to a long-term lease. As an example, this would include the transfer of shares in a so-called “real estate company”. The term “real estate company” is not defined in the RETT Regulations approved by the Ministerial Resolution No. 712 dated 2 October 2020 issued by the Saudi Arabian Minister of Finance (with further amendments). However, the guidelines on RETT issued by the ZATCA clarify that a company will be considered as a “real estate company” if the real estate assets constitute more than 50 per cent (50%) by value of the assets or capital.

The guidelines further clarify that the rationale behind this principle is that the transfer of shares in a real estate company is, in effect, an indirect transfer of ownership of the real estate assets of such a company.

RETT would not be applicable on disposal of real estate located outside Saudi Arabia.

Each real estate transaction must be registered with ZATCA and RETT accounted for by the seller on each transaction separately. Certain real estate transactions are exempt from RETT, for example: disposals related to family or charitable endowments; dividing property for inheritance purposes; gifts between relatives up to the third degree; disposal of real estate in accordance with a legally documented will; disposals by a government entity acting in its capacity as a public authority, or a government agency or legal public body for public benefit; temporary disposals for the purpose of a guarantee for financing or credit or transferring between a fund and custodian; a contribution for shares of a company established in the Kingdom (except for joint venture companies), provided the shares are not disposed of within five years; disposals if one of the parties is a foreign government, international organization, diplomatic or military body, or mission or a member of the diplomatic, consular or military corps accredited in Saudi Arabia, provided reciprocity applies; in kind contribution to real estate investments fund, provided that the respective fund units are not disposed of until the date of termination or liquidation, or within five years from the date of registration, subject to certain conditions.

Capital Gains Tax

According to Article 2 of the Income Tax Law, persons subject to taxation include non-residents in the Kingdom with taxable income generated from sources in the Kingdom and without a Permanent Establishment for tax purposes in the Kingdom.

Further, Article 1(2) of the By-Laws to the Income Tax Law defines the applicable tax on such a person as being subject to the following:

- (a) WHT, if the income generated is stipulated under Article 68 of the Income Tax Law (as discussed in “—Withholding Tax” and “—Certain tax and Zakat implications for Certificateholders—Certificateholders who are not Resident in the Kingdom”); and
- (b) capital gains tax, if the income is derived from disposal of fixed and traded assets, or from disposal of shares in a resident company and bonds/notes under the general provisions of the Income Tax Law.

Based on the above, if the sale of the Certificates by the Certificateholders is considered a source of income in the Kingdom, then the related income (or capital gain) will be subject to 20 per cent (20%) tax according to the rules for computation of capital gains tax provided in the Income Tax Law for non-residents.

Capital gains realised from disposal of securities (such as the Certificates) traded inside or outside the Kingdom are exempt from tax in the Kingdom subject to certain conditions. The above exemption provided in the Income Tax Law is not applicable to the Certificates, as the Certificates will not be listed on Tadawul in the Kingdom.

Capital gains realised from disposal of the Certificates by (a) a resident Certificateholder, (b) a non-resident Certificateholder with a Permanent Establishment for tax purposes (if such gain is attributed to such Permanent Establishment’s activities) will not be subject to capital gains tax. However, such gains will be included in the total income of such Certificateholders subject to corporate income tax in the Kingdom.

Certain tax and Zakat implications for Certificateholders

(A) Certificateholders who are GCC persons and Resident in the Kingdom

Legal entities Resident in the Kingdom and wholly owned by GCC persons

All income in the nature of a loan charge or capital gains realised in respect of the Certificates (to the extent they fall under the persons subject to Zakat as mentioned above) will be part of such Certificateholder's Saudi Arabian reportable gross income subject to Zakat. This summary does not consider the extent to which such Certificateholder would be liable to Zakat as a consequence of acquiring, holding or disposing of its Certificates. It should be noted that as per the New Zakat Regulations, sukuk and bonds/notes are allowed as deductions from the Zakat base of the investors provided that: (i) such sukuk and bonds/notes are for non-trading purposes and (ii) the Trustee has declared through any document acceptable to ZATCA to treat such sukuk and bonds/notes as capital for Zakat purposes, regardless of their classification in the issuer's or obligor's financial statements. The treatment adopted by the Trustee cannot be changed during the term of the relevant sukuk and bond/notes. Since the issuer will not treat the certificates as capital for Zakat purposes, therefore, the investors may not be able to take the deduction of their investments in these notes from their Zakat base.

Legal Entities Resident in the Kingdom but not Wholly Owned by GCC Persons

Certificateholders that are legal entities resident in the Kingdom owned jointly by GCC persons and non-GCC persons are subject to Zakat and corporate income tax in the Kingdom, based on the percentage of shares held by GCC and non-GCC shareholders, respectively in respect of any income received in the nature of loan charge or capital gains realised in respect of the Certificates. The Zakat implications in the previous para will be applicable on the GCC shareholding of the entities.

Certificateholders that are GCC Natural Persons and Resident in the Kingdom

GCC natural persons resident in the Kingdom for tax purposes should in principle be subject to Zakat in the Kingdom if they carry out activities requiring a license under the applicable rules and regulations in the Kingdom. However, if these Certificateholders do not perform any activity in the Kingdom (other than holding the Certificates), Zakat compliance/administration is not currently enforced by ZATCA for such individuals (unless they carry out such activities through the relevant license to operate commercially in the Kingdom).

(B) Certificateholders who are non-GCC persons and Resident in the Kingdom

Certificateholders that are non-GCC persons and resident in the Kingdom will be subject to corporate income tax in the Kingdom.

Income in the nature of a loan charge or capital gains realized in respect of the Certificates will be part of such Certificateholder's reportable gross income in the Kingdom, subject to 20 per cent (20%) corporate income tax (other than in respect of persons engaged in oil and hydrocarbon and natural gas production where the prescribed income tax rates for such activities will be applicable).

Certificateholders that are non-GCC natural persons and resident in the Kingdom, who receive income in the nature of a loan charge or capital gains realised in respect of the Certificates and these incomes are connected to business activity in the Kingdom, such income generally will be subject to 20 per cent (20%) corporate income tax in the Kingdom. For Certificateholders that are non-GCC natural persons and Resident in the Kingdom who are not engaged in any business activity, these Certificateholders may be subject to Saudi Arabian income tax. Such prospective Certificateholders are therefore advised to consult their own tax/zakat advisers as to the applicable tax/zakat laws in respect of acquiring, holding and/or disposing of Certificates and/or receiving any payments thereunder.

(C) Certificateholders who are not Resident in the Kingdom having no Permanent Establishment

Certificateholders, either natural persons or legal entities, who are not resident in the Kingdom (whether such Certificateholders are GCC persons (other than in the Kingdom) or non-GCC persons), prima facie, should not be subject to Saudi Arabian tax since the payment (i.e. a loan charge) flows from a non-Saudi entity (i.e. the Trustee), which is not tax resident in the Kingdom, to the Certificateholders who are also non-resident.

However, direct payments (if any) by the Obligor or any Saudi tax resident that are in the nature of a loan charge (other than capital gains realised from disposal of Certificates) in respect of the Certificates (as provided by the Terms and Conditions of the Certificates) to Certificateholders that are resident outside the Kingdom are subject to WHT at a rate of 5 per cent (5%) in the Kingdom. In a few limited instances, Certificateholders may claim a refund of the WHT where a double tax treaty is in place between the Kingdom and the country in which the Certificateholder is resident for tax purposes and where such treaty provides for an exemption, (lower tax rate or refund subject to meeting certain conditions and submission of prescribed documents).

Certain transaction documents may require the Obligor to pay additional amounts in the event that any withholding or deduction is required by applicable law to be made in respect of payments made by it to the Trustee, or by the Trustee to Certificateholders.

Non-resident entities having a Permanent Establishment in the Kingdom are subject to Saudi Arabian corporate income tax at the rate of 20 per cent (20%) in respect of any profit payments received or gain realized in respect of the Certificates and attributable to such Permanent Establishment, but will not be subject to Zakat.

Non-resident entities having a Permanent Establishment in the Kingdom are subject to Saudi Arabian corporate income tax at the rate of 20 per cent (20%) in respect of any profit payments received or gain realised in respect of the Certificates and attributable to such Permanent Establishment, but will not be subject to Zakat.

General

For the purposes of this summary:

- (a) A “GCC Person” means: (i) a natural person having the nationality of any of the GCC countries and (ii) any legal entity wholly-owned by GCC nationals and established under the laws of a GCC country;
- (b) Loan Charge (proceeds/interest)” as defined in Article 5(1) of the By-Laws to Income Tax Law means an amount paid for the use of money. This includes income realised from loan transactions of any type, whether secured by guarantees or not, or by giving rights to participate in the profits of the debited person or not. It also includes income realized from governmental and non-governmental bonds/notes.
- (c) Subject to the exceptions stipulated in the Income Tax Law, a “Permanent Establishment” of a non-resident in the Kingdom represents a permanent place for the non-resident’s activity where such person conducts the activity either fully or partly, which also includes any activity conducted by the non-resident through an agent. A non-resident carrying out an activity in the Kingdom through a licensed branch is considered to have a Permanent Establishment in the Kingdom.
- (d) A person is “resident” in the Kingdom for tax purposes (as defined in Chapter 2—Article 3 of the Income Tax Law), if it meets the following conditions:
 - (i) a natural person is considered a tax resident in the Kingdom for a taxable year if such person meets either of the two following conditions:
 - 1) such person has a permanent place of abode in the Kingdom and is physically present in the Kingdom for a total of not less than 30 days in the taxable year; or
 - 2) such person is physically present in the Kingdom for a period of not less than 183 days in the taxable year; and

(ii) a company is considered a tax resident in the Kingdom during a taxable year if it meets either of the following conditions:

- 1) it is formed in accordance with the Saudi Companies Law; or
- 2) its place of central control and management is located in the Kingdom.

Certificateholders should not be deemed to be resident in the Kingdom solely by reason of holding any Certificates.

FATCA Disclosure

Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act

Pursuant to certain provisions of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986, commonly known as “FATCA”, a “foreign financial institution” (as defined by FATCA) may be required to withhold on certain payments it makes (“foreign passthru payments”) to persons that fail to meet certain certification, reporting or related requirements. Each of the Trustee and the Fund may be a foreign financial institution for these purposes. A number of jurisdictions (including the Kingdom and the Cayman Islands) have entered into, or have agreed in substance to, intergovernmental agreements with the United States to implement FATCA (“IGAs”), which modify the way in which FATCA applies in their jurisdictions. Certain aspects of the application of the FATCA provisions and IGAs to instruments such as Certificates, including whether withholding would ever be required pursuant to FATCA or an IGA with respect to payments on instruments such as Certificates, are uncertain and may be subject to change. Even if withholding would be required pursuant to FATCA or an IGA with respect to payments on instruments such as Certificates, proposed regulations have been issued that provide that such withholding would not apply prior to the date that is two years after the date on which final regulations defining “foreign passthru payments” are published in the U.S. Federal Register. In the preamble to the proposed regulations, the U.S. Treasury Department indicated that taxpayers may rely on these proposed regulations until the issuance of final regulations. Additionally, Certificates that are characterised as debt (or which are not otherwise characterised as equity and have a fixed term) for U.S. federal tax purposes that are issued on or prior to the date that is six months after the date on which final regulations defining “foreign passthru payments” are filed with the U.S. Federal Register generally would be grandfathered for purposes of FATCA withholding unless materially modified after such date. However, if additional Certificates (as described under Condition 19) that are not distinguishable from previously issued Certificates are issued after the expiration of the grandfathering period and are subject to withholding under FATCA, then withholding agents may treat all Certificates, including the Certificates offered prior to the expiration of the grandfathering period, as subject to withholding under FATCA. Certificateholders should consult their own tax advisers regarding how these rules may apply to their investment in Certificates.

The Proposed Financial Transactions Tax (“FTT”)

On 14 February 2013, the European Commission published a proposal (the “Commission's Original Proposal”) for a Directive for a common financial transactions tax (“FTT”) in Belgium, Germany, Estonia, Greece, Spain, France, Italy, Austria, Portugal, Slovenia and Slovakia (the “Participating Member States”). In December 2015, Estonia withdrew from the group of Participating Member States.

The Commission's Original Proposal had a very broad scope and would, if introduced, have applied to certain dealings in the Certificates (including secondary market transactions) in certain circumstances. The issuance and subscription of Certificates would, however, have been exempt.

In 2019, the Finance Ministers of the Participating Member States indicated that they were discussing a new FTT proposal based on a French model of the tax (and the possible mutualisation of the tax as a contribution to the EU budget) (the “2019 FTT Proposal”). Under the 2019 FTT Proposal, the FTT would only have applied to transactions in financial instruments issued by a company, partnership or other entity whose registered office is established within one of the Participating Member States and which had a market capitalisation of at least EUR 1 billion on 1 December of the year preceding the respective transaction. The FTT under the 2019 FTT Proposal would not have applied to straight bonds.

No agreement has been reached between the Participating Member States on either the Commission's Original Proposal or the 2019 FTT Proposal. Subsequently, the European Commission declared that, if there was no agreement between the Participating Member States by the end 2022, it would endeavour to propose a new own resource, based on a new FTT, by June 2024 with a view to its introduction by 1 January 2026, as also set out in the Council Regulation laying down the Multi-annual Financial Framework for the years 2021 to 2027.

Prospective holders of the Certificates should therefore note that the scope of any FTT proposal remains uncertain and subject to negotiation between the Participating Member States. Any such proposal may also be altered prior to any implementation, the timing of which also remains unclear. Additional EU Member States may decide to participate and/or other Participating Member States may decide to withdraw. Accordingly, prospective Certificateholders are advised to seek their own professional advice in relation to any FTT.

SUBSCRIPTION AND SALE

Summary of Dealer Agreement

Subject to the terms and on the conditions contained in an amended and restated dealer agreement dated 3 September 2024 (as modified and/or supplemented and/or restated from time to time, the “Dealer Agreement”) between the Trustee, the Obligor, the Arrangers and the Dealers, the Certificates will be offered on a continuous basis by the Trustee to the Dealers. However, the Trustee has reserved the right to sell Certificates directly on its own behalf to Dealers that are not Dealers. The Certificates may be resold at prevailing market prices, or at prices related thereto, at the time of such resale, as determined by the relevant Dealer. The Certificates may also be sold by the Trustee through the Dealers, acting as agents of the Trustee. The Dealer Agreement also provides for Certificates to be issued in syndicated Tranches that are underwritten on the basis set out in the Dealer Agreement by two or more Dealers.

The Trustee will pay each relevant Dealer a selling commission as agreed between them in respect of Certificates subscribed by it. The Trustee has agreed to reimburse the Arrangers and Dealers for their expenses incurred in connection with the establishment of the Programme and the Dealers for certain of their activities in connection with the Programme.

The Trustee has agreed to indemnify the Dealers against certain liabilities in connection with the offer and sale of the Certificates. The Dealer Agreement entitles the Dealers to terminate any agreement that they make to subscribe Certificates in certain circumstances prior to payment for such Certificates being made to the Trustee.

Selling Restrictions

United States

The Certificates have not been and will not be registered under the Securities Act and may not be offered or sold within the United States or to, or for the account or benefit of, U.S. persons except in accordance with Regulation S under the Securities Act or pursuant to an exemption from, or in a transaction not subject to, the registration requirements of the Securities Act and in accordance with all applicable securities laws of any state or other jurisdiction of the United States. Each Dealer has represented and agreed (i) that it has not offered and/or sold any Certificates, and will not offer and/or sell any Certificates (x) as part of their distribution at any time and (y) otherwise until 40 days after the later of the commencement of the offering of such Certificates and the closing date, only in accordance with Rule 903 of Regulation S under the Securities Act; and (ii) that neither it, its affiliates nor any persons acting on its or their behalf have engaged or will engage in any directed selling efforts with respect to any Certificate, and they have complied and will comply with the offering restrictions requirements of Regulation S; and (iii) that, at or prior to confirmation of any sale of Certificates, it will have sent to each distributor, dealer or person receiving a selling concession, fee or other remuneration that purchases Certificates from them during the distribution compliance period a confirmation or notice to substantially the following effect:

“The Securities covered hereby have not been and will not be registered under the U.S. Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”) and may not be offered or sold within the United States or to, or for the account or benefit of, U.S. persons by any person referred to in Rule 903 (b)(2)(iii) (x) as part of its distribution at any time or (y) otherwise until 40 days after the later of the commencement of the offering and the closing date, except in either case in accordance with Regulation S under the Securities Act. Terms used above have the meanings given to them by Regulation S.”

Terms used in this paragraph have the meanings given to them by Regulation S.

Until 40 days after the commencement of the offering of any Tranche of Certificates, an offer or sale of such Certificates within the United States by any dealer (whether or not participating in the offering of such Tranche of Certificates) may violate the registration requirements of the Securities Act if such offer or sale is made otherwise than in accordance with an available exemption from, or in a transaction not subject to, the registration requirements under the Securities Act and in accordance with all applicable securities laws of any state or other jurisdiction of the United States.

This Offering Circular has been prepared by the Trustee for use in connection with the offer and sale of the Certificates outside the United States. The Trustee and the Dealers reserve the right to reject any offer to purchase the Certificates, in whole or in part, for any reason. This Offering Circular does not constitute an offer to any person in the United States.

United Kingdom

Each Dealer has represented and agreed that:

- (a) in relation to any Certificates which have a maturity of less than one year: (a) it is a person whose ordinary activities involve it in acquiring, holding, managing or disposing of investments (as principal or agent) for the purposes of its business and (b) it has not offered or sold and will not offer or sell any Certificates other than to persons whose ordinary activities involve them in acquiring, holding, managing or disposing of investments (as principal or agent) for the purposes of their businesses or who it is reasonable to expect will acquire, hold, manage or dispose of investments (as principal or agent) for the purposes of their businesses where the issue of the Certificates would otherwise constitute a contravention of section 19 of the FSMA by the Trustee;
- (b) it has only communicated or caused to be communicated and will only communicate or cause to be communicated any invitation or inducement to engage in investment activity (within the meaning of section 21 of the FSMA) received by it in connection with the issue or sale of any Certificates in circumstances in which section 21(1) of the FSMA does not apply to the Trustee or the Obligor; and

No action has been or will be taken in the Kingdom that would permit a public offering of the Certificates. Any investor in the Kingdom or who is a Saudi person (a “Saudi Investor”) who acquires any Certificates pursuant to an offering should note that the offer of Certificates is a private placement under the Rules on the Offer of Securities and Continuing Obligations as issued by the Board of the Capital Market Authority (the “CMA”) pursuant to resolution number 3-123-2017 dated 27 December 2017 as amended by its resolution number 3-6-2024 dated 17 January 2024 and as further amended from time to time (the “Offer of Securities Rules”), made through a capital market institution licensed by the CMA, in each case, in accordance with the Offer of Securities Rules.

The Certificates may thus not be advertised, offered or sold to any person in the Kingdom other than to "institutional and qualified clients" under Article 8(a)(1) of the Offer of Securities Rules or by way of a limited offer under Article 9 of the Offer of Securities Rules. Each Dealer has represented and agreed, and each further Dealer appointed under the Programme will be required to represent and agree that any offer of Certificates made by it to a Saudi Investor will be made in compliance with Article 10 and either: (i) Article 8(a)(1); or (ii) Article 9 of the Offer of Securities Rules.

Each offer of Certificates shall not therefore constitute a "public offer", an "exempt offer" or a "parallel market offer" pursuant to the Offer of Securities Rules, but is subject to the restrictions on secondary market activity under Article 14 of the Offer of Securities Rules.

Although HSBC Bank plc is appointed as an Arranger and a Dealer pursuant to the Dealer Agreement, HSBC Saudi Arabia, which is a Capital Market Institution licensed by the CMA, will be the relevant legal entity for all regulated activities in the Kingdom relating to the issuance of any Certificates under the Programme, including offering and related applications to the CMA.

Dealers transacting with the Trustee, the Obligor or the Obligor's Affiliates

Certain of the Dealers and their affiliates have engaged, and may in the future engage, in investment banking and/or commercial banking transactions with, and may perform services to the Trustee, the Obligor and/or their affiliates in the ordinary course of business. Certain of the Dealers and their affiliates may have positions, deal or make markets in the Certificates issued under the Programme, related derivatives and reference obligations, including (but not limited to) entering into hedging strategies on behalf of the Trustee and its affiliates, investor clients, or as principal in order to manage their exposure, their general market risk, or other trading activities.

In addition, in the ordinary course of their business activities, the Dealers and their affiliates may make or hold a broad array of investments and actively trade debt and equity securities (or related derivative securities) and financial instruments (including bank financings) for their own account and for the accounts of their customers. Such investments and securities activities may involve securities and/or instruments of the Trustee or its affiliates. Certain of the Dealers or their affiliates routinely hedge their credit exposures to the Trustee consistent with their customary risk management policies. Typically, such Dealers and their affiliates would hedge such exposure by entering into transactions which consist of either the purchase of credit default swaps or the creation of trading positions in securities, including potentially the Certificates issued under the Programme. Any such positions could adversely affect future trading prices of Certificates issued under the Programme. The Dealers and their affiliates may also make investment recommendations and/or publish or express independent research views in respect of such securities or financial instruments and may hold, or recommend to clients that they acquire, trading positions in such securities and instruments.
